CHERRYVILLE

A happy New Year to all. Christmas exercises were held at the church Christmas eve. Santa Claus was there with a bag of candy and nuts for everyone and presents for several.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eden and baby, of Logan, spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Parnell Averill.

William Webber took his first load of shingles to Sandy last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rugh entertained William Runyan at Christmas dinner.

Fleta Turner, who is attending school in Portland, is home on a vacation.

Miss Lillian Averill, who is attending the Normal at Monmouth, is home on a vacation.

COTTRELL

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Hedin, of Lents, were the guests of Mr. Hedin's parents of this place Christmas.

Mrs. Ida Holmes and daughter Vera, of Springfield, are visiting Mrs. Holmes' parents Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Blackburn.

Miss Eva Schneider left Saturday for Sheridan where she will teach during the spring term.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Goger and children were the guests of Mrs. Goger's mother, Mrs. Kane, of Gresham, on Christmas.

Guy Hood is visiting his parents at Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Caldo are building a five-room bungalow on their farm.

HILLSVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Samuelson entertained for dinner Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield, Mrs. Campbell, her son and two daughters, all of Portland.

The Swedish people gave a Christmas tree at the church for the little tots on the evening of the 27th.

Aug. Olson and mother entertained friends from Portland during the first of the week.

B. M. Reid, of Seattle, is visiting with his sister Mrs. C. Taylor this week.

Mrs. Ernest Schedeen, who has been under a doctor's care a couple of weeks with a general breakdown and heart trouble, is convalescent.

PLEASANT HOME

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society will meet on Wednesday, January 6, with Mrs. George H. Blackburn.

Sick Headache.

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until one of those sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time." For sale by all Dealers.

Notice.

Gresham Shoe Shop has moved from the old location to John Metzger's building beside the Tailor Shop. CARL DAHL, Prop.

Looking Forward

The old year hasn't been so bad but we are looking forward to 1915 as a better one and hope during this coming year to win many new customers.

We are thankful to our old customers and friends for their patronage and support and wish one and all a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

STERLING & KIDDER,

PLEASANT VALLEY

A. B. Craft, of Forest Grove, was transacting business in the valley last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Long and daughter Florence of Portland, visited at the home of W. U. Moore Sunday.

E. Charleston, of Portland, was a valley visitor last Tuesday.

Mr. McNeal, of Lents, was a caller at the home of G. N. Sager one day this week.

W. U. Moore received a telegram Monday, conveying the sad news of his father's death which occurred Sunday at his home in Westerville, Ohio.

P. L. Bliss recently had his dairy herd consisting of twenty cows and fifteen head of young stock tested for evidence of tuberculosis, and received a clean slate from the inspector. Not a single animal was found to be in any way affected.

Dan McGraw has completed the erection of his new home and moved into it.

W. G. Rogers was out from the city one day recently looking after his place.

G. H. Richey and Fred Olson are building a line fence between their places.

P. L. Bliss is having about twenty acres of land cleared this winter preparatory to putting in crop in the spring.

John Puttkramer, of Portland, was out Tuesday looking after some improvements he is having made on his farm.

A meeting has been called for January 5th to meet at the rooms of the Commercial club, Portland, for the purpose of considering the advisability of excluding California potatoes from the Oregon markets on account of the prevalence of the tuber moth in that state. This question is of vital importance to potato growers and all interested should make it a point to be in attendance at this meeting.

Eyes tested and glasses fitted. Dr. Geo. Inglis.

VEUTURA PARK.

Mrs. Margaret Wells, of Castle Rock, Washington, is in the Portland sanitarium to undergo an operation. Mrs. Wells is the mother of Mrs. W. H. Sanford.

Mrs. J. Benson entertained about twenty out-of-town guests at dinner on Sunday last.

Mrs. Frank Hilgert, of Nampa, Idaho, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Sanford, being called here by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCoy held a McCoy family reunion on Christmas day, twelve sitting down to a table bountifully loaded with the usual Christmas bird with all its "trimmings."

Mrs. Noah Perry received word of the death on Monday, in Montclair, N. Y., of her father, H. M. Hurlburt. During their stay here, Mr. and Mrs. Hurlburt made many friends who are saddened to hear of his death.

Died, at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. S. Gruber, on December 30, Mrs. James Dickson. Mrs. Dickson leaves to mourn her loss, a husband, two children Hilda and Agnes, her mother, Mrs. Liza Reams, two sisters, Mrs. Gruber and Mrs. D. E. Steele and two brothers, W. P. Reams of Warrenton and P. E. Reams. The remains are at the East Side funeral director's establishment until funeral arrangements can be made.

The branch library is well patronized, showing that Ventura Park appreciates a good thing. There is a constant demand for books and the library is used very freely as a reading room on its open nights.

On a recent trip out from Portland the new auto stage carried 34 passengers. This also shows that we appreciate the best.

Sick Two Years With Indigestion. "Two years ago I was greatly benefited through using two or three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. S. A. Keller, Elida, Ohio. "Before taking them I was sick for two years with indigestion." Sold by all Dealers.

Dangers in a Cold.
Do you know that of all the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the colds themselves that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that they so often lead to. For that reason every cold should be gotten rid of with the

MILWAUKEE PNEUMATIC WATER SYSTEM

The Pfau is immersed directly into the well. The water is always pure, cold and fresh. No water storage tank of any kind is used, as they can not be kept clean. Pure water must come direct from the well.

pressure comes from a tank of compressed air supplied by gasoline or other power, which operates any number of wells or cisterns at any distance. Can not freeze, and power can be instantly set at high pressure for fire service. Costs little, easy to install in new or old houses, running cost low. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back.

Look Into This now while your farm buildings are safe, and protect them from fire and loss. You'll want a water system some time. Get the best and get it now—the "Pfau."
