ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hoffman entertained at dinner Saturday evening Clyde Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Blake, their daughters, Misses Maxine and Inez, all of Vancouver, B. C. also D. S. Freeman and son Arthur of Portland. The Blakes are on their way home after visiting the exposition. They are making the round trip by auto.

Latourell & Son have taken the old poolroom adjoining their garage and have converted it into a workshop with the front as a display space for new automobiles. With enlarged space they will be able to accommodate more business.

W. R. Burke is spending a few days at Seaside.

Mrs. P. A. Gould had as dinner guests on Sunday Dr. B. J. Hoadly of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair.

Miss Emma Johnson of the Outlook force has returned from a month's vacation spent in California.

Mrs. Schofield, who has been ill in Portland, was brought Sunday to the home of her father W. H. Congdon. She is being cared for by her grandmother, Mrs. M. Roton and her sister, Mrs. Maude Hise of Seattle.

Among those recently arriving home from the beaches are Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Page, Mrs. O. A. Eastman and daughter, Gertrude, Mrs. Jas. Elkington and Gertrude and Jeanette the young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dowsett.

Mrs. H. J. Stocker is at home for a brief rest from her demonstration work with the O. W. R. & N. fruit canning car. She was accompanied from Seattle by her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Lawe, who spent a day or two here.

Mrs. Fred Todd has returned from Welches, where she spent the past two weeks.

Miss R. I. Dair spent a few days in Portland last week.

A peach tree limb of the Early Crawford variety is hanging in the Outlook window taken from a tree by E. E. Welling on his Base Line farm. It bears twelve fine peaches within a space of one foot. Mr. Welling has placed a box of these peaches in cold storage for exhibition at the coming fair.

Some sneak thief or thieves broke into D. W. Metzger's house last Friday night and searched the house for valuables. They gained access by forcing a lock on a window and went about the house in stocking feet. Matches were found all over the house where they had left them. Mrs. Emil Oswald discovered the fact that the house had been entered when she went there on an errand Saturday morning. So far as is known nothing of value was taken. Mr. and Mrs. Metzger are in San Francisco, where they have been for the past month, with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Toepleman.

Harry Crenshaw and family and Mrs. Jesse Stafford plan to start tomorrow for Amboy, Washington for a visit with the Worthington family.

Henry Pfaff was out Sunday visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, Henry Metzger.

The condition of Mrs. S. R. Bradford, who has been seriously ill for the past week, is reported to be slightly improved.

Bert Lindsey and family went by auto Sunday to Larch mountain. They had a delightful trip and incidentally gathered a supply of huckleberries.

H. R. Winchell, of Portland, a former principal of the Gresham school, was out with his wife and daughters Sunday, calling on Heity Metzger and family.

Bayard Miller, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Miller, is the possessor of a fine gold watch of which he is justly proud. Last Sunday the Miller family attended church at Rose City Park M. E. church, and heard Dr. Chas. Bayard Mitchell of Chicago, an eminent minister, for whom Bayard Miller was named. While Dr. Mitchell was in conversation with the Miller family, he took out his gold watch and presented it to his namesake.

Mrs. W. J. Ott is entertaining her cousin, Mrs. Chas. Ford of Emporia, Kansas.

Mrs. C. Merrill left yesterday for Guler, Washington, to join her daughter, Miss Birdie, for a brief outing.

Mrs. L. S. Osborne is entertaining her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Laver of Carlton, Oregon. On last Sunday Mrs. Osborne, Miss Bessie and their guests enjoyed a river trip up the Columbia.

The regular prayer meeting at the Methodist Episcopal church will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Principal Elmer F. Goodwin will lead.

Miss Winnifred Osborne is spending a two-weeks' vacation at the beaches.

Miss Edna Kohnen of Park River, North Dakota, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. W. F. Honey.

Miss Bessie Osborne was unable to care for the library for the past day or two, on account of illness. Miss Nelly Fox, county librarian, took charge yesterday, and will send a substitute from Portland.

Mrs. Joe Exley and Miss Elsie Metzger have returned from Newberg, where they spent several days visiting with friends.

Hearing on the road petitions by the county commissioners was postponed again today because the officials were absent from their office. The committee will probably take the matter before them tomorrow.

At Bull Run Park.

There will be a country dance at Bull Run park next Saturday evening, August 21. The Hotel Wood-brow is now open, where refreshments will be served.—Adv.

Not So Strange After All

You may think it strange that so many people are cured of stomach trouble by Chamberlain's Tablets. You would not, however, if you should give them a trial. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Mrs. Rosie Rish, Wabash, Ind., writes, "Nothing did me the least good until I began using Chamberlain's Tablets. It is decidedly the best medicine for stomach trouble I have ever used." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Ad.

names. Although Scandinavians they write their citizenship as Americans without any hyphen. That is the talk. They have started the foundation of a great hospital that will finally cost more than $100,000, and they declared it an American institution, not a foreign institution. Thank God for our Scandinavian brethren. No finer people ever come to this country. No question about their loyalty.

Glafka & Company, commission men, have decided to move to the East Side. They purchased a site and will erect a $100,000 building in the warehouse district. Others, six in number, are figuring on moving to the East Side, where they can have trackage and room. The plans for the proposed East Side Club house have been completed and work on the foundation will start on Grand avenue in a short time. It will be built in connection with the Citizens Bank building, and altogether the cost will be about $50,000.

CHERRYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Christian, of Portland, are spending several days with Mrs. Christian's brother, Ivan Turner and family.

Wm. Runyan attended the quarterly conference at Sandy last Sunday.

Miss May Chase, of Spokane, has been visiting her aunt Mrs. J. T. Friel, Jr.

Mrs. Myra Revenue and daughter Ruth, of Sandy, were callers at Mrs. Wm. Rugh's last Wednesday.

The Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Shark Wednesday afternoon, August 18th.

Mrs. Wm. Rugh entertained Saturday evening, Alex. Brooke of Hood River and Mrs. Erwin and daughters of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Siras Runyan and family dined with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Clark Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rugh entertained Sunday Siras Runyan and family and F. E. Clark and wife.

Rev. G. A. Gray, of Sandy, will preach August 22d at 3 p. m.

B. F. Bauer and son Preston, of Sandy, were out to their home ranch Sunday.

The Case of L. L. Cantelou

The case of L. L. Cantelou, Clarendon, Texas, is similar to that of many others who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea. Since then no one can sell a doctor for several months, and using different kinds of medicine for my wife who had been troubled with severe bowel complaint for several months, I bought a 25c bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Ad.

The Twenty Year Test

"Some twenty years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Geo. W. Brock, publisher of the Enterprise, Aberdeen, Md. "I discovered that it was a quick and safe cure for diarrhoea. Since then you one can sell me anything said to be 'just as good.' During all these years I have used it and recommended it many times, and it has never disappointed anyone." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Ad.

You Grow as You Bank

Young men do not spring suddenly into business prominence and success. They rise gradually, over a period of years, from small transactions to big ones, from penny profits to great dividends. And invariably the history of a career of commercial achievement is best told in the man's banking record.

Banking Money Means Building Your Future—
Begin Early That Your Structure May Be High

There are more high-salaried positions in this country than there are men to fill them. The secret is training in finance, which begins with ordinary banking knowledge of the value and the uses of money. We will welcome you as a depositor.
