

GRANGES ARE HONORED FOR INDORSEMENT

By L. H. WELLS.

PORTLAND, April 15.—Special.—Some of the honors of carrying the road bonds are due to Columbia, Gresham and Fairview granges, and I am exceedingly sorry that this roll of honor cannot be extended to take in all the ten granges of Multnomah county. A very sad mistake was made by some of the leading members of the farmers' order in this county that they should have been led to work against the good roads movement, and thus place the grange in the false place of opposing good roads. But for the hearty indorsement given by Columbia, Gresham and Fairview granges the impression would have gone forth that Multnomah county granges opposed good roads, when as a matter of fact, but a mere fraction were on that side. An outside influence, well understood, operated to prevent the unanimous indorsement of the good roads movement in this county by the farmers through the appointment of the good roads committee. The outcome of the meeting of that committee is well known to the grangers of this county. All honor to the leading members of the granges mentioned for the independent attitude they took in the matter, refusing to be swayed by outside influence. It was a victory for good roads, and a defeat for certain agitators who seek to exploit labor for their own personal advantage. Defeat of the road bonds would have been little short of a calamity for this county for the good roads movement throughout the state, as a rebuke to labor agitators as well.

It has been decided to reopen the East Washington public market on or about May 15, and not May 1 as formerly announced, this latter date having been recalled. It was found that the farmers will not be ready with their produce before May 15, and perhaps a little later, but by June 1 produce will be plentiful. Market Master Joseph Meserve will remove the stalls from East Sixth to East Washington street between Union avenue and East Sixth street by May 1 and have them refitted preparatory to the reopening. Mr. Meserve states that the East Washington Street Public Market will be conducted practically the same as the Yamhill Street Market. He has already been out among the farmers of this county, and has ascertained that many of them are preparing produce for the East Side, as that will be more convenient for them. Double the acreage has been planted in eastern Multnomah and Clackamas county in anticipation of the Portland markets. There will be 36 stalls to start with at the East Side public market, but Mr. Meserve thinks many more will be needed before the season is over.

The Hawthorne Rose district is preparing to make a rose exhibit in the rose center during the Rose Festival this year, according to the statement made yesterday by Secretary L. M. Lepper. Between 6000 and 7000 roses have been set out in the homes of the Hawthorne and Sunnyside district this spring, said the secretary, by the school children, which is part of the program to beautify this district. However, it is not expected to draw much from these newly planted roses, but the association will depend mainly on the old roses to make up its display. A committee to arrange for the display will be appointed next week and active work started among the residents of the Hawthorne district. The association has started a campaign to get 100,000 roses planted in the Hawthorne district, and its monthly lectures held in the East Side branch library are in the interest of the movement.

Postmaster Myers announces that Station "A" on the East Side will not be removed from its present location and that there had been no intention to move it. Secretary L. M. Lepper, of the East Side Business Men's club yesterday made the following statement concerning the removal of the station:

"Our committee, of which I happened to be a member, called on the inspector, and he informed us that the postoffice department had run behind $20,000,000 and that it was

UNION HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING GOING UP

Work has begun in earnest on the union high school building. J. H. Hoss and Aaron Knighton have the contract for the grading and excavation for the heating plant.

Two carloads of gravel have been delivered for the concrete foundation and two carloads of lumber are due to arrive tomorrow. The brick for the structure, amounting to 140,000, will arrive next week. Aaron Knighton has the contract for hauling them to the site from the railway.

All the men that can be put to work will be given jobs. Gresham labor is being given the preference. The forms for the foundation will be commenced on Monday, and the concrete will go in at the rate of 60 yards a day.

The building has been located near the south line of the tract and about 100 feet back from Main street. There will be ample room for playgrounds on the north and at the rear, as the tract contains four acres.

SESSION COMMITTEES FOR STATE GRANGE

State Master Spence has made session appointments for the state grange, representing about one-third of the granges in the state.

But three of the granges of this county seem to be represented, although four of them have elected delegates. The assignments from Multnomah are as follows:

Credentials—Alfred Niblin, of Evening Star.

Division of Labor—Mrs. W. H. H. Dufur, of Woodlawn.

