About 75 attended the Sunday school picnic last Saturday. A fine dinner was served under the trees, on the banks of the Sandy. After the dinner the crowds disposed of about nine gallons of ice cream and we didn't notice that any was wasted although everybody had plenty. Everybody had a good time and most everyone got home before it rained. There are plans started for a Fourth of July celebration at home this year. If you are in favor of it please say so as often as possible.

A good many who attended Sunday school here last Sunday got caught in the thunder shower on their way home and there is no doubt that all who were out in it got wet.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Williams, of Pleasant Home, and Rev. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles called on J. H. Wood and wife Sunday afternoon.

The young people's class met at the home of I. T. Wood last Tuesday and decided that in the future they would be known as the Searchers class and their motto will be "Seek and ye shall find." Matt. 7-7. The treasurer reported $7:36 on hand toward the church bell. It was also voted to accept with thanks the gift of $5 from a Portland man who was interested in the class work through the efforts of Mrs. Branson. The class was divided into a white and blue ribbon contest, the side having the poorest attendance and bringing in the fewest new Sunday school members will at the last of June give a treat to the winning side. It was suggested that the treat be a supper at the schoolhouse, to which the public be invited.

Mrs. Wells celebrated her 54th birthday a short time ago. While she had been aere but a short time, she had many friends, her bright cheerfulness endearing her to all with whom she came in contact. Three children are left to miss their mother's thoughtfulness and care—Mrs. W. H. Sanford, Mrs. Frank Hilgert of Nampa, Idaho, and one son, Daniel, of Castle Rock, Washington. The services were held in Castle Rock, the home of Mrs. Wells, on Thursday. The many friends of the family extend their loving sympathy in this, their great loss.

Mrs. Paul Gantenbein, of Jonesmore addition, spent Monday afternoon visiting friends here.

The rains are welcomed by all here, as garden truck was at a standstill for lack of moisture. Being Oregonians such long dry spells as the one we have just had are not appreciated as much as they might be.
