

ALL THE DOINGS OF YOUR HOME TOWN

George M. Sleret and J. W. Bacon are both of the same opinion regarding Colonial ranges. Their wives have been made happy this week by the installation in their kitchens of a Colonial by Sterling & Kidder.

W. C. Burch and family have sold their home in Thompson's addition and will occupy Thomas Ginder's house on Hood avenue.

J. P. Freeman is carrying one of his ribs around rather tenderly and is unable to work in consequence. He was thrown by a scraper at the Base Line gravel pit on Tuesday with a fractured rib as the result.

Fred Jennings, for nearly a year past in the employ of the Pulfer Mercantile Co., resigned on Saturday last and went to Rainier where he will take up a former situation as night watchman for a log rafting company.

Carl W. Wirtz, a former Gresham boy, has been appointed passenger agent for the P. R. L. & P. Co. He was in Gresham on Wednesday receiving numerous congratulations on his advancement.

County Assessor Reed, accompanied by Deputies Welch, Beach and Funk, held a conference with several of the property owners along Main street at the Congdon hotel today with a view to adjust assessments. Mr. Reed is holding such meetings at several points in the county, today's meeting being one of them. The object is to equalize property values.

The closing dance of the Old Folks' club was given in Regner's hall last night. It was one of the best of the series and was largely attended. It is planned to resume the festivities next winter, as they are thoroughly enjoyable and are attended by many who never go to public dances.

Rinaldo Hunter, city marshal of Fairview and one of the oldest residents of that city, was married on Wednesday last to Mrs. Jane McCormack, recently of Pe-Ell, Washington. They were given a rousing charivari last night, but will not be scared out of making Fairview their home.

Dr. Bertha Stewart of the University of Oregon addressed the girls of the high school in the assembly room this afternoon. She also addressed a mothers' meeting at the same place.

May Day stories and a May pole will be the attraction for the little people at the library tomorrow at 2 o'clock. All children are invited.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Conkle started this morning on their homeward trip. They will stop a few days in Seattle and go East by way of the Canadian Pacific. They will spend a week or two in Evanston, Illinois and go from there to their home at Stony Point, Ohio. Dr. and Mrs. Conkle came from Ohio more than a year ago and have spent the time with relatives in the Pacific states. While here in Gresham they were the guests of their daughter Mrs. Jas. Sterling and family.

Rev. F. H. Freund will preach in English at the Zion Evangelical church next Sunday morning. His subject will be "The Purpose of Life." The monthly meeting of the Christian Endeavor society will be held in the afternoon at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Metzger are entertaining this week their granddaughter Margaret Lee and her mother Mrs. Lewis W. Metzger of Salem, Oregon.

Rev. S. F. Pitts will preach at the Adventist church at Gillis next Sunday night on the subject, "Christ and His Relationship to the Church."

Miss Laura V. Bulkeley, of Montavilla, who has been visiting with friends in Gresham this week, has accepted a position as assistant cashier of the Montavilla bank. She will begin her duties tomorrow. Miss Bulkeley has been head bookkeeper and assistant manager for an exclusive ladies' furnishing house, which position she resigned to take up the bank work.

Lewis Mershon of Springdale, east of the Sandy river, is the owner of his second Overland automobile which he purchased recently from C. M. Zimmerman of Gresham. Attention is called to Mr. Zimmerman's advertisement in this issue. The models shown are the latest and their good qualities are their most attractive feature.

Queen Esther circle will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Miss Gertrude Eastman. All members are urged to be present.

Christian Science services will be held in their hall in the I. O. O. F. building Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject of lesson sermon: "Everlasting Punishment." Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock.

Among the Gresham people who witnessed the great pageant in connection with the state Sunday school convention now in session in Portland, were Rev. F. H. Freund, N. O. Fuller, Mrs. C. E. Rusher, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman and children Orville and Doris, and Everett Downing.

Among those who took advantage of the afternoon presentation of Faust at the Baker theater in Portland last Wednesday were Mrs. Karl Miller, Mrs. Jas. Lawrence, Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman, Mrs. Arthur Dowsett and Miss Esther Elford.

A game of baseball is being played this afternoon by the Gresham high school club and one from Washington high, of Portland.

IT PAYS TO USE GOOD PAINT

Mayor Stapleton has designated May 4th to May 11th as

Clean-up Week

but he forgot to say anything about painting your buildings and decorating your home.

