COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

Editor Gresham Outlook.—It will surely be a treat not to see any more in the papers about that Thaw case, and I hope that the end will turn out in his favor, for although he has committed a crime, he has been treated very unmercifully, and to be assured that it is his money that has drawn it out so long makes it look the more disgraceful. If it had been a poor man that had done the same act as did this Thaw his case would have been settled in a hurry, you know. And as for Evelyn, she cannot hardly be blamed for what she did, a child of fifteen, beautiful in looks and innocent, was given in charge of White by her own mother, is at the bottom of that whole affair. And we wonder if she got any satisfaction from that folly. And as for White, why such a fuss? The world is better off without such beasts.

Our highway was a lively scene last Sunday. We had a peep at the eastern Shriners who came here on their way to Seattle. They were a gay and jolly looking bunch, in their rainbow regalia. They were very conspicuous, and our little boy wanted to know if they were all "turks."

Mr and Mrs. Woodward have added a tall flag pole to the grounds in front of their dwelling, making it look very attractive, and we now see Old Glory swaying in the breeze. The Woodwards have as their guest at present their daughter, Mrs. Alice Landine, of Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. Vincent of St. Johns and little daughter were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Ross. Little Otto Knerlem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knerlem, met with a terrible accident on Saturday when in some manner he got in front of the mowing machine and came near losing his leg. Dr. Bittner of Gresham was called and made the little fellow as comfortable as possible and then took him to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. No blame was laid on the young man driving the machine as it was purely accidental.

Portland is not the only place where we find bright pupils. Columbia Heights can at least boast of one bright boy, who also graduated from the grammar school at the age of twelve years, like that little Portland Miss. Fred Woodward, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Woodward, graduated from our Heights school one year ago last spring and has attended the high school here for one term before he was thirteen years old.

Miss Myrtle Dann of Portland surprised her many friends here last week by getting married. The young folks have gone to California for a wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Bellruth of Portland have returned to their home in the city after spending some time with Mrs. Bellruth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Knerlem senior.

Harry Walters of Idaho came here recently and is making his home with his mother Mrs. James Deaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Meier have been entertaining friends from the city quite extensively lately at their new attractive summer home here.
