

DEDICATION OF STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

The dedication of the new State Normal school building at Cheney occurs Saturday, May 22d. There are three sessions planned, one at 10:30 a. m., one at 2:30 p. m. and the third at night at 8:00. Each session will consist of special music and short addresses by prominent visitors.

After the leading address in the evening, a reception will be tendered to the visitors. Opportunity will be afforded through the day to inspect the building. The alumni banquet will be given at 5 o'clock.

Governor Ernest Lister, State Superintendent Josephine C. Preston,

Dr. E. A. Bryan, of the State College, Dr. Henry Landes, of the State University, Principal W. E. Wilson of Ellensburg, Principal George W. Nash of Bellingham, are among the educators of the state to be present. Regents and trustees of the state institutions, county superintendents of schools, delegates from the Spokane Chamber of Commerce and other commercial clubs and delegates from Women's clubs throughout the state are expected to attend.

In a campaign against lead poisoning Austrian scientists have offered a gold medal for the best method for preparing leadless inks for printing and lithographing.

ALL THE DOINGS OF YOUR HOME TOWN

Work on the union high school building has progressed so far that the walls are practically all up for the main building and preparations are being made for the roof. The gymnasium roof is just being finished. The outside of the building will be practically completed next week after which the interior will receive attention.

Adolf Tietze, proprietor of the Sanitary Market, has a new Ford auto delivery car which he will use in Gresham and vicinity for the delivery of meats. The driver, Arthur Strebin, will take orders in the forenoon and deliver in the afternoon, but no meats will be carried on the first round. All the near-by towns will be served.

Miss Echo Jones, who has been visiting for several weeks in southern Oregon, writes from Canyonville that she is visiting in the home of Walter Cornutt, a son of Noah Cornutt. Rev. T. L. Jones and his wife, who assisted in revival meetings here during the winter, have commenced a series of meetings there. Miss Jones is assisting with the singing this week.

The Gresham Real Estate company has sold two acres, belonging to Chas. Cleveland to J. R. Harlan, who has been on the Winch ranch for the past year and a half. Mr. Harlan expects to develop a poultry ranch. He has moved his family to Mrs. Vesta Raney's house on Second street and will begin the erection of buildings at once. The tract of land lies north of the Section Line road just east of the Geo. Lee's property. It was formerly a part of the Chas. Powell farm.

Christian Science services will be held in their hall in the I. O. O. F. building Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject of lesson sermon, "Mortals and Immortals." Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock.

Chas. Wonacott of Portland, son of Judge Wonacott of Gresham, will give an illustrated lecture on the Passion Play on Friday evening, May 21, for the benefit of the Baptist church. The place of the meeting has not been announced. Look for further announcements.

Miss A. M. Nelson, an evangelist working in Calvary Baptist church, Portland, was the guest of Mrs. J. M. Shoemaker this week. Miss Nelson will speak at the Baptist church, Sunday evening.

Mrs. F. A. Holliday has returned from Good Samaritan hospital where she recently underwent an operation. Her daughter Mrs. H. W. Irwin of Minto, Manitoba, arrived Monday. She expects to spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning and their granddaughter Miss Cecelia Kronenberg attended the graduating exercises of the Good Samaritan nurses in Portland last Tuesday evening. A class of 46 was graduated. Miss Lillian Hendricks of Harney county, a niece of Mrs. Manning, was one of the number.

Rev. A. J. Ware will preach next Sunday morning at Bethel Baptist church at 11. Sunday school at 10. Miss A. M. Nelson, of Calvary church, Portland, will speak in the evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Lulu Strebin and Mrs. E. Truscott attended a meeting of the Royal Embroidery club yesterday at the home of Mrs. A. B. Conrad in the Melrose district.

Fred Palmquist and wife and little daughter Jauneta, of Portland, visited on Wednesday and Thursday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Palmquist.

The first shipment of strawberries to The Dalles was sent by the Gresham Fruit Growers association this morning. The shipment consisted of 34 crates, and were of fine quality. The Dalles cannery has contracted to take 100 crates a day from the Gresham association. Manager Jas. Sterling finds the berries from the Powell Valley district to be of a superior quality. They are large and firm and evenly ripened.

Rev. S. F. Pitts will preach at the Adventist church at Gillis next Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Ella Aton is nursing in the home of W. E. Burnett at Pleasant Home.

Ralph Keppler was a Gresham visitor today at the home of his grandfather, Wm. Congdon.

One of the workmen on the roof of the new high school gymnasium fell 20 feet to the ground on Wednesday, breaking both bones of his left leg just above the ankle. It is feared the foot will have to be taken off. He was taken to Portland in an ambulance but his name was not learned.

Mrs. Henry Cover will leave on Monday for Thermopolis, Wyoming, to join her husband who left here about two months ago. Their home is at Thermopolis but they spent the winter here.

Extra Long Underslung Rear Springs

MANY cars are still made with the out-of-date short overslung rear springs. The rear springs of the Overland are underslung. They are long; they have a very wide opening and are of generous dimensions. They have swivel seats which insure an absolutely free movement. The Overland rear springs, in proportion to the wheel-base of the car, are longer than the springs used on almost all of the highest priced cars. Thus we have provided maximum riding comfort.