Assessment and Taxation—W. H. H. Dufur, of Woodlawn, chairman of committee.

Co-operation—Mrs. J. R. Cavanagh, of Gresham.

Good of the Order—J. R. Cavanagh of Gresham.

Resolutions—Mrs. E. A. Niblin, of Evening Star, chairman.

Fairview grange seems to have been overlooked in the appointments. Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Dunbar are the delegates from there.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Rev. J. D. O'Brien, a dominican father, from the Holy Rosary church, Portland, will conduct the service of blessing the new bell at St. Henry's Catholic church next Sunday at 10 a. m. Father O'Brien, who comes at the special invitation of the rector, Rev. Henry Bruenagel, will also deliver the sermon. He is a well-known lecturer, an eloquent speaker, and engaged in missions on the Pacific coast. Mass will be sung by the rector.

The bell is a large one and was received here at a cost of $287.65. It was cast last Christmas in honor of St. Henry. It bears an inscription of this fact also stating that it was when Benedict XV. was pope and Alexander Christie archbishop and Rev. Henry Bruenagel, rector. It is expected the bell will be hung in its appointed place next week.

PRETTY DOUBLE RING WEDDING CEREMONY

A very pretty double-ring wedding ceremony took place April 8, 1916, when Rev. E. Olin Eldridge, of Portland united Alice L. Harder and G. W. Dustin, Jr., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crosman, 1575 East Salmon street, Portland.

Mrs. Crosman is the bride's mother, and both old Oregonians. Mrs. Dustin will continue as manager of "Cumberland", Dr. Tucker's duck ranch east of Gresham.

Baby Swallows Safety Pin.

Baby Betty Winninger, the 18 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winninger, swallowed a safety pin. The pin passed through her stomach and into the intestines where it lodged. An X-ray photograph located it and the family doctor removed it. The child is recovering nicely. The pin was found open, and, as her little sister says, "she swallowed a new pin and when we got it out it was all black." Mrs. Winninger is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mohr of Gilbert street, Lents. She has been visiting with her parents for several months.

Parents Express Thanks.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for their assistance in searching for our son who was lost.

CALL FOR MEETING OF CLUB MEMBERS AND BUSINESS MEN

Several important propositions have been made to the people of Gresham that call for a careful consideration on the part of the citizens of Gresham and vicinity, and to this end a meeting of citizens has been called for in Metzger's hall next Monday night. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Commercial club and the call is made by O. A. Eastman, president of the club. It is not the desire to limit the attendance to members or former members of the club, but all citizens, including ladies and business men in particular, are urged to be present.

It is desired to give strong support to the move to get the State Grange to hold its 1916 session here. This is one matter to which it is hoped this meeting will give strong endorsement.

There is a move to locate a laundry here and the matters involved will be considered at this meeting; and there are other things, if time permits, to be presented.

Remember the day and date, Monday, April 19, in Metzger's hall at 8 o'clock.

PRETTY WEDDING AT CATHOLIC CHURCH

One of the prettiest church weddings of the season was the marriage on last Thursday morning of Miss Gladys E. Crenshaw, daughter of C. L. Crenshaw of Gresham, and Mr. John J. Dunn, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dunn of Boring. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Bruenagel, rector of St. Henry's Catholic church.

The ceremony was attended by only the intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Miss Eva Hamlin attended the bride and Mr. Joseph Haley of Sandy, was groomsmen.

After the ceremony the young couple left on a short honeymoon and will return to take up their residence in a newly completed bungalow at Boring where the bridegroom is engaged in farming.

The bride is a well known and accomplished young lady, having grown up here and obtained her education in the Gresham school. She has a charming voice which she has used on occasions to the delight of audiences at Gresham and Boring. By her charming personality she has won a host of friends.

The bride groom is a popular young man, a member of Byer's band and an industrious worker, being engaged with his father in farming, the latter having resided near Boring for the past 43 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn received the hearty congratulations and best wishes of a large circle of friends.

MASONS AT SANDY NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

The Master Masons of Gresham and vicinity are planning for a big time at Sandy next Tuesday night when they will exemplify the work in the Master Mason's degree for the Sandy lodge. A banquet will be a feature of the evening's festivities.

