Royal Hawaiian Troubadors

Smith's Theater, Saturday

Mr. Al. Onken's Hawaiian Troubadors are recognized as having the best organized Hawaiian musical show on this coast.

A short time ago they closed with a week in Portland on the Pantages time, since then they have played some of the largest houses in Portland.

The show runs 45 minutes consisting of stringed instrumental and vocal music. Edward K. Shaw is featured in a guitar solo. He and his father have played in some of the largest houses in the United States. In February he has an engagement with a Hawaiian orchestra that will play at the Panama Exposition.

Princess Ideta, the famous Hula-Hula dancer, is another great feature of this performance. She dances the quaint dance exactly as you would see it danced in the Hawaiian Islands. A short time before coming to the United States she was honored by being the chosen one of several hundred Kanaka girls to entertain the royal family of Hawaii in the dainty Hula-Hula dance.

The troupe consists of seven people and the performance promises to be one of the best musical shows Gresham has seen for some time.

The regular picture program will be run in addition. Admission 10c and 20c. Show starts at 7:30. Come early if you expect a seat. Follow the crowd.—Adv.

Death of Elmer Hawk.

The death of Elmer Hawk occurred Wednesday night, January 27 at the home of S. P. Hale near Pleasant Home. The deceased was born near Philadelphia, Penn., and was aged 52 years and 14 days. He leaves seven sisters and two brothers, all living in Pennsylvania. So far as is known there are no relatives in the west excepting an aunt, Mrs. Mary Cleveland and a cousin A. E. Crider, both of Gresham.

Mr. Hawk was a bachelor. He came west 24 years ago and has lived for the past 18 years on his six-acre farm near Pleasant Home, which he has developed from a wild timber tract to a productive farm and on which he built a beautiful little home. Although it was known for some time that his health was failing, it was only by accident that it was learned that he was seriously ill. Mrs. Hale sent messengers on New Years day to invite Mr. Hawk to dinner, when it was found that he was scarcely able to walk. He went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hale where he was tenderly cared for until his death.

Arrangements have been made to ship the body to Pennsylvania for burial.

SEEDS AND DOLLARS

Seed that is not planted does not grow. Dollars that are not banked do not increase. No farmer is so foolish as to think that a paper bag of watermelon seeds, hanging from the rafters, will ever grow until he planted it. Yet are you not expecting those dollars in that bureau drawer will grow without banking them? Dead seeds and dead dollars bring no returns.
