[The Outlook reporters are hustlers and try to get every item about persons and events in the locality that is worthy of being printed. Mention of anything that might otherwise be overlooked will be greatly appreciated. You are no farther from the Outlook office than your telephone.]

B. O. Bosserman, on the former Webb Cherry Farm, has purchased a fine iron wheel wagon for hauling cherries to the Gresham cannery. The same kind of a wagon was purchased by D. R. Shoemaker recently.

The Methodist Episcopal church is undergoing extensive renovation and repairs this week. The new carpet is being laid to day. Messrs. Todd and White finished tinting the walls and ceiling yesterday. The tinting was done under the auspices of the men of the church. The carpet is the gift of the Ladies' Aid society, purchased through P. R. Carlson. The carpet laying will be finished today. Everything will be in place for Sunday's services as usual.

Mrs. Karl Miller had as a guest for the week-end, her mother, Mrs. C. E. Cline of Portland.

Ross Read has been engaged to assist Roy Shoemaker for a few months as deliveryman on his milk route.

Mrs. P. A. Gould and her granddaughter Addie Pullen went to McMinnville the last of the week for a visit with Mrs. Violet Thornton and family.

Potato planting has begun in eastern Multnomah. Y. Fugl, on Mrs. Fritz' place, is putting in 40 acres of early potatoes. He believes in the up-to-date method, so is using a potato planter recently purchased of Hessel & Son. Mr. Hessel says it will pay to get a good planter, even for 20 acres, if planting.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday there will be preaching by Rev. Melville T. Wire as usual at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Special attention is directed to the evening service, the sermon being the second in the series of studies of great missionaries; "Bishop William Taylor, Spiritual Pioneer." Sunday school at 10 a. m., Epworth League at 6:45.

The Jap on M. O. Nelson's place, Mr. Ioka, has gone into gardening on a large scale, having just put into use a potato planter and a large two-row cultivator. They were purchased in Gresham of course.

A son was born early this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Pete Resare, living near Anderson station.

Miss Winnifred Osburn was the hostess last Wednesday evening at a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Boone Johnson. The occasion was in the nature of a farewell to Miss Ireta McClure, who was until recently a telephone operator, and a celebration of the 79th birthday anniversary of Grandma Johnson. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music and refreshments were served. Those present besides the hostess and the guests of honor were Mrs. J. Q. McClure, Mrs. R. W. Gibbs, Mrs. P. Anderson, Mrs. Jas. Lawrence, Mrs. M. Nystrom, Mrs. Geo. W. Page, Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth, Mrs. Albert Ekstrom, the Misses Eva Anderson, Lulu Nystrom, Pearl Jones, Arlie Gibbs, Minnie Shriner.

Mrs. Bertha Pitts Sutton was a caller at the home of Mrs. M. D. Kern on Thursday.

A brief program was rendered, consisting of a piano solo by Mrs. Cain, a duet by Mrs. Cain and Dr. Earl Clanahan and a reading by Mrs. Ray H. Todd. The remainder of the evening was devoted to music and games after which luncheon was served.

Mrs. Peterson was the recipient of a set of silver teaspoons and Mr. Shoemaker was given a silver pencil by the members of the church as a token of the appreciation of their services to the Sunday school, and an expression of their good will. Mr. Shoemaker has been superintendent of the Sunday school and Mrs. Peterson the organist for a number of years. Both these families will be greatly missed in church circles and in the community at large.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson leave in a day or two for Shaw, Oregon, where they will have charge of J. C. Peterson's large farm. Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker expect to move soon to Portland, where Mr. Shoemaker will conduct a dairy supply store in the Irvington district.