The trip will be made by jitneys, leaving the drugstore corner at 7 p. m. The fare will be 75c for the round trip. It is said as many cars will be provided as necessary and all Master Masons are invited to go.

Any members of the order who would like to go along and have not made arrangements will be accommodated by calling W. H. Congdon, phone 311.

SCHOOL CLERK ROBERTS ACTS AS PRINCIPAL

J. E. Stubbs, principal of the Gresham high school, has been confined to his home for several days with a slight illness. He is improving and will be able to resume his duties next week.

F. Arthur Anderson, assistant principal, was required to attend a lawsuit in Portland today, and his absence, together with that of Mr. Stubbs, required extra assistance today at the school, which was given by D. M. Roberts, school clerk.

Grand Ball, Saturday Night, Apr. 17, at Regner's hall, Gresham. You are invited to attend. Parson's 4-piece orchestra will furnish music. Good floor management and a good time assured all who come.—Ad.

STANLEY CARLSON WEDDING YESTERDAY

Clarence Stanley and Miss Ebba Carlson were married yesterday afternoon at the bride's home on Stanley avenue, Rev. J. H. Wood officiating. The ceremony took place under a canopy of dogwood intermixed with sword fern and beneath a floral bell swung from the arch.

The bride wore white crepe de chine and a bridal veil that swept the hem of her dress. Decorations were white sweet peas and maiden hair fern. The groom was dressed in a navy blue serge.

Mr. Stanley is the second son of Mrs. J. C. Stanley, the bride being the only daughter of Mrs. J. P. Freeman.

After the ceremony a three-course luncheon was served. The young couple went to White Salmon for a few days, and upon their return will begin housekeeping in F. Bruner's bungalow, which is ready furnished for their reception.

Those present besides the immediate members of the two families of the bride and groom were H. Johnson, wife and son; E. Bloomquist, wife and son; Mr. and Mrs. J. Engberg, Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley and son Earl; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kaser, J. M. Stanley, wife and family; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Bayne, Miss Isis Behrens and Ernest Freeman.

THE EDITOR'S CHAIR, AN IDYL OF ART

A poet once came to the editor's room with a manuscript rolled in his hand; and he said to the chief, "Here's a poem on 'Grief,' and another on 'Joys of Our Land,' here's another on"—boom! He is now in his tomb.—The editor held the best hand.

An actor then came to the editor's side and said, "Will you give me a puff? I'm an actor divine, as a star I will shine, if you only just puff me enough." 'Twas his last act—he died; and the editor signed, as they carried him out, "It is tough."

Then a minister came to the editor's chair with a sermon as long as a mile; and a drummer with pills to cure all the ills of the world upheaved in a pile. Then a balm for the fair, and a cure for their hair—and they asked but a "puff once'n awhile."

Then another came in to the editor mad, and he called for paper and pens; and he said, after while, as he took out a pile of eagles in twenties and tens, "I'd pay for my ad, though it took all I had, for it brings me both money and friends."

Ames Traps Wolf.

A. G. Ames, while on a recent trip along the upper Clackamas with B. S. Patton, trapped a seven foot black wolf. While the animal was not as large as some that have been seen in that vicinity, it was a formidable beast. Owing to the wolf having dragged the trap into the river, it was drowned and the hide was somewhat damaged by water. Besides the $25 bounty, the hide will net Ames $10 or $15 more.

Too often the stork lights on a man's roof when the wolf is at the door.

If some people knew how little they knew they would probably talk less.

BOND ISSUE CARRIES MORE THAN TWO TO ONE

Wednesday's election was gratifying to the advocates of good roads and general prosperity. The bond issue carried by a more than two to one majority, only four precincts out of 326 voted in opposition and their vote was so small as not to be noticed.

On the west side 6852 votes were given for the bonds and 1913 against; on the East side, in Portland the favorable vote was 15,671, with $960 in opposition. The country precincts gave 2485 for the bonds and cast 749 against. The total vote was 36,630, of which 25,008 were for and 11,622 opposed.

