"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham, Oregon.

Official paper of the Town of Fairview, Oregon.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

WHICH IS PREFERABLE?

Pierce warfare is to be resumed in Europe with the coming of spring and there is no prospect that its ferocity will be diminished with the long summer that is to follow.

Paris or Berlin may become the slaughter houses of all history, for there will be no less ferocity shown than was seen in the destruction of Louvain and other cities.

The higher classes of Europe were a fierce and lawless nobility during the middle age, yielding to no authority but that dictated by superior strength.

THE "WANT" ADS. The "want ad" columns of a popular paper are more attractive to many persons than the news columns.

An Oregon town that has three railroads and cannot support its one cannery is crying out for more railroad regulation when none of the railroads are making money.

The Corvallis Times-Gazette says it would be a disgrace for a town with three railroads and an agricultural college to allow its cannery to be closed.

N. F. Nelson, of Brownsville, is to be a candidate for president on the republican ticket—if he can. Well, why not? This is a great country and Oregon has the direct primaries.

THE GLITTER OF WEALTH.

Wealth and prospective wealth, even in the possession of others, has its allurements.

One of the proposals was from Gresham. Wonder who he is? In the case of Tom Bell, whom the Outlook recorded as the prospective heir of a cool million, there is much serious concern as to how he is going to spend the money.

Wealth has a rosy hue and it is no wonder that human moths flutter around its possessors.

Portland has passed an ordinance providing for a uniform wage for unskilled labor on city work of $3 per day and a daily newspaper paints a roseate picture of the happy lot of the men fortunate enough to work for the city and draw the high pay.

At Champos, on May 1, will be celebrated the seventy-second anniversary of the organization of the first American civil government west of the Rock mountains.

A letter from Jackson Jones, published elsewhere, is of great importance at this time of the year to those who are compelled to combat the insect pest in field seeds.

No Northwestern state should have sent a $420,000 steel contract to Pittsburg on a difference of $80 against the home industry as was done at Portland the other day.

Washington legislature enacts a law requiring certificates of public necessity and convenience to be issued by Public Utility commission before franchises are granted.

The Corvallis Times-Gazette says it would be a disgrace for a town with three railroads and an agricultural college to allow its cannery to be closed.

E. F. Lang Dillard is suing in state courts under the Workmen's compensation act for injuries received while working in his own sawmill.

Schanen-Blair company, of Portland, are building a road and putting on a crew of forty men in their Jackson county granite quarry.

Newspapers that talk loudest for labor and wage-earners have the least to say for industries and payrolls.

A couple of perfume thieves were arrested in Portland by their smell. Probably colonizing a new industry.

Hassalo Street Congregational church, Portland, has been sold for $13,500 for Chiropractic college.

Salem city council accepts reduction in water rates for private users.

Portland banks gained a million in deposits since December 31. Keep Quarter of a Million in Oregon.

ALDERMAN'S ABILITY

Dr. C. H. and R. M. Rafferty. They were assisted by Indian Casino, who died a few years ago over 100 years of age.

Rev. C. C. Poling, district superintendent of the United Evangelical church, conducted the last quarterly conference of the St. Johns United Evangelical church Thursday night. Reports were received for the past year, showing the church in excellent financial condition.

The Portland Presbytery, in session in the Kenilworth Presbyterian church, went on record by resolution favoring a survey of the state to ascertain the number and condition of the foreign population.

Another resolution adopted was submitted by Rev. Andrew J. Montgomery as follows: "Resolved, That it is the sense of this Presbytery that an aggressive evangelical effort be started January 1, 1915."

Fumigation of Seeds. Fumigation is on interest for the control of insects in stored products, including grain, peas, beans and potatoes.

The seed should be placed in an air-tight bin or box, or receptacle made as nearly gas proof as possible. The liquid may be poured over the surface of the seed or placed in trays or dishes on top of the seed.

Notice of Disolution. Notice is hereby given that the partnership formerly existing between L. R. Denman, B. L. Walrad and John Bartelt, and known as the Bartelt Mercantile company of Gresham, Oregon, has been duly dissolved.

Milwaukie will spend $25,000 on a water plant this year.

To the Housewife. Madam, if your husband is like most men he expects you to look after the health of yourself and children.

Madam, if your husband is like most men he expects you to look after the health of yourself and children. Coughs and colds are the most common of the minor ailments and are most likely to lead to serious diseases.
