ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

Geo. Leslie, Jr., of Portland entertained a party over Sunday at the cottage of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leslie at Seaside.

Sigrid Peterson returned to Gresham Thursday after almost three weeks' visit with his aunt, who resides at Stafford, Oregon.

One of the delightful little neighborhood picnics to be held on July 5th, was held in Miss Cora Giese's grove at Linneman. Those participating were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jones, Miss Echo, Jackson, Guy and Halle Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Feldhouse, Miss Cora Giese, Miss Florence Fieldhouse, Miss Henrietta Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Giese, Russell Aikin and D. J. Culy. Percy Giese's famous homemade flag was on display. This flag was made by his parents in the early 60's and was flung to the breeze for the last time when it was hung at half mast on receipt of the news of the death of President Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wostell returned last night after an absence of five weeks, during which time they have been taking statistics of manufacturing in five counties of western Oregon. They were working for the government under the civil service commission.

Miss Mabel Burch has accepted a position as stenographer and bookkeeper for the Northwestern Drug company of Portland.

Mrs. Ella Aton visited over last night with her mother at Boring. She went today to Pleasant Home, where she will nurse Mrs. Markell, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Winsor and son Ivan, of Miles City, Montana, are the guests of Miss Emma Johnson for a few days. They will leave the first of the week for San Francisco where they will visit the exposition, and will be accompanied by Miss Johnson. Mrs. Winsor and Miss Johnson are sisters.

The regular meeting of the Gresham grange will be held Saturday evening, July 10, beginning at 8 o'clock. The first and second degrees will be conferred upon candidates. Ice cream and cake will be served at the close of the evening. A full attendance is desired.

Mrs. Claude Smith, who has been ill for several days past with appendicitis, is reported much improved today.

A most delightful day was spent by a party of Gresham people Sunday on a trip to Bonneville over the Columbia Highway. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Howitt and baby and Miss Bessie Howitt, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hevel and daughter Vivian, Mrs. Ida Williams, Harry and Helen Wostell, Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie. Two automobiles were required to handle the party. All were enthusiastic over the beauty of the scenery and the wonders of the Highway. A visit was made to the Bonneville fish hatchery.

The regular meeting of the Gresham Volunteer Fire department will be held at the fire hall next Monday evening July 12. A full attendance is desired.

At a meeting of the members of the Methodist Episcopal church called on Wednesday evening for the purpose of electing a delegate to the lay electoral conference to be held in connection with the annual conference in Roseburg next September, N. O. Fuller was chosen delegate and Mrs. Lena C. St. Clair alternate.

A genuine surprise was given the many friends of Miss Ebbie Hargrove, when it became known that she was married. Samuel E. Johnson of Los Angeles, California, is the happy groom. The wedding occurred on Wednesday, July 7, at Vancouver, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left Portland last night for Los Angeles, where they will make their home and where Mr. Johnson is a street car conductor.

The Misses Viola and Leta Matthews plan to start tomorrow for Wasco, Ore., where they will spend the summer. They will go with an automobile party over the Columbia Highway.

Captain Branson, although a Civil War veteran, is remarkably active for one of his years. On July 4th he preached twice, once at the Commons Mission in Portland and once at the University Park M. E. church. Captain and Mrs. Branson spent Monday at Columbia Park at a family reunion. Twenty-seven of Mrs. Branson's relatives were present.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Roberts and daughter Miss Alice expect to start Sunday by auto for Greenhorn in eastern Oregon, where they will remain for about six weeks. Mr. Roberts will look after his mining claim while there.

One of J. H. Hoss' team horses was kicked by its mate yesterday evening resulting in a gash on its hip that required seven stitches. Dr. Smith is of the opinion that it will fully recover but will be unable to work for several weeks.

Ed. Uhl sold his pool room and the furniture in his residence yesterday to a newcomer named Moore and left today for San Francisco. He will go from there to Gresham, Nebraska, to join his wife who left here about a month ago.

J. H. Metzger, assisted by Roy and Frank Gibbs, is putting a new roof on his building, known as Metzger's hall at the corner of Main and Powell streets.

Attention is called to the new advertisement of the Sandy Fir Lumber company in this issue. The mill is turning out some excellent lumber in all grades and is selling at lower prices than can be found elsewhere. Delivery will be made anywhere on large orders.

Dr. S. P. Bittner and C. M. Zimmerman had a head-end collision late last evening on the railroad crossing at Linnemann. They were passing a loaded truck and met together, resulting in a bad smashup for Mr. Zimmerman who sent his auto home as freight. Dr. Bittner was able to keep his machine going. Neither were injured.

It is noted in the Drain Herald that "Rev. M. B. Parauanagian, who was in Drain last week, organized several Sunday schools in this vicinity."

The special evangelistic services will close Sunday night at the Baptist church. Brother Driver and wife of the Chapel car "Good Will" will have charge of the service at the church. There will be special song service and the closing sermon by Rev. Driver. Let's make the closing day of the meeting full of life and power. All plan to come and enjoy the singing and the preaching of Brother Driver.

D. M. Roberts will leave for Greenhorn, in Baker county in a few days, where he will rusticate with his nephew, watching how gold mining is done. He will be away a month or longer.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday, Rev. James Moore, D. D., District Superintendent of the Salem District will preach at 11 a. m. Miss Echo Jones will sing "O Lord be Merciful" by Homer N. Bartlett. At 8 p. m. Rev. Melville T. Wire will preach as usual. Epworth League at 7:15. Sunday school at 10 a. m.

The Model apron shop is seeking a lady or girl to do some soliciting. Anyone wishing to earn a little extra money and engage in pleasant occupation is invited to call at the shop.

Mrs. J. E. Schneider and children of Denver, Colo., arrived Thursday to join Mr. Schneider, who has been here for some time. They will live in Mrs. Murphy's house.

Will Metzger is taking his vacation. Fred Todd is assisting in the store in the meantime.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Barker, who have been the guests of J. C. Peterson and family, left last night for their home in South Omaha, Neb. They were well pleased with Oregon.

C. B. Peterson left Thursday for Wheeler, where he is working in the depot of the P. R. & N. railroad.

The names of C. H. Lane and C. Atterbury were unintentionally omitted from the account in Tuesday's Outlook about the I. O. O. F. picnic at Bonneville. They both report a splendid time.

D. Geddes, a prosperous farmer of Grandin, North Dakota, has been visiting with his brother-in-law, Wm. Thom and family, on his way to the San Francisco fair. He is exceedingly well pleased with this country and expects to locate here in the near future.

Principal-elect Elmer F. Goodwin and his family have arrived from Brownsville and are occupying Fred Fieldhouse's new bungalow in Regner addition.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thom entertained on Sunday their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan of Portland. They entertained during the past week Mrs. F. N. Hogoboom of Portland. Miss H. E. Miner of Portland is spending this week-end here.

Rev. Melville T. Wire will preach at Bull Run Sunday afternoon.

A similarity in names was responsible for an error in the Powell Valley items in the last Outlook. It was John Palmblad and wife, not John Palmquist and wife, who entertained a party on Monday last.

Best Diarrhoea Remedy.

If you have ever used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy you know that it is a success. Sam F. Guin, Whatley, Ala., writes, "I had measles and got caught up in the rain, and it settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time, and had it not been for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not possibly have lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy, I am now well and strong."
