According to experts, the force of the rotation of the earth on the gyroscope compass which has been adopted by the United States navy is 291 times as great as the force of magnetism on the magnetic needle.

Self-control, however difficult at first, becomes step by step easier and more delightful.

Hawaiians who depend for a living on the pearl-diving industry are having a hard time as a result of the war. The entire absence of a European market is given as the main cause. Thursday island is a center of the industry.

ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

L. L. Kidder, Will Hessel and Jas. Elkington went to Salmon river on Saturday evening intent on capturing a supply of trout. They are expected home this evening.

Mrs. E. J. Hesseltine, who recently returned home from one of the Portland hospitals, has taken a relapse and is seriously ill at her home on the Base Line.

W. H. Moore moved his poolroom outfit to the Columbia river highway on Sunday. He will open in a tent near one of the paving camps and follow the road crews while the road work is under way.

C. R. Wheeler, who returned from the Coast last week after a short stay here left for Council, Idaho, this morning where he expects to open a barber shop. His family will follow later.

Mrs. W. R. Plumlee and family are in attendance at the Free Methodist camp meeting which opened at St. Johns on Wednesday last. They expect to remain for the entire meeting which will close on August 15.

The Misses Alta and Zella Landon, who have been visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Clara Kane, and other relatives, for the past two weeks, returned to their home in Lents a few days ago. Their mother, Mrs. May Landon, went home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Regner and the latter's sister, Mrs. Patton and daughter Luella, took the trip by auto to Government Camp and return on Sunday. They left here at six in the morning and made the trip easily with plenty of stops for rest and arrived home about six in the evening. Mrs. Patton and her daughter left Monday for their home in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Knowlton of Boston, Mass., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Fuller last week. They are old friends of Mrs. Fuller whom she had not seen for thirty years.

The regular meeting of the Marion Ross W. R. C. No. 8, will be held in the Grange hall, Saturday, August 21. All members and visiting members are cordially invited to be present.

H. W. Russell, who recently purchased the Hezekiah Look place near Gresham, is making good headway on his improvements to the place. All the old buildings have been torn down or removed and material is being collected for the erection of modern up-to-date buildings. A fine well of water has been secured by drilling down 72 feet to a bed of gravel. The flow of water did not seem to be adequate but it was increased to an abundance by the explosion of four sticks of dynamite in the bottom of the well.

E. R. Wright continues to improve and is able to sit up for short intervals. He suffered a serious relapse a week ago at Good Samaritan hospital where he has been for treatment for several weeks.

Jane, Miriam and Margaret Inglis, of Hale, Iowa, are guests in the home of Dr. Inglis. Miriam Inglis will spend the winter here as she has a position in the Troutdale school.

Mrs. Grace Fritz and daughter Louise of Melrose spent the day last Thursday with Miss Elsie Metzger.

Mrs. Ella Schneider and her mother, Mrs. Sarah Jack, were in from Cottrell on business today. They called at the home of Mrs. R. R. Carlson while here.

Mrs. Fred Lane of Kalama, Wash., visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. H. Lane on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher.

Miss Aurilla Hoaglund, Mrs. H. L. St. Clair and daughters Winifred and Margaret took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lansdowne at their camp at Jenne Station. Mr. Lansdowne is employed there with his team on the paving work for the county.

N. O. Fuller will be the prayer meeting leader at the M. E. church Wednesday evening.

Miss Esther Nystrom has gone to Aberdeen, Wash., for several weeks to visit her sister, Mrs. E. S. Anderson.

Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth returned home from Manzanita on Sunday. Her mother, Mrs. Jas. Lawrence, remained for a longer stay.

Mrs. M. D. Kern spent last Friday in Portland as the guest of Mrs. C. R. Weber.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Metzger and Mr. and Mrs. Will Cory took a delightful trip to the mountains yesterday. They went by auto and on the trip visited Welches, Arrah Wannah, the Toll Gate, Aschoff's and Marmot. Mr. and Mrs. Cory are from Florida and are planning to join Mr. and Mrs. Carlson on an auto trip through central Oregon, Nevada and California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bellman and son Vernon of Cosmopolis, Wash., visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Oliphant. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Oliphant and these guests, Mrs. Gertrude Peterson and Arlie White, spent the day on the banks of the Sandy near Troutdale. Mrs. Peterson left Saturday for her home in Kelster, Minn., after a two-months' visit in her father's home.

Miss Lottie Wilton has gone to Seaside for an outing.

Miss Emma Fuller, Miss Esther Elford and Carl Gundrum were the guests at dinner Sunday of Miss Henrietta and Leslie Wiles.

Mrs. S. R. Bradfield is quite ill at her home here. She is being cared for by Miss A. F. Hoagland. Mrs. Robert Lansdowne came from Jenne today to remain a day or two with her mother.

Miss Willa Metzger is suffering from blood poisoning supposed to have started from mosquito bites. She is reported to be improving.

Miss Minnie Shriner of Portland visited Saturday with Mrs. Chas. Latourell.

Mrs. Ellen Little spent a week in Beaverton, returning home on Friday last.

Miss Effie Stanley, who spent two weeks in a Portland hospital, has returned home and is rapidly regaining her former health.

VISITOR FROM JAPAN HERE LAST SUNDAY

Cary Ball, a nephew of D. S. Johnson, was a visitor here last Sunday at the home of his uncle. Mr. Ball has been in Yokohama, Japan, for the past year engaged in the Japanese oak lumber business but has returned here on account of the mills being closed down.

He was formerly of Michigan and may return there although he has another position offered him in Siam.

You Grow as You Bank

Young men do not spring suddenly into business prominence and success. They rise gradually, over a period of years, from small transactions to big ones, from penny profits to great dividends. And invariably the history of a career of commercial achievement is best told in the man's banking record.

Banking Money Means Building Your Future—
Begin Early That Your Structure May Be High

There are more high-salaried positions in this country than there are men to fill them. The secret is training in finance, which begins with ordinary banking knowledge of the value and true uses of money. We will welcome you as a depositor.
