MELROSE

A few of the Melrose people spent the 5th of July with the Victory and Gresham people in Rosins' grove. There were 88 altogether who gathered around the bountiful picnic dinner. Rev. Melville T. Wire of Gresham asked the blessing of "our Father" upon the gathering, after which everyone helped himself and neighbors to the good things in sight. After dinner the crowd was given plates and spoons and for awhile kept Mr. Jas. Sterling and Dr. Clamahan busy dishing out the ice cream which was the Gresham people's treat. To say it was enjoyed is putting it mildly. After everyone had so much ice cream that it didn't taste good any more, a number of the singers, led by Mrs. Ellen Pomeroy, gathered at one side of the picnic grove on a little knoll decorated with the "most beautiful flag" of our country, and sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and other patriotic songs closing a very enjoyable concert with "America" in which everyone joined. About 4 p. m. it began to sprinkle a little and everyone hurried to get home before it rained. Everyone thanking everyone else for the good time had, and hoping everyone would come back next year, where the friendships begun this Fourth could be enjoyed again amid the same pleasant surroundings.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS
The Fourth of July was observed in due style this year and it looked like all were bent for Multnomah falls, which now can be reached by motor as well as by boat or train. This beautiful place was the main gathering place along the Highway and it seemed like all of Portland was there. Everywhere on the green grass you could see groups getting ready for a big feast and the eats looked good and plentiful everywhere. By looks of it, everybody was out for a good time and they had it too. If it hadn't been for the terrible dust that we had to motor through, it would have been a grand trip up there, but owing to the tremendous travel, we had to swallow a goodly quantity of it and by the time we arrived home we were all ready for the bath tub. My, wont we enjoy an outing when we get our Highway hard-surfaced.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallan Jackson entertained a goodly number of friends and relatives Sunday, who motored out here for a family picnic. Mr. Barton, of Piedmont, Mr. Newell and family and Mr. Martin and Mrs. Wales, all of St. Johns. Mrs. Wales, who is 90 years old, had the time of her life, and enjoyed the company of her grandchildren. A large table and benches were erected under the old shady cherry trees and we noticed as we passed there was an abundance of good things to eat. The company motored back to Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Masterson, of Montezano, Washington, aged parents of Mrs. D. Benfield, came down here for a visit last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Masterson formerly lived in this vicinity.

Mrs. Lottie Benfield had as her guests over Sunday, Dr. Berryman, wife and children, of Portland.

Governor Withycomb and party breakfasted Monday morning at Crown Point Chalet, before going on a sight-seeing trip along the Highway.

Of course, nobody will blame us Scandinavian people for being proud of the honor bestowed on Mr. S. Benson lately, as a most worthy citizen. It is a great honor for him, his family and his country as well. May he live many years and do lots of good for his fellowmen.
