to the de luxe frontier entertainment of the world, which is in itself an education, they will gladly give you their support.

Call at the office of the Outlook and secure a receipt book, have us explain anything you may not thoroughly understand, or, if you reside in the country, drop us a card and we will gladly mail you a receipt book and full details. The Outlook will help you in any way it can, such as furnishing you sample copies or mailing them to any names you may hand in.

It naturally follows that the ones who get an early start will have a little the best of it, as persons will usually give their subscriptions to the ones who approach them first. Do not delay, but call at our office now, or fill out information blank in this issue and mail at once.

What You Will See at the Roundup.

The sixth annual Roundup will be better, grander and more spectacular than in any previous year. New performers will be in evidence, as well as the old stars whose feats have made the Roundup synonymous with nerve and daring. A few of the special features will be pony express races, broncho busting, Indian parade and encampment, tribal dances and fetes, bucking bulls and buffalos, the worst outlaw horses of the plains, bulldogging and riding contests, fancy roping and tying by cowboys and cowgirls, who truly play the leading roles in this red-blooded drama that forcefully portrays the standards of a country and the lives of a people whose strong code has made possible the culture, wealth and affluence that today characterizes the plains.

Notice of Meeting of County Board of Equalization.

Notice is hereby given that on Monday, September 13, 1915, the Board of Equalization of Multnomah County will attend at the office of the County Assessor, at the Courthouse in Portland, and publicly examine the assessment rolls for the year 1915, and correct all errors in valuation, description or qualities of lands, lots or other property, assessed by the County Assessor. And it shall be the duty of the persons interested to appear at the time and place appointed. If it shall appear to such Board of Equalization that there are any lands or lots or other property assessed twice, or incorrectly assessed as to description or quantity, and in the name of a person or persons not the owner thereof, or assessed under or beyond the actual full cash value thereof, said Board may make proper correction of the same. If it shall appear to such Board that any land, lots or other property assessed by the Assessor are not assessed, such Board shall assess the same at the full cash value thereof.
