ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

Rev. C. B. Rees, at one time in charge of the Pleasant Home M. E. church, but for the past two years in charge of the Estacada church, will give up the ministry on September 19 and take a position with a Portland music house.

Reports from the threshing crews now at work give the grain yield for this season at about 55 bushels an acre for both wheat and oats. The straw is remarkably heavy and tough owing to the summer rains. The estimate for eastern Multnomah is about 350,000 bushels.

E. H. Kelly and family, accompanied by Mrs. Minnie and Miss Mabel Studebaker, of Castle Rock, Wash., are enjoying a sojourn at Welches on Salmon river.

Dr. H. H. Hughes, with his mother, Mrs. A. Hughes and sister Della, started yesterday on a trip to Seattle and other Sound points, to be gone about a week. They went by auto and will take their time and camp at convenient places along the way.

Mrs. E. C. Leighty of Portland was a visitor on Tuesday and Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Burke have returned from the beach where they spent a week's vacation. They are entertaining for a few days their sister-in-law, Mrs. J. C. Burke and little daughter of Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Lillian Pullen is assisting in Walrad's store.

Miss Willa Metzger is able to be about again and has returned to her work in Walrad's store.

A minstrel aggregation will open at Smith's theater next Monday night presenting the Jolly Bohemians. The two principal minstrels are Harry Weaver, aged 78 years, the oldest burnt cork professor in the United States, and Charles Archer, another who has passed his 66th year.

Mrs. Amanda Johnson of Portland was the guest over night of Mrs. Clara Kane. She has gone to Scenic and Cottrell to visit relatives. No services will be held at the Free Methodist church next Sunday on account of the camp meeting now in progress at St. Johns.

The regular meeting of Gresham Grange will be held at the hall tomorrow night, beginning at 8 o'clock. The work will be in the third and fourth degrees. Plans for the fair will be under advisement. Ice cream and cake will be served after the business session.

Mrs. Harry Osman has been ill for over a month and Harry has been laid up with rheumatism for the past ten days. Mr. Osman is slowly improving.

Geo. F. Honey and family returned early this week from San Francisco where they visited the great exposition.

Mrs. E. Cresswell of Kennewick, Wash., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. M. Nystrom.

Mrs. R. B. Belt is visiting in Portland with her mother, Mrs. G. A. Byington is assisting in the confectionery store during Mrs. Belt's absence.

Miss May Mason of Portland is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mewhirter.

At the Women's Home Missionary meeting held at the home of Mrs. D. E. Towle last Wednesday, it was voted to give the children of the Portland Industrial Home a day at the Multnomah County Fair. A picnic dinner for the children will be a part of the treat. Mrs. K. A. Miller was appointed to present the plan to the fair board and ask for free admissions. Mrs. A. Hevel, Mrs. G. W. Stapleton and Mrs. J. N. Clanahan were appointed a committee on transportation.

A recent letter received from Lloyd Cummins, who is working near Bleckleton, Wash., gives some idea of the size of eastern Washington and Oregon wheat fields. Lloyd is on the farm of his uncle, H. L. Hagey, who is working a place about five miles square. He reports a bumper crop. It took the header 27 days to complete the work on the farm. Some samples of grain sent here show 62 heads of wheat from one root, and many are said to bear even more.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Cameron have as guests the former's sister, Mrs. E. S. Kneeland and daughter, of Grand Forks, N. D. They have been visiting in Los Angeles and seeing the fair. They will remain with the Cameron family for two weeks. Mrs. Cameron entertained last Wednesday Mrs. Brown and Miss Eleanor Aldrich of Courtney, Oregon, and Mrs. Mollie Aldrich of Grand Forks.

Miss Esther Elford and Miss Emma Fuller left this morning for a week's stay at Seaside. Mrs. Fuller expects to go tomorrow for the week-end trip.

Mrs. S. R. Bradfield's condition is still serious. Her daughters, Mrs. C. E. Rusher and Mrs. Robert Lansdowne, are with her almost constantly.

Mrs. L. P. Manning entertained on Saturday and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bonney of The Dalles.

Paul Elford and Elton Eastman returned Wednesday night from a two-weeks' vacation at Seaside.

Dr. Robert Smith, pastor of Sunnyside Methodist church, and Mrs. Smith, of Portland, Mrs. B. O. Bosserman and daughter Eleanor of the Webb farm, were callers on Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair one day this week. Dr. Smith and Mr. St. Clair were fellow students and intimate friends in the East and had not met for 28 years. Dr. and Mrs. Smith were guests on Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Bosserman.

TIRED AND HUNGRY

When a fellow comes home in the evening
So tired he cannot speak,
An' his face so awful dirty
When he winks his eyelids squeak;
His arms just ache from workin'
And his legs can hardly walk;
That's the time when supper tastes good—
Do you listen to my talk?

But he's cranky, tired and hungry—
Well that's enough I guess;
An' so puddin'-headed crisscross,
Says "no" when he means "yes."
That's the time he kicks the kitten,
Talks sassy to his wife;
He's meaner than blue blazes,
Bet your everlastin' life.

Now you wait for half an hour,
Or 'till he's fed his face,
An' see the transformation
That's already taken place.
He can smile an' joke an' jolly,
An' laugh at little things,
But can't do it when he's hungry,
Unless he's built with wings.

So when a girl gets married
To an honest working man,
An' he comes home tired an' hungry,
She must smile the best she can;
An' be a little patient
'Till he sits down to eat,
An' she'll have a home so happy
It will be hard to beat.

J. L. JOHNSON.

You Grow as You Bank

Young men do not spring suddenly into business prominence and success. They rise gradually, over a period of years, from small transactions to big ones, from penny profits to great dividends. And invariably the history of a career of commercial achievement is best told in the man's banking record.

Banking Money Means Building Your Future-- Begin Early That Your Structure May Be High

There are more high-salaried positions in this country than there are men to fill them. The secret is training in finance, which begins with ordinary banking knowledge of the value and the uses of money. We will welcome you as a depositor.
