Stager, Mr. and Mrs. Kerofsky and son, Misses Mazie Schantlin, Annie Schantlin, Alice Ledbury, Mary Near, Clara Near, Rose Schantlin, Claude Clute, George Near, Martin Multhau, William Ledbury, Tony Schantlin, Joseph Schantlin, Karl Schram and Charles Wells.

The 10c tea given in behalf of the Methodist church by Mrs. Heslin was well patronized and voted a success financially as well as socially. Those present were Mrs. A. and Mrs. R. Martin and daughter of Rockwood, Mrs. C. M. Brown, Mrs. Dan Dunbar, Lent, Benecke, A. L. Stone, H. M. Shaw, J. Peterson, A. B. Moller, J. W. Moller and children, Geo. Burlingame, Sr., G. J. Burlingame, John Burlingame, B. W. Grant, Miss Louisa Loser, Mamie Anderson, Dorothy Benecke, Merle Heslin, Nellie, Mable and Buster Brown, and the Heslin family. Mrs. Stone favored them with piano selections and Miss Loser took a picture of the crowd. A business meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Burlingame next Wednesday, when some important matters will be looked after.

Miss Sadie Stone, of Hood River, was taken suddenly ill upon her arrival for a visit with her uncle Edwin Burlingame. Dr. Bittner found her case so serious that it was necessary to operate at once and her condition was such that she could not be taken to the hospital. The operation was successful and she is doing nicely. Mr. Stone returned to Hood River Friday and on Saturday Mrs. Stone came down to help take care of her daughter.

Ed. Smith, who got his leg broken Christmas day by an auto running over him, is able to be out on crutches. He was down visiting his uncle J. H. Schram, the past week.

Ole Danielson, of Portland, was a business visitor at Bairdsdale last week, the guest of Oscar Wallin. While here he rented his house and garden to Mr. Smith of Petesville, who will occupy it at once with four daughters. Mr. Wallin will farm the place this coming year.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Brown and daughter Nellie, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Heslin and daughter Merle, also Miss Dorothy Benecke, attended the basket social given by the Ladies' Aid of Rockwood in the Maccabee hall last Friday evening. They report a splendid time and the program was excellent. The ladies cleared something like $15 from the sale of baskets, which ranged in price from 20 cents to $1.60.

Mr. Prouditt and family have moved to their new home on the banks of Blue Lake, where Mr. Prouditt will engage in growing vegetables for the early market.

Mrs. Grant Shaw has been confined to her room for several days with a case of aggravated grip. Grant has been trying to get sick but can't make it.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Windle, who spent the winter at Seaside, has returned home and taken up their usual work in society circles.

Additional Gresham Locals

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Jenkins and son of Portland, were guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Downing.

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood, of Melrose, and their guests Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Henry, of Portland, were callers Monday at the Outlook office.

Mrs. W. J. Hollenbeck and children returned Saturday to her home in Heyburn, Idaho, after several weeks' visit with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern. Mrs. W. R. Kern accompanied her as far as Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Metzger entertained about twenty guests last night at their home on South Roberts avenue. The evening was spent in playing 500 and with music. Luncheon was served. The house was profusely decorated with spring flowers, all grown by Mrs. Metzger. There were daffodils, crocuses, lilies, hyacinths and callas and other flowers in abundance.

Rudolph Weidman, who has been a tenant of the Allesina farm on the Sandy road for several years, moved away yesterday going to the Tillamook country.

F. Arthur Anderson, of the high school, is suffering from quinsy and has been unable to teach for the past few days.

The many friends of Mrs. Melville T. Wire will be glad to learn that she is getting better. Mrs. Wire was taken to a Portland hospital last Thursday for treatment.

There will be no prayer meeting at the Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday on account of the meetings in progress at the Free Methodist church.

ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

[The Outlook reporters are hustlers and try to get every item about persons and events in the locality that is worthy of being printed. Mention of anything that might otherwise be overlooked will be greatly appreciated. You are no farther from the Outlook office than your telephone.]

It is reported that the Twelve Mile House will be re-opened about the first of next month as a moderate priced hotel for the accommodation of auto parties and those who want to get away from business cares for a short rest. The new proprietor is named Golsen, lately from Walla Walla. His wife is here now awaiting his arrival.

Considerable improvement of county roads has been going on for the past two weeks, especially in the way of filling up ruts and chuck holes with pulverized rock. The Base Line has had a liberal share, as well as some of the crossroads.