Here in Gresham the two precincts combined polled a total of 354 votes. Of these there were 312 for and 42 against. Other country precincts did even better than the two of Gresham, but the result is very gratifying. Not a single precinct of eastern Multnomah went on record as opposed to the bond issue and the hard-surfacing proposition.

CHICKEN ORDINANCE AND BUSINESS

At the special council meeting on Tuesday evening last, the "chicken" ordinance was passed. It will be found elsewhere in this issue and should be read carefully by all owners of fowls inside the town limits.

Two resolutions for the improvement of Fifth street and Wilson avenue were adopted and order printed in the Outlook. They both appear elsewhere in today's paper.

A four-inch main was ordered to connect with the new cannery, the two-inch pipe previously authorized being too small.

The proposal to convert the chemical engine into an auto engine was referred to the committee on Fire and Water.

The matter of employing an engineer to make estimates on street work was left to the street committee.

A proposed contract with the P. R. L. & P. Co. for street lights was laid over until the regular meeting in May.

FAIRVIEW CLEANUP DAY, APRIL 24

FAIRVIEW, April 16.—At the council meeting held here last Saturday night an ordinance was passed prohibiting dancing after the hour of 12 o'clock on Saturday nights. Heretofore, notwithstanding the state law on the matter, it has been customary to run dances until after the prescribed hour and the council now hopes to hold such things in check.

The council has designated Saturday, April 24, as general cleanup day for Fairview and all are urged to participate in the movement which will mean a better appearing and more sanitary city. Especially are owners of teams asked to cooperate by hauling away refuse materials.

Mrs. A. L. Stone entertained yesterday the ladies of the organized Bible class of Rose City Park Presbyterian church. She was assisted by Mrs. S. A. Dixon. The ladies came mostly by auto and enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Stone a former member and teacher.

Mrs. H. M. Shaw gave a tea at her home yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the Presbyterian Aid society. There was a good attendance.

WORK BEGUN AT FACTORY MAKING CARS

Whereas, the balance of the treasury stock at this date (April 6, 1915) not subscribed is 100,000 shares, therefore be it Resolved, that the balance of 100,000 shares be and the same is hereby withdrawn from the market.

The Board of Directors of the Beaver State Motor company at its last meeting adopted the above resolution. This action was influenced by the improvement of general business conditions and its corresponding loosening of the money market, and the placing of several large subscriptions for the company's stock. These subscriptions, with those previously made, will furnish sufficient funds to meet all requirements for the coming season, and in the opinion of the Board of Directors no more stock need be sold.

The company has been offered and has accepted several contracts for outside work from different parties that will enable it to operate the factory almost full time without hindering the manufacture of cars; in fact, the effect will be just the opposite. It is needless to say that these special contracts are taken at a figure that will earn the company a profit.

The factory is now in operation on a small scale, preparatory to engaging in the making of autos on a large scale. Five men are employed at present under the direct supervision of President P. A. Combs, who moved the company offices from Portland on Wednesday and installed himself in the new building.

The material purchased in the east is now on its way and due to arrive here in a few days. The foundry is in operation and all the necessary machinery has been set up. It is all operated by a system driven by electricity. There are nine of these machines at present, each for a different part of the work to be done in making an automobile. Other appliances will be installed as the demands require.

MRS. BELLE STOCKTON CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Bell Stockton, living near Ruby on the Base Line, celebrated her fiftieth birthday anniversary on Sunday last surrounded by numerous relatives who made the occasion an enjoyable one, long to be remembered. Following are those who were present:

Mrs. O. H. Jenkins and daughters Edith and Beulah; Mrs. Myrtle Thorpe and son Donald of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Camp and daughters Ople and Hazle of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner and daughter Mabel of Cottrell; Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson, daughter Rachel and son Clyde of Fairview; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Downing and sons Everett and Clarence of Gresham; Mr. and Mrs. F. Armock and daughter Hester of Seaside; Mr. and Mrs. Kuhlman and daughter and sons Leona, George, Frank and Karl of Rockwood; Miss Lula Micklely of Troutdale.

Callers in the afternoon were Mrs. Richard Tegart and daughter Winifred, Mrs. O'Banion, son and daughter of Rockwood; Mrs. Joe Marsh of Portland, Mrs. Stratton of Rockwood.
