CORBETT

The new store of Mr. Knight at the top of the hill is rapidly nearing completion. Four weeks ago the ground was not yet cleared and now the report is that the ice cream parlors will be in commission July 4. He has also purchased a Studebaker truck to be used in connection with his mercantile operation.

Teachers' examination next week to keep life from being one grand sweet song for many.

Miss Helen Coulter, assistant principal of the Corbett union high school, has started for her home at Oxford, O., to enjoy her vacation with relatives and friends.

The first year of work in the high school came to a close Friday. The attendance this year has not been so large but everything points to a larger enrollment next year.

The Columbia grange gave a social dance at their hall Saturday evening. There was a nice crowd in attendance and everyone seemed to be having a good time.

Travel on the Columbia Highway last Saturday was not one unalloyed delight, according to all reports.

Mrs. Sprague of Christmas La Re Valley, is enjoying the beauties of Ferndale place these days.

Automobiles are all right at times, but many of our automobilists have had occasion to revert to the good old fashioned horse.

Mr. Knight is to give an opening dance in his new store building Saturday evening, July 3. Everybody cordially invited to come and have a good time.

The Christian Endeavor has a playlet billed for the evening of July 3, in the west basement of the high school building. A small admission will be charged. Ice cream served afterward to the limit of your constitution, or pocket book or both.

PLEASANT HOME

A business meeting of the Women's Temperance Union will be held at the home of Mrs. D. M. McLaughlin, Friday afternoon, July 2. Members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

A series of special meetings is being held in the M. E. church by the pastor, Rev. Frank Smith, assisted by Rev. Dr. Selleck of Portland. Services are held every evening. All are invited.

The many friends of Mrs. W. E. Markell will regret to know of her serious illness at her home here. Her condition is considered critical. She is in the care of a trained nurse and everything possible is being done for her comfort.

Mrs. Andrew Bankus and son Walter visited with Ed. Simonson's family on Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bartsch, a daughter, on June 19.

Jack—I once saw a man turned in to wood.

Jim—How?

Jack—He got on a ship and then he was a board.

Jim—That is nothing. I saw a man who could not talk, regain his speech in a minute.

Jack—What?

Jim—Why, he went into a bicycle shop and picked up a wheel and spoke.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

It is with sorrow we received the death notice of Mrs. Bloch-Bauer of Portland. Her beautiful voice is never to be heard here below, but in heaven she has joined the chorus, around God's throne. No occupation in this life could be sweeter than that which she had chosen, which was for her so many friends and though now her voice is still the echo of her sweet singing will live forever in our memories. It was an inspiration to hear her sing, "The Star Spangled Banner," as she sang it at the old exposition building on Washington street and it is with a sacred and tender feeling the writer remembers the last time she heard her in concert at the First Presbyterian church in Portland. The building was crowded to the door and when she sang the last number, "Abide with Me," it seemed as if it lifted the audience by the charm of her voice up above all things earthly.

The high school directors and the district school board held a meeting last Saturday evening at the high school to see what should be done with the old schoolhouse. It was decided to move the building and to repair it and it will be used in the future for public meetings. At our last school election a 4-mill tax was voted, to carry on the expenses for the next year. A playground will be arranged for the small children's benefit, and suitable acrobatic apparatus, swings and so forth, will be installed for their pleasure. P. Andersen, G. Chamberlain and W. Evans, constitute the board of the district school.

Miss Ruby Rasmussen has just signed a contract to teach her first school near Monmouth, Oregon.

G. Kuleriem, Sr., is the proud owner of a fine Studebaker auto.

Mr. St. Clair, the editor of our popular paper, the Outlook, accompanied by his wife and party, were seen at the Heights last Sunday.

Mrs. John Taylor had as her guest on Sunday her sister, Mrs. Hunter of Portland, who attended the party at our grange hall Saturday night.

Lloyd Taylor has just arrived from a trip up The Dalles.

W. Hicks has sold a building site to Mr. Dabney, the owner of the club house grounds at the Sandy river.

HILLSVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. A. Widen are spending a couple of weeks with relatives at Swenson, Oregon.

Rev. Mr. Anderson held services each night during the past week in the Swedish church and on Thursday afternoon the Ladies' Aid met in the church, which was decorated with ferns and evergreens. Rev. Mr. Anderson gave them a very appropriate address after which lunch was served.

Mr. Lorin, of California, who has purchased twenty acres from Mr. Widen, is having lumber hauled to commence building.

Mrs. S. Campbell, of Portland, spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. A. Samuelson.

In the face of all that pessimists tell us about the world growing worse the following incident proves that there are still honest people to be found not on the other side of the world but in our own beloved Oregon. Last week a lady returning home from town late and in the rain lost her hand bag containing some money, a receipt with her name on it, and several little articles and next day it was returned to her with contents unmolested. Surely the finder was an honest man.
