COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

The party given Saturday night by Mrs. E. M. Henderson at Crown Point, was a notable affair of the season and goes on record as a splendid success. It was the first time in history that merry-makers gathered at this now world renowned place, thanks to such men as Lancaster, Yeon and Benson and it was the beginning of the career of this beautiful resort, where tourists from far and near will congregate in future years. Handsomely gowned, Mrs. Henderson kept busy greeting her guests and everybody was made to feel that they were welcome. As the night was beautiful with bright starlight, the spacious verandas were thronged with people, who never tired of gazing up and down the Columbia, whose water was calm and still and with the many electric lights along the river, made a never-to-be forgotten picture. Excellent music added much to the pleasure, and it seemed as if the tall fir trees that have stood there for hundreds of years, whispered to one another through their swaying branches. The strains of sweet melodious music came from below and oh, what a change from the everlasting sound from the murmuring river and the whistling of east wind, which has kept blowing and blowing for centuries. At midnight a dainty repast was served by the hostess and her staff of excellent assistants and the dancers did not leave until the stars had slipped away into the unknown, and the sun cast its golden glow over the snowclad mountain tops and it is needless to state that when leaving everybody wished Mrs. Henderson success in her new surroundings, and she deserves it, for although she has met with many obstacles in her line of business she is as enthusiastic as ever. We realize that the construction of resorts up here is giving this part of the country a good forward push, and when the new Crown Point Inn is finished, it will be a grand place for travelers and in building this place every convenience and comfort for the tourist is her object. The electrician has been busy wiring the building for lights. Hot and cold water will be installed in all the sleeping apartments and it is to be finished by the first of June.

Columbia View farm was much honored by a visit of more than fifty delegates to the National Congress of Mothers, who made a halt here on their trip out to see the Highway. More than twenty-five autos loaded with interesting women from all parts of the world, who gathered in Portland for their convention decided to come out and have a view of the scenery, but owing to the bad condition of the road for about half a mile, which had just been graded down, they feared to go over it with their heavy cars. We are more than sorry that the Highway should be in such a condition that such a party as these noted women should return with the impression that the Highway they had heard so much about could not be traveled. Our teams have been kept busy pulling cars out of the mud since the rain started in. However, we feel that this can't be helped and when the road is once completed, it will be good in the future.

Our grammar school at District 39 closes its term next Friday. It has been a very successful school year with Mr. Duncan as teacher and it is to be regretted that Mr. Duncan did not wish to accept the position for next term. Miss Mary Deaver and Bessie Knieriem have taken the 8th grade examinations at the Heights school. Mrs. Ferguson, of St. Johns, and her youngest daughter Ruth came out to spend the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Knieriem, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mrs. John Taylor. W. Knight has just purchased 4 acres of land from Mr. Leader adjoining the high school grounds and will build a handsome store as soon as a site can be cleared. The Rooster Rock cannery is now being lighted with electricity and have installed a new dynamo.
