COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

The people along the Columbia Highway are rejoicing over the good news that John Yeon has been reappointed roadmaster again for another year.

Our new high school is nearing completion, and will be a neat looking building and one everybody should be proud of. The rising generation will be the ones that will have the benefit of this school and it will surely prove to be one great step towards the development of manhood and womanhood in our community.

Columbia grange had a busy day at the last meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Dickenson, of Oswego grange, came over by auto to install the officers and in general helped to make the day a very pleasant one. The attendance was good and at this time Columbia grange has 65 members in good standing. The last two years have been very successful financially, about $500 have been paid off on debts, leaving the grange practically out of debt by the end of the year.

Miss Ada Woodward entertained a lot of her young friends at her home New Years.

Mrs. Lottie Benfield has been entertaining a lot of city folks at her bungalow lately. Mrs. White and Mrs. Ketchum being numbered among the guests.

FAIRVIEW

FAIRVIEW, Jan. 12—(Special Correspondence.)—The second quarterly conference of the M. E. church convened at Bridal Veil Monday, Jan. 11th at 10 o'clock. A delegation of 10 from Fairview and 12 from Rockwood attended. As the train arrived nearly an hour before time for meeting, we all walked up the Columbia Highway to Bridal Veil falls where a splendid view of the falls, the highway, the town and the Columbia river was obtained. A very interesting meeting was held and encouraging reports read from all four points. After the meeting Mr. Thompson, of the Bridal Veil Lumber Co., was host to 27 at a sumptuous dinner at the hotel. After tendering Mr. Thompson a hearty vote of thanks the party separated, eight walking 3 1/2 miles to Multnomah falls.

Those making the trip were Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. Burlingame, Dr. Jas. Moore, Mrs. Hurst, Mrs. Heslin, Wm. Rowen. When we tired of viewing that magnificent work of nature we built a bonfire and listened to the reading of extracts from a book Mr. Brown is writing, until the train picked us up at 4:15. All voted it a very enjoyable trip.

SECTION LINE

James Kelly is another victim of chicken thieves. He reports his loss as 40 nice hens. Mr. Thomas, living on Buckley avenue, had five sets of harness stolen and Mr. Reams has had one harness stolen. It is to be hoped that the guilty ones will soon be caught and given a lesson that they and others will remember.

Mr. Delpho is having his 15 acres at the corner of Section Line and Russellville road cleared. This was formerly the McDermott place.

The eighth grade pupils of the Lynch school are taking their final examinations.

Mr. Okudo, who lived on the Steele place, has moved to the Lewis place, near the Powell Valley road.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Smith Montague has leased the G. M. Loughlin farm from the new owner, J. H. Nolte, and has moved on with his family.

"An American Citizen", a four act drama will be put on by pupils of the Washington high school next Saturday night in Portland. Miss Laura Moore has the role of one of the leading ladies. Miss Laura's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Moore, and a number of her Pleasant Valley friends will attend the play.

Begins to look as though a special election will be scheduled for the not distant future, to settle the question of bonds or no bonds.

Keep your eye on the doings going on up at Salem for the next few weeks.

VEUTURA PARK.

On Monday last, Mrs. Noah Perry entertained a number of Portland ladies at lunch. The ladies spent the afternoon, coming out in a body on the new auto stage.

Edward, the six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCoy, is spending the week in Rose City Park, the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Chas. Wright.

The social evening of the Improvement club, which was announced for last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Haldane Dickson, was postponed for a number of reasons. It is quite probable that it will be held the latter part of this month.

VICTORY

A party was given at the home of Miss Isabel Thompson last Saturday evening and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilhelm spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. Foth.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Andrews and family and Miss Lent took dinner with Mr. Cooley last Wednesday evening.

The Royal Embroidery club will meet at the home of Mrs. C. M. Lister next Thursday, January 21. All are invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden and family, of Bridal Veil, are at the home of G. W. Alder.

Mrs. G. W. Alder has returned home from Portland, where she has been caring for her daughter for the past two weeks. Mrs. Littlepage is improving slowly.

GREAT AND SMALL.

A sparrow swinging on a branch
Once caught a passing fly.
"Oh, let me live," the insect prayed.
With trembling, piteous cry.
"No," said the sparrow, "you must fall,
For I am great and you are small."
The bird had scarce begun his feast
Before a hawk came by.
The game was caught. "Pray let me live."
"No," said the sparrow, "you must fall,
For I am great and you are small."
An eagle saw this rogue and swooped
Upon him from on high.
"Pray let me live! Why should you kill
So small a bird as I?"
"Oh, said the eagle, "you must fall,
For I am great and you are small."
While he devoured the hunter came,
He let his arrow fly.
"Tyrant," the eagle shrieked, "you have
No right to make me die!"
"Ah," said the hunter, "you must fall,
For I am great and you are small."
