HILLSVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. J. Exley, of Gresham, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Al. Pier Sunday.

Mrs. E. L. Norquist and son, Mrs. A. Samuelson and Mrs. C. Erickson attended church at Haley Sunday.

Road Supervisor Heacock was seen escorting some men around in an auto, these some men looking somewhat like county commissioners. This incident caused hope to spring up in men's hearts that they might get a chance to improve our roads and at the same time earn a little money or in other words get back a little of their tax money from the county.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Samuelson went to Portland Thursday to attend a reception given to a minister recently arrived from the East. Mrs. Samuelson remained in town visiting for a few days.

L. Welch with his four sons and two teams are doing some grading in Gresham.

MELROSE

Mrs. A. B. Conrad had as guests for dinner Thursday from Portland, Mrs. Blosser, and granddaughter, Eveline, Mrs. Riley, Miss Musser, Mrs. Gresson, and sister who was formerly Mrs. Copes of Gresham.

Dr. W. T. Kerr, of Portland, will preach the memorial sermon next Sunday morning, June 20, at 11 o'clock, in memory of our late pastor Rev. T. J. Anthony. A large crowd is expected to be present.

Mabel Wood has been having as guests Mr. Fred and Miss Lydia Griffin of Ione, Oregon. Mr. Griffin returned home Sunday, Miss Griffin will visit in Portland before going home.

Mabel Wood starts for Monmouth Friday to attend summer school. Misses Grace and Bertha Gentry left for their home in Nebraska Thursday after their visit with their sister-in-law, Mrs. Alta Gentry.

Will Fritz and Stewart Thompson called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wood Wednesday evening.

Carl Sunderland, of Albany, visited Thursday and Friday with his cousins, Mrs. Ethel Stafford and Mrs. Mamie Cuddiford. He was accompanied by his friend J. Adams.

Mrs. Florence Wallace, of Portland, Mrs. Margaret Kane, of Atascadero, California, and John Stafford, of Long Beach, California, came to attend the funeral of their mother Mrs. E. A. Stafford and are still visiting their brother Everett Stafford.

A large crowd of neighbors and friends were present at the funeral of Mrs. Stafford Tuesday. The family have the sympathy of all in their loss of a loved one.

Laura Jones visited in Albany and at Terry recently. Mrs. Nellie Kenney of Terry visited her father over Sunday.

Theo. Mercer is harvesting a nice lot of cabbage which was set in December.

A large amount of the cherries from here are going to be made into delicious cocktails for those that like them.

Emil Olsen and family are moving to Aberdeen, Washington to spend the summer.
