Mrs. Alta Gentry, Master Russell and Lloyd Cummins were guests at the home of W. S. Wood Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gundlach and child from Portland spent the week-end with Mrs. Gundlach's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles.

Rev. T. J. Anthony was a dinner guest of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood Sunday.

Geo. H. Hayden, of Bridal Veil, was a guest of his sister Mrs. I. T. Wood, and family. Mr. Hayden reports the Bridal Veil lumber mill running steadily since the 1st of March.

Henry Fritz and wife spent Sunday evening at the home of I. T. Wood. Mr. Fritz has just returned from witnessing the first arrival of the large new passenger steamer the Great Northern, at Flavel near Astoria. Mr. Fritz was fortunate enough to get on board and reports it a splendid vessel. The crowds were so great that it was impossible for them to all inspect the boat.

The roads were lined with autos Sunday and they returned to town with flowers, and cars were seen decorated with every thing from Kewpie dolls under parasols to that unpleasant, though pretty flower, the skunk cabbage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiles, and Mrs. F. Cummins spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mercer.

Mrs. Chester Stafford visited her mother Mrs. Elmer Mercer Monday.

A pleasant time was spent at the home of Thos. Wiles Sunday when ten of the family gathered for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stafford were among those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson.

Mrs. Henry Jones and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Conrad went to Portland Monday in the latter's car. They returned with holly trees for ornamental purposes.

The Royal Embroidery club will meet at the home of Mrs. A. B. Conrad, Thursday afternoon, April 3d. It is hoped the attendance will be large.

Many persons in this vicinity are setting out holly and in other ways beautifying their yards.

Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
"I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my customers because I have confidence in it. I find that they are pleased with it and call for it when again in need of such medicine," writes J. W. Sexson, Montevallio, Mo. For sale by all Dealers.—Adv.

ORIENT

On Saturday afternoon Oscar Johanson, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Johanson, passed away at their residence at Orient. His illness extended for two weeks and notwithstanding the best of medical attention and careful nursing he succumbed to the severe attack of blood poisoning, which he had contracted.

Oscar was a great favorite with everyone in the community, and his genial presence and cheery smile will be long remembered by his school-fellows and friends.

Much sympathy is being extended to his sorrowing parents, who have the satisfaction of knowing that what is their loss is his gain; that already he has learned the great secret of the Universe; that his ears are now have heard the sounds of the music from the Realms of the Blest; that he has seen the king on His great white throne, and is now numbered with the angels above, and as the years roll on and the milestones are passed on the highway to eternity they have the knowledge that they will meet him again in the land from which no traveler has ever returned to tell the story.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon at Pleasant Home, and was largely attended, numerous wreaths and flowers being sent by friends and school children.

Basketball games were played at Hillsboro by the Orient girls team and at Battleground by the boys' team, both returning defeated, the girls by the score of 15 to 3, and the boys by 25 to 9.

Alma Roork spent the week-end with her father.

John Nelson and family stopped over on Sunday on their way from Sandy to Troutdale to visit Mrs. Nelson's parents and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Knight.

On Saturday while Mrs. McAlpine was driving from Orient to Anderson depot her horse ran away at Gillis, and after galloping to the cross road at the Clackamas county line, overturned as it turned into the road at Lake's corner, throwing her and Freddie and Lawrie out. The buggy and horse were turned right over, but beyond a severe shaking none of them were hurt. They were driven home by Miss Helen Stone who happened to be passing shortly after.

The sale of the effects of the late Elmer Hawk took place on Saturday under the administratrix of his estate, and good prices were realized. P. H. Roork was the auctioneer.

F. B. Bayne, of Gresham, was an Orient visitor in Sunday.

Best Treatment for Constipation.
"My daughter used Chamberlain's Tablets for constipation with good results and I can recommend them highly," writes Paul B. Babin, Brushly, La. For sale by all Dealers.—Adv.

A complete success in every way, crowned the efforts of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church in their box social last Saturday evening. The pastor, C. M. Brown, sold the baskets which ranged in price from 25c to $1. The society realized $20 out of the sale, outrivaling either Rockwood or Troutdale by several dollars. The program was fine from beginning to finish and special mention must be made in behalf of Mrs. Dave Donough of Bairdsdale, and Miss Addie Quesinberry of Rockwood in their recitations. The songs sung by little Lillian Dickenson and Elder Brown's little tot were the winning features of the evening. The proceeds of the evening will be used in payment of the shingles that have just been put on the church by volunteer labor on Saturday afternoon. The ladies will now endeavor to paper the church and otherwise improve it. Troutdale, Rockwood and Portland were well represented.