His proclamation would have been complete had he told you to use

Lowe Bros.' High-Standard Liquid Floor Paint and Mellowtone Wall Finish

We therefore Proclaim that they are Essentials of Clean-up Week.

1915 Overland

Real Riding Comfort

NEW underslung rear springs make the Overland one of the easiest and most comfortable riding cars in the world.

Being unusually long and of a new underslung design these rear springs have unusual flexibility.

The Overland type of rear springs is illustrated above.

See how the springs are placed under the axle; that they are long, have a very wide opening, and are of generous dimensions. Notice that the frame is dropped which makes possible a much lower hung and more graceful body. The road clearance is not affected.

The wide opening of the springs permits great up-and-down play—the maximum of flexibility.

These springs are unusually long; in fact are longer, in proportion to the wheel base, than the springs used on most all of the highest priced cars. This means a much more cushioned action.

The Overland swivel seat gives absolutely free movement of the springs, prevents binding and reduces possibility of breakage.

In short the exceptional elasticity of the Overland underslung rear springs makes the car ride with perfect ease and absolute smoothness under all conditions.

Shock absorbers are useless.

The 1915 Overland has grace, style, a beautiful finish, smooth riding qualities and every modern comfort and convenience. It comes complete.

We will be glad to demonstrate its merits at any time and place you appoint.

LIBRARY NOTES.

Books just received at the public library:

Holland, Rupert S.—Historic heroes of chivalry. In Holland's interesting way each of the following heroes are taken up. Roland and Oliver, the cid campeador, St. Louis of France and the seventh crusade, William Tell, Bertrand du Guesclen, Gustavus Vasa, Sir Francis Drake and others.

Marden, Orison Swett.—The Exceptional Employee.

Mr. Marden tells us that every employer is looking for the man who will do his work when the boss is away. A man who has courage, who is not a slave to precedent, who if he cannot go around, over or under a difficulty, goes straight through it. Self discovery, conquering and uncongenial environment, the power of enthusiasm are headings of some of the chapters. The author treats this subject in his inimitable way.

White, Bouck.—Call of the Carpenter.

Everyone should read this book. The church member and those outside of the church.

Morris, Charles.—Heroes of the Army in America.

Short sketches of the army career of famous heroes.

Sunday School Board Elects.

Several changes were made in the teaching force and officary of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school at a meeting held last Wednesday evening at the church.

Thos. Wiles and Carl Gundrum were elected to teach in place of Miss Emma Fuller and Miss A. F. Hoagland respectively, who will be unable to continue the work in the school. Mrs. C. M. Harrison was made Cradle Roll superintendent in place of Miss Ada Honey. N. O. Fuller was elected assistant to the Sunday school treasurer. Mrs. Arza Smith, during the latter's enforced absence on account of sickness. New song books were ordered for the Junior department. Superintendent A. R. Lyman presided at the meeting.

H. P. Christensen is the owner of a new Ford, chosen from Latourell's new arrivals.

Cast Iron Wanted.

$8.00 per ton paid for cast iron. Brass and Aluminum also wanted. See what you have and turn it into cash. Inquire at Sterling & Kidder's.—Adv.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday Rev. Melville T. Wire will preach at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. At the morning service, before the sermon, the reading of the mayor's proclamation and a brief address on "Clean-up Week." The topic of the sermon will be "Life's Alternative." At this service C. E. Rusher will sing, "The Great White Throne." Attention is called to the change of hour of evening service from 7:30 to 8 o'clock. All evening services of the church will commence at this hour until further notice. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Epworth League at 7:15 p. m.

Mrs. J. A. Palmquist has returned from a visit to Cottage Grove with her sister Mrs. Geo. Reynolds. While there Mrs. Palmquist visited a fine stock farm near the city. It is a fine country for stock. Mrs. Reynolds accompanied her sister home and will go in a few days to The Dalles to visit a daughter.

Peter Mitchell of Newkirk, Oklahoma, was a visitor this week in the homes of Mrs. Alta Truitt and Mrs. Mary Wood.

Mrs. S. T. Crow is on the sick list. She is confined to her bed but expects to be up in a few days.

A marriage license was issued yesterday for Harry S. Hill of Fairview and Maude E. Wallace of Troutdale.
