MELROSE

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Mercer went for a drive Sunday. This is the first time Mrs. Mercer has been out since she sprained her ankle almost two weeks ago. She is able to bear her weight on it a little now but not for long.

The young folks met last Friday to practice for their play.

Mrs. Henry Jones spent a couple of days in Portland with her mother and sister last week. She reports the florists shops a wonderful sight at this season.

Mrs. A. M. Chamberlain, who has been visiting Mrs. Jones, returned to her home at Corvallis.

Mrs. J. H. Wood's friends were glad to see her able to attend church again and hope she may continue to gain strength.

Mrs. N. E. Turner and son Earl from Portland spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of I. T. Wood. Mr. Turner, who is working on his place near Rockwood in the hopes of making it their home in the near future, came out Sunday morning and returned home with his wife and son in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuddiford and children spent Sunday afternoon at the home of their parents, Elmer Mercer and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Duke's brother Morris Wheeler of Pleasant Home.

Mr. Backstrand has bought the farm between W. M. Morgan's and Thos. Wiles' and is preparing to build. Mr. Backstrand is clearing land but his wife and children have not moved out here as yet.

Rev. Thos. Wiles and wife, Miss Henrietta Wiles, Leslie Wiles, Jess Stafford, of Bridal Veil, and Ellwood Wiles and family of Portland, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stafford.

Arthur Dowsett and family, of Gresham, motored over Sunday after Mrs. Dowsett's mother, Mrs. E. A. Stafford, who has been visiting her son Everett Stafford.

There were hundreds of autos on the Base Line road Sunday. The road was in good condition and the day was lovely for pleasure trips.

There is quite a little work being done on the roads in this road district. The past winter was an unusually hard one on roads there being long spells of freezing weather which raised the ground, causing the roads to be very muddy and full of holes when the thaw came, these roads are being regraded where necessary and the holes filled in the other places. After a few months the roads will be in their usual condition.

Rev. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles spent a few days in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wood from Pleasant Home attended church here last Sunday. After church they were entertained at the home of J. H. Wilson.

Rev. Mr. Anthony was able to be here Sunday but had not recovered from his illness enough to have both evening and morning services. So there were no evening services. There was a very good attendance at the Sunday school and church services in the morning and the sermon was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henderson, of Portland, were guests of Captain and Mrs. Branson last Friday.

Miss Watkins was a caller at the home of Mrs. A. B. Conrad Monday.
