"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham, Oregon.

Official paper of the Town of Fairview, Oregon.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THE DAWN IN SIGHT.

"It never rains but it pours." As in the physical world, so is the world of human spirit embodied in human matters.

The farmers have been putting in seed with busy and hopeful hands, and their harvest is assured.

If only the grange and city producers today had economic use of Oregon's idle water powers, the boom would be yet more pronounced.

The winter wheat crop promises well. Salmon is uncertain according to reports, but there will be a taste all around.

Mr. Olsen has invested in a new Ford runabout.

A. G. Sager and family, of Lents, were entertained at the home of his brother G. N. Sager last Sunday.

Next Monday is school meeting. All good citizens will turn out and do their duty on this occasion.

Miss Lura Elwood left Wednesday for San Francisco to visit the exhibition.

Miss Mabel Moore, of Detroit, Michigan, is spending the week-end at the home of her brother W. U. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Moore were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Limer, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Silkworth and son Paul, of Montavilla, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Berke Sunday.

Mrs. Joe La Fond, of Little Falls, and Mrs. White, of St. Paul, Minnesota, were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Berke.

Members of Pleasant Valley grange who attended Pomona grange held with Columbia grange Wednesday, report a splendid program, a sumptuous repast and an all round good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parent and children spent the week-end in Arleta, the guests of Mr. Parent's aunt, Mrs. Ella Fletcher, and his grandmother Mrs. C. M. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCoy, of Omaha, Nebraska, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCoy.

Everyone in Ventura attended the rose festival and did their share of boosting. But the pleasure was dampened considerably by the Portland Railway Light & Power company failing to keep its agreement as to car service.

A car was promised to leave the Montavilla station at 11:49 Friday night and over 100 persons were there at that time. The car came at 1:15. And yet the P. R. L. & P. desires us to legislate against jitneys!

The taxi will sniff at the jitney in Portland on the first of July.

Billy Sunday refuses to be filmed. He is afraid of being censored.

The safest place we know of during these turbulent times is sitting on a rail fence about four miles away.

We do not know what it is that is establishing a ring of silence around ex-Governor West, but the state is manifesting no great concern or impatience about it.

The majority of people is not concerned with questions of whether, why and when, but is concerned with rats, sheep and clothes. Somewhat sordid, perhaps, but wholly human.

The use of deadly gasses and liquid fire in warfare reminds us that the Chinese not only invented gunpowder but were the first to use stinkpots to confuse and confound their enemies.

A Michigan inventor has brought out a portable refrigerator, somewhat resembling a cult case, in which there is a chamber for cracked ice above a compartment for holding perishable goods.

We suspect that the Governor of Georgia is going to do what he deems to be his duty with regard to Leo Frank, notwithstanding the 100,000 letters he has received telling him what to do.

It is reported that a can of tomatoes that retails for 7 cents in this country would sell for $1 in Brazil. This suggests that the democrats should spread the propaganda of free trade down there.

The English may capture Dr. Dernberg at sea. They will be nut-heads if they don't let him alone; but perhaps he wants to be captured as England is already well overstocked with bother.

A young man down south was fined $75 for drinking whisky in church. When you cross a brainless jackass with a tinker of moonshine licker, the product is a radiant fool about fourteen hands high.

When a girl tells her beau that she likes the aroma of a good cigar and that he may smoke all he pleases, he might as well begin saving up and make arrangements with his tailor for a suit to be married in.

There is no doubt that we are on the verge of the summer season. Next Tuesday will be the longest day of the year, after which the days will begin to wane and you will begin to read that familiar paragraph, "Do your Christmas shopping early."

With concrete on the Foster road there will be an excellent opportunity to test its merits as compared with bitulithic. The advocates of concrete will not fail to seize any chance to prove their claims that it is the best hard surfacing mixture of the two.

PLEASANT VALLEY

George Flynn, of Cherryville, visited a few days this week with N. D. Kenterson.

B. W. Stewart, a Portland capitalist, was out one day recently looking the valley over with a view of buying a home here.

Mrs. Wm. Crawford has returned from Mohalla where she spent several days visiting at the home of her brother W. N. Chilcote.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Smith, of Portland, were in the valley Tuesday looking after business interests.

John Garner made a business trip to Lents Wednesday.

Carl Borgess was a Gresham caller Tuesday.

G. H. Richey and son Lester, of Corvallis, came down Saturday and have been visiting with friends and relatives here and in Portland.

Mr. Richey is having his auto overhauled preparatory to making the trip overland to California, where they will spend the summer sightseeing.

Mrs. Richey is visiting with friends at Amity and McMinnville, she will join Mr. Richey the latter part of the week when they will start on their trip.

S. C. Brasswell and son Boyd were held up by a lone highwayman about eleven o'clock last Friday night as they were returning from the rose festival.

Although armed with nothing better than an umbrella, Mr. Brasswell put up a fight with the result that the thug took to his heels, he turned however, and fired one shot from his revolver which struck Boyd, taking effect in the thigh causing a severe wound.

The thug was apprehended at the county farm Tuesday and is now in custody, and it is said that he has confessed to the crime.

This is the second holdup occurring in the valley within the past year and a half. A man was shot in each instance. Both men held up put up a fight and neither of them lost their money.

Mr. Olsen has invested in a new Ford runabout.

A. G. Sager and family, of Lents, were entertained at the home of his brother G. N. Sager last Sunday.

Next Monday is school meeting. All good citizens will turn out and do their duty on this occasion.
