KEEPING EVERLASTINGLY AT IT

Just as soon as a man discovers that only by persistency can he hope to accomplish anything worth while, then he's a free man—then the scales of doubt and fear drop from his eyes—then he feels—yes he knows—that the help he had so often sought from others lies within.

In other words, when a man learns to recognize persistency as his best dependable friend, he becomes a veritable giant. Persistency begets self-reliance, awakens the mind to a realization of power within—of independence.

ALL THE DOINGS OF YOUR HOME TOWN

It is stated that the city council will ask the Northwestern Electric company for rates on light, heat and power in Gresham. The matter will probably come up at the special meeting to be held next Tuesday evening. To get the service it would be necessary for the company to extend a line from Fairview.

The vacancy in the list of teachers elected for the Gresham grade schools, caused by the refusal of Miss Gertrude Liggett to accept, was filled on Saturday evening by the election of Miss Florence Fieldhouse. Miss Liggett has accepted the principalship of the Rockwood school.

Emil Olsen went to Oregon City and Canamah on Sunday, taking with him his daughter Olive, Miss Anna Larsen and Miss Hester Thorpe. They made the trip up the west side of the Willamette, crossing at Sellwood, returning through Portland where they attended a couple of matinees in the afternoon.

Joseph Pateneau returned from Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, on Saturday evening. He went in response to a call to see his sister, Mrs. Agnes Slugg, who was not expected to live. Her condition is serious and but little hope is entertained for her recovery.

The Ladies' Aid society of Pleasant Home will conduct a lunch stand at the fair grounds on Thursday next for the accommodation of those who will attend the Hunter stock sale.

George W. Stapleton has been elected a director of the Gresham Fruit Growers' association to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of M. O. Nelson, who has gone east. Mr. Stapleton will hold until the annual election of officers in January.

Percy Giese left a branch from an apricot tree on the Outlook desk yesterday that measures a foot in length and has four short branches. It holds 40 half-grown apricots that are only a sample of the production of the tree, as every branch is literally loaded. The fruit will mature early and will be delicious when fully ripe. Mr. Giese's farm is about three miles southeast of Gresham on Pleasant View avenue.

Arthur Dowsett, Bert Metzger, Dr. R. H. Todd and Fred Todd went to the Des Chutes yesterday on a fishing trip. They will return in a few days with fish and fish stories of different dimensions for their friends and the members of the fishermen's league who congregate at the Quick Service corner.

Elizabeth P. Hutchinson of Evanston, Illinois, national treasurer of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, is at Portland Surgical hospital where she is seriously ill. Mrs. Hutchinson was the guest last week of the Honey families in Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hevel took a trip by automobile to Lebanon on Thursday, to visit with O. Zeek and family. They returned last night and reported a delightful trip and the roads in good condition. Mr. and Mrs. Zeek are well and find plenty to keep them busy on their half-section dairy farm. Mr. Zeek has increased his Jersey herd to 30 head of fine animals.

George E. Towle and W. F. Honey left yesterday for a week's trip in Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. A. W. Shipley, of Bull Run, spent the week-end with her daughters the Misses Laura and Mabel Shipley.

F. D. Lichty and family have moved from Chas. Cleveland's bungalow on Hood avenue to the Dammeyer place near the O. W. P. depot.

Mrs. Luby Hargrove and daughter Frances, of Portland, were guests on Sunday of Mrs. M. C. Hargrove and family. Other relatives from Portland who visited them on Friday, were Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Hargrove, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hargrove and daughter and C. C. Hargrove.

Floyd Metzger was home from Corvallis for an over-Sunday visit with the home folks.

The Baptist Ladies' Guild will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Roy Kern.

Miss Emma Johnson visited Miss Laura V. Bulkeley at her home in Montavilla Sunday.

E. S. McCormack, the newly elected principal of Gresham grammar grades, was in Gresham yesterday meeting teachers and patrons of the school and looking over the situation. He expects to move his family here after the close of school.

Dr. Clarence True Wilson is in a Portland hospital where he recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. He has a six-months' leave of absence from his work as head of the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal church. He expects to spend the greater part of the time on his farm near Gresham.