Thursday evening's dance and supper by the Old People's club promises to be another enjoyable affair. Several who were unable to be at the first party two weeks ago are expected to attend hereafter, and if anyone should miss connection it will be a sad reflection all the remaining days of existence to know that something enjoyable was overlooked.

Joe Andregg, of Fairview, has purchased a large size Nisco spreader of Hessel & Son. Mr. Andregg has a large dairy ranch on the Columbia slough and is making a success of dairy farming.

The Portland-Gresham auto service car, leaving hourly from Belt's confectionery, has put on a new schedule of leaving time and a reduced fare. The rate is made 15c straight each way. The buss can carry about fifteen passengers, is electric lighted and heated and makes the trip in about 40 minutes. The new time table will be found in this issue.

Mrs. John Stillions died today at the home of her daughter Mrs. E. A. Easley on Powell street. Mrs. Stillions had been ill for a long time with tuberculosis. She had been confined to her bed for the past four months. The funeral arrangements have not been announced.

A letter recently received from Mrs. Will Raney of Midvale, Idaho, reports that she is delighted with her Idaho home. The winter has been pleasant. There have been six weeks of snow but the warm weather now is causing the snow to disappear.

Chas. Andrews and wife, who have lived for the past two months in Whitehead addition, left Monday morning for Woodland, Washington, where they have a farm.

Mrs. Edw. Radcliffe and children Gretchen and Edward, of Sellwood, visited on Saturday with Miss Pearl Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Latourell were in receipt of a crate of oranges sent by parcel post from California by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Latourell. The crate was a miniature just large enough for two oranges. It is needless to say that the samples were greatly enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Latourell. Mr. and Mrs. Latourell, Sr., are on their way north. They were at Pomona when last heard from. They spent a week while in San Diego with John Straus and family and report a delightful visit.

The stork left a valentine with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Easley on Sunday morning. It is a fine boy.

Herbert Graham, of Ashley, North Dakota, visited over Sunday with C. M. Zimmerman and family.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jones were Miss Bernice Hargrove, Chase E. St. Clair and Russel Akin. Guy Jones visited on the same day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles.

Dr. D. A. Watters, of Portland, preached Sunday morning at the Methodist Episcopal church.

Alex. Gullickson and his sister, Mrs. Humason and family moved yesterday from Frank Heiney's cottage on Third street and Roberts avenue to the Alexander place on Powell street and Cleveland avenue.

Gresham Folks Astonish Druggist. We sell many good medicines but we are told the mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-i-ka, is the best we ever sold. Gresham folks astonish us daily by telling how quickly Adler-i-ka relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation. Many report that A Single Dose relieves these troubles almost immediately. We are glad we are Gresham agents for Adler-i-ka. The Gresham Drug Co.

Excellent Program at Smith's. The program at Smith's Theater for Wednesday and Thursday, "The Stirrup Brothers," a two-reel Western drama, featuring J. W. Johnston; Eclair, "Out of the Valley," A. J. Warn Kerrigan feature; Willie Wai-rus and the awful confession, a joker comedy.

Enos Volbrecht, aged five, was knocked down by an auto in front of the family home on Saturday evening, suffering a fractured skull. He was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital where he is yet alive, although badly injured.

Recognized Advantages. You will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has recognized advantages over most medicines in use for coughs and colds. It does not suppress coughs but loosens and relieves it. It aids expectoration and opens the secretions, which enables the system to throw off a cold. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. It contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. For sale by all Druggists.

A TOUCH OF VERNICOL and Your Furniture is New Again

There is many an old piece of furniture about most houses that is dingy and battered; that doesn't match the prevailing tone of the room. THEY ARE STILL USEFUL BUT FAR FROM ORNAMENTAL.

It's a pity that some one doesn't bring out the good points of such pieces and make them really worth while. IT CAN BE DONE EASILY.

Just use VERNICOL, the quickly applied Varnish Stain. You can make WONDERFUL CHANGES IN A FEW MINUTES. And it's mighty economical. Vernicol comes in convenient cans of all sizes and in colors to match the usual wood finishes.

Come in and ask for a color card and try and SOLVE THE PUZZLE in our window. We will show you how easy it is to use Vernicol and what beautiful results can be accomplished.

For the first three correct answers to the puzzle we will give a CASH PRIZE of $1.00 each. To all other correct answers a 40c can of Vernicol.
