

CELEBRATE SIXTY-THIRD
WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Boone Johnson celebrate today the 63d anniversary of their marriage. Their sons Ed. and Will Johnson and the former's wife of Portland, and Will Dahlquist, took dinner with them today in honor of the occasion. On account of the recent illness of Grandpa Johnson, no extensive celebration was had this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are 83 and 79 years of age respectively. Both are natives of Missouri. On May 2, 63 years ago, they started on the long journey, by ox team, to the Oregon country. Two days later, just after crossing the Missouri state line, the young couple was married. A minister of the emigrant train performed the ceremony, the bride and groom standing between two wagons, with the blue canopy of heaven for a bride arch.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have lived all their married life in this vicinity, where they are respected for their sterling qualities. Both are devoted Christians, and members of the Gresham Baptist church.

WHO IS SUCCESSFUL?
There is no such thing as failure. For the man who thinks success, while around him surge the storm and stress of life's keen disappointments. If 'tis true that life's just what we make it. And you've failed then who's to blame? Did you think success, Dear Neighbor, or failure? As you tackled life's stern game? "As man thinketh so he is." Thus spoke the Prophet in ages past. That truth still stands today friend. Think success, you'll succeed at last.