Gresham Lodge, No. 125, I.O.O.F. will confer the initiatory degree on Friday evening, May 14th. Visiting brothers welcome.—Adv.

1915 Overland $850
 Electrically Started and Lighted

THIS is the first car of its size, capacity, power and electrical equipment to sell below $1000!

Though the price is lower than ever, the quality is maintained throughout. All materials, metals and workmanship are of the very best.

This newest Overland has the genuine fashionable stream-line body design.

The body color is Brewster green—always so rich and attractive. It is neatly trimmed with fine hair-line striping of ivory white.

The electric starting and electric lighting equipment is one of the most reliable and best established on the market.

There is also a high tension magneto which is independent of the starting and lighting system and requires no dry cells.

This car rides just like it looks—beautifully. The new, long, improved underslung rear springs give maximum riding comfort under all conditions.

Tires are 33" x 4" all around. Never before has a car at this price come equipped with such large tires.

It seats five adults comfortably, without crowding. It is a big, spacious five-passenger touring car.

It has the famous Overland 30 h. p. motor of remarkable strength, speed, durability and economy, developing more power than you will ever require.

This car at this price is destined to be known as the greatest motor car achievement of the season.

Orders are now being taken for immediate delivery.

METZGER BROS.
 Powell St. Gresham

H. J. Pulfer and family spent Sunday visiting with relatives in Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. Beecher of Grand Forks, North Dakota, were recent visitors in the homes of W. F. and Geo. F. Honey.

E. C. Rusher is laid up at his home with an attack of lumbago.

Mrs. W. C. Belt is confined to her room on account of sickness, at the home of her son R. B. Belt.

Mrs. V. A. Ammerman spent Thursday in Portland, when she called at the I. O. O. F. Home, and also attended a meeting of the Ben Butler Women's Relief Corps.

Rev. R. D. Streyfeller and wife, of Seattle, father and mother of Mrs. W. R. Plumlee, came here on a visit to their daughter after the close of the Free Methodist conference in Portland. Mr. Streyfeller left this morning for Seattle but his wife will remain here for the week. Mrs. S. J. Plumlee, mother of Rev. W. R. Plumlee, arrived here last night from Seattle for a long visit with her son and his family.

The hardware firm of Sterling & Kidder has incorporated for $10,000. At an election of officers James Sterling was elected president; James Elkington, secretary-treasurer and L. L. Kidder manager.

R. R. Carlson has sold his Ford auto to C. M. Quicksall of Pleasant Home.

Jas. Lawrence is reflooring his residence, and will repaper and paint it. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wooley have taken possession of their place, recently purchased from Geo. Sunday.

G. R. Byington and wife, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Belt.

Mrs. Gust Larson and Mrs. Ella Aton attended Free Methodist conference last Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Hoss is on the sick list. C. M. Zimmerman has secured the services of Claude Palmerton of Portland as expert machinist and repair man. Four automobiles were in the garage at one time today undergoing repairs, giving Mr. Palmerton an opportunity to exert his peculiar talents in that line.

Smith's theater will put on a popular benefit next Monday evening, May 17, in aid of the high school baseball team.

The Women's Home Missionary society will meet with Mrs. J. N. Clananah tomorrow afternoon. The annual opening of the mite boxes will be the feature of the meeting. All members of the society, also of the Queen Esther circle and the Mothers' Jewels who find it impossible to attend the meeting, are asked to leave their mite boxes with Mrs. Geo. W. Kenney, who has charge of that department.

POPULAR PASTOR AGAIN IN CHARGE

Rev. Wm. R. Plumlee was returned to the pastorate of the Free Methodist church at Gresham by the annual conference just held, much to the satisfaction of the membership of the church and the citizens in general, who appreciate the sincerity and earnest work of the pastor.

Several important changes were made in the location of pastors who formerly served the Gresham church. Rev. J. A. Hopper was moved from Clackamas to St. Johns. Rev. S. G. Roper goes to The Dalles. Rev. Edwin Hight was left without an appointment to attend school. He will enter the Seattle Pacific college, which is the successor to Seattle Seminary.

Bishop William Pearce, who presided at the conference, was formerly district elder in this district, and has often preached in Gresham.
