Home-Made Jellies

Before the berry season is ended the thrifty housewife will be making her winter supply of JELLIES. These glasses will prove of great utility, as they are not too large and are easily filled and sealed. Their low price has made them very popular.

A Complete Line of FRUIT JARS, JELLY GLASSES, RUBBER CAPS, DIPPERS, FUNNELS, RUBBERS, ETC.

We are calling special attention to the new

Self-Sealing Masons

which are equipped with the NEW SELF-SEALING CAPS. These caps may also be used on the old style Mason or Ball Mason. We have them in any quantity. They are sanitary and easier to use than the old kind.

We also have a full supply of

Economy Jars

as well as the self-sealing Masons and Ball Masons, and can fill an unlimited demand.

Some Specials

Ripe Tomatoes are in the market, also Green Cucumbers, Canteloupes and Pie Apples.

Every variety of vegetable is received fresh daily and we will have all the seasonable fruits as fast as they come in.

Mrs. G. W. Kenney has as a guest her sister, Miss Ada Lentz, of Holbrook, Ore.

A well attended and interesting meeting of Gresham Rebekahs was held Wednesday night. The first reading of proposed changes in the by-laws was made and the first vote taken on changing the meeting night from Wednesday to Monday. The result was in favor of the change but the final vote will be taken at the next meeting. The recently elected officers will be installed on July 28.

D. W. Hull and wife of Portland, and their son-in-law, Harry Husted, wife and little son, of Martinsville, Ill., who have come to spend the summer with Mr. Hull's family, were all-day visitors with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison of Wallula Heights on Wednesday. The Halls, Husted and Harrison were acquaintances from the same county in eastern Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Fuller entertained on Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brown of Pasadena, Calif., and Mrs. Dwight of Portland. All were former childhood friends and schoolmates of Mrs. Fuller. A most delightful day was spent. The day happened to be the birthday of Mr. Brown, which added to the interest of the occasion.

The members of the Tuesday Study Club who made the trip to Oregon City last Tuesday reported a day of unusual interest. The first place of interest visited was the McLaughlin home. Mrs. Alldredge, mother of the famous Alldredge male quartet, is matron of the home and showed the visitors every courtesy. At her invitation they spread their picnic lunch in the building. After dinner other places of interest in connection with the history of Oregon were visited, among them the graves of Dr. McLaughlin and his wife. The afternoon was spent at Gladstone Park at the Chautauqua assembly. Geo. F. Honey, R. R. Carlson, Geo. Leslie and W. F. Honplacé their automobiles at the disposal of the members of the club for the day.

Edw. Aylsworth, Joe Pateneaud and Ray Todd started yesterday in the autos of the two former for a trip to the Tillamook beaches. Mrs. Aylsworth and Mrs. Todd and the children will join the party in a few days at Manzanita beach. They expect to spend the remainder of the month at the beaches.

Services will be held as usual at the Free Methodist church next Sunday. The Sunday school will meet at 10, and the pastor, Rev. W. R. Plumlee, will preach at 11 and 8 o'clock.

Best Diarrhoea Remedy.

If you have ever used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy you know that it is a success. Sam F. Guin, Whatley, Ala., writes, "I had measles and got caught out in the rain, and it settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time, and had it not been for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not possibly have lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy, I am now well and strong." You Grow as You Bank

Young men do not spring suddenly into business prominence and success. They rise gradually, over a period of years, from small transactions to big ones, from penny profits to great dividends. And invariably the history of a career of commercial achievement is best told in the man's banking record.

Banking Money Means Building Your Future— Begin Early That Your Structure May Be High

There are more high-salaried positions in this country than there are men to fill them. The secret is training in finance, which begins with ordinary banking knowledge of the value and the uses of money. We will welcome you as a depositor.
