If a mother chases her children out of the room when another woman calls, there is gossip in the air.

Colds and Croup in Children.
Many people rely upon Chamberlain's Cough Remedy implicitly in cases of colds and croup, and it never disappoints them. Mrs. E. H. Thomas, Logansport, Ind., writes: "I have found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best medicine for colds and croup I have ever used, and never tire of recommending it to my neighbors and friends. I have always given it to my children when suffering from croup, and it has never failed to give them prompt relief." For sale by all Druggists.

ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

[The Outlook reporters are hustlers and try to get every item about persons and events in the locality that is worthy of being printed. Mention of anything that might otherwise be overlooked will be greatly appreciated. You are no farther from the Outlook office than your telephone.]

Dr. C. E. Cline, of Portland, visited yesterday at the home of his daughter Mrs. K. A. Miller. Dr. Cline gave his lecture on Abraham Lincoln before the members of the Old Soldier's Home at Orting, Washington, on February 13. The lecture was very highly appreciated by all.

Mrs. Ellen Pomeroy was the guest at a dinner party in Portland on Thursday evening.

Mrs. D. O. Downing and Mrs. J. M. Shoemaker represented the Baptist Sunday school and N. O. Fuller the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school at the annual county convention held yesterday and today at Centenary Methodist Episcopal church in Portland.

Miss Alberta Schneider, of Cottrell, spent the week-end in Gresham the guest of Miss Beulah Caplinger.

K. A. Miller has bought Gust Larson's house on Roberts avenue, which was recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. Grant. He will move his family in next week.

Christian Science services will be held next Sunday in the hall of the society in the I. O. O. F. building at 11 o'clock. Subject of the lesson—sermon, "Christ Jesus." The public is cordially invited to attend.

Claude Smith is able to be out again after being laid up for several weeks as the result of an auto accident in Portland. He is able to walk with the aid of crutches.

Wm. Congdon attended the banquet of the O. E. S. at Troutdale last Wednesday evening.

The usual services will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday except that the evening service will be omitted, the congregation joining in the revival meetings at the Free Methodist church. Rev. Melville T. Wire, the pastor will preach in the morning. Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock and Epworth League at 6:45.

John Bliss is suffering from an accident received a few days ago while he was loading a bale of hay. His foot slipped through the hay rack and the bale fell onto his leg, wrenching and bruising it badly.

Mrs. Mary E. Wood has received her appointment as operator in the local office and is learning the keyboard preparatory to taking up the work in the near future.

Quinn Metzger is quite ill with pneumonia. He is being cared for at the home of his aunt Mrs. Rose Metzger.

H. M. Miller and family are moving to their farm near Gresham after spending the winter in Rev. E. A. Leonard's house on Powell street.

Ed. Osburn is enjoying a vacation in San Francisco, where he went for the opening of the exposition.

The Columbia Brick Works resumed operations Wednesday, with full capacity. About fifteen men are employed. Those from Gresham are H. L. Park, Jack Hamlin and Walter Winters.

F. E. Bates, H. A. Bates and wife and Mrs. C. C. Crowston of Springdale were in Gresham on business Wednesday and paid the Outlook a welcome visit. They were greatly interested in watching the linotype and other up-to-date machinery of the Outlook plant.

Mrs. John Miller, of Portland, is spending a few days this week visiting her daughter Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse and sister Mrs. Percy Giese.

The boys' basketball team of the high school will play the Stiletos of Portland tonight at the skating rink.

"Dad" Hockinson returned home today from a Portland hospital where he has been for a month past with an attack of typhoid fever. He is rapidly regaining his customary health.

Engagement Party.
Mrs. S. S. Thompson gave a party on Tuesday evening announcing the engagement of her daughter Miss Ava to Claire Edwards of Portland. The guests were met at the door by little Dorothy Lindsey, impersonating Cupid, who presented each with an announcement card.

A delicious luncheon was served. The table decorations were red and white. Red cupids were the place cards and a gorgeous bouquet of red carnations graced the center of the table. The lights were shaded with red.

The invited guests were Misses Della Hughes, Kathryn Honey, Marguerite and Gladys Michel, Evelyn and Willa Metzger, Beulah Caplinger, Margaret Burke, Laura Davis, Miriam Brown, Pearl Ruegg, Louise Audeuer and Beulah Van Horn, the two latter being from Portland.

Recognized Advantages.
You will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has recognized advantages over most medicines in use for coughs and colds. It does not suppress coughs but loosens and relieves it. It aids expectoration and opens the secretions, which enables the system to throw off a cold. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. It contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. For sale by all Druggists.

A regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the fair association will be held next Monday afternoon. Premium list affairs will be the most important matter to be considered.

A surprise party was given to O. J. Brown on Wednesday evening by the two basketball teams of the Gresham high school in appreciation of his enthusiasm and encouraging assistance during the past season. All the members of the boys' and girls' teams were present and reported a good time.

Attention is directed to the first advertisement of the Walrad Mercantile company as the successors of the C C store which has passed out of existence as a Gresham business house. The stock is being replenished with new articles in the dry goods line and the addition of a complete stock of groceries.

The Star restaurant will move into the Ford Metzger building at the corner of Main and Powell streets next week. Workmen have been engaged for several days past remodeling and otherwise making the building suitable for its new use.

The last remaining "biggest" fir tree of the Powell Valley district of eastern Multnomah has been converted into cordwood lately by O. I. Neal. It was about six feet in diameter and had stood for several centuries just north of the Section Line road opposite the home of James Sterling. It made about 20 cords of excellent wood.

The Gresham volunteer fire department will hold its regular monthly business meeting in the fire hall, Wednesday, March 3d.

Geo. Keller, formerly a resident of Gresham, has purchased a farm at Walnut Ridge, Arkansas, and will make his residence there.

Hessel & Son have just issued a neat folder illustrating and describing the many lines of farm machinery, implements, etc., carried by them. This enterprising firm is right after all the business to be had in their line and they are getting it. That they have put in a new large stock so soon after their disastrous fire which entirely cleared them out is to their credit and their enterprise calls for admiration and generous support.

Bert Calkins will leave tomorrow for Wisconsin where he expects to remain during the summer and perhaps longer.

The high school girls' basketball team will play a return game with the Silverton girls on the local floor tomorrow evening. A good attendance has been assured by the sale of a big block of tickets circulated by the school girls.

Regular monthly meeting of the common council next Tuesday evening.

The Osburn building is now ready for the roof and interior finishing. The front of brick with concrete cornice makes a rather pleasing appearance.

The regular business meeting and tea of the Ladies' Aid society will be held Wednesday afternoon, March 3, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Metzger on Main street. A full attendance of the members is desired. Friends are cordially invited.

Rev. E. A. Leonard and wife returned today from their trip in the east and south after an absence of about six months. They have spent the greater part of the time in Virginia but for the past few weeks have been visiting in Tennessee and Georgia. Their return was by way of San Francisco where they witnessed the opening of the great exposition.

The Jennings cottage on Fourth street is being renovated and fixed up for occupancy. A new roof is being put on and the walls are being shingled. The Gibbs Bros. and Mr. Stockton are doing the work.

Mrs. H. E. Engles, of Portland, is the guest of her sister-in-law Mrs. John Bliss at her home on the Base Line road.

Chas. Latourell and wife moved into E. C. Lindsey's cottage on Roberts avenue and Third street.
