TROUTDALE

A large party of relatives and friends enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parsons at their home on Staggerweed mountain last Sunday. Those present were: Mr. Alonzo Waxler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shute from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Parsons and children, Mrs. Robinson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Schenck and children, Mr. and Mrs. George Lumsden and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kummer, Mr. and Mrs. Knarr and Mrs. Jim Knarr, Miss Belle Parsons and Clarence Parsons.

The Adventist camp meetings opened on Tuesday evening with a good attendance. Among the speakers are F. A. Baker of Santa Cruz, who conducts the Bible study classes; J. J. Shaumburg, editor of Messiah's Advocate, and R. B. Shannon of western Washington conference. Each day there is a sunrise song service at 6 a. m., Bible study 8-10:30; general preaching at 11 a. m., 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. The singing is led by a chorus choir. On Monday next the day will be devoted to Women's Home and Foreign Missions with a special meeting led by Miss Lois Wright. Tuesday will be young people's day. Wednesday will be Sunday school day with Mr. Phipps and Miss Clark of the State Sunday school association as leader.

Marjorie and Evelyn Kendall, Abbie Larson and Isabella and Bessie Low have returned from an outing at Oneonta Falls.

Mr. Arata, L. A. Harlow and Milton Fox spent the week-end at Clackamas Lake, enjoying the sport of fishing. They report a fine "catch" and a good time.

Mr. Wicklund and wife came out to attend the old-fashioned dance on Saturday evening and were Sunday guests of the L. A. Harlow family.

Mrs. Rhoda Dodson and James Bothwell spent the week-end in Portland visiting Mrs. Dodson's daughter, Mrs. J. Coulsen Hare.

Mrs. J. Coulsen Hare, of Portland, who has just returned from a six weeks' visit at the San Diego and

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

We are glad to know that Mr. Taft, our former president, will not go by without having a good look at the Highway. T. Roosevelt and J. W. Bryan were so busy with politics they never once dreamed about this famous piece of road.

The good old harvest time is at hand, and everybody is busy getting the grain protected from the threatening showers. The grain bins won't be as full this year as was expected nearly all kinds of grain being light. Still we are grateful that it is not a failure, as it looked quite bad for a while with all the rain. Leader Bros. have started out with their baler and no doubt will find a lot of poor hay this season.

Nothing definite was agreed on at the last committee meeting whether Columbia grange will exhibit at the county fair at Gresham this year. R. P. Rasmussen attended the directors' meeting yesterday at Gresham.

Columbia grange hall will soon have a new roof on. W. Henkle has the contract. Other improvements will add to the comfort of the grangers. Saturday night no doubt will bring a great throng when the firemen's band from Portland will have an orchestra of ten fine musicians to furnish music for the merry dancers. Spectators will be charged admission.

One of the smartest affairs of the season was the party last Saturday night at Crown Point, given by Mrs. E. M. Henderson. Many prominent people from Portland were present and enjoyed the splendid music and the dainty supper served by the hostess.

H. Samuelson, of Portland, spent his vacation at the home of his fiancée, Miss Laura Ross.

Mrs. Clara Knappe, of Fisher's Landing, Washington, has been a house guest at the Benfield bungalow for the last few weeks.

Mrs. C. Hildge entertained Mrs. King, of Portland, last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rasmussen, of Tacoma, who have been here on a short visit with relatives, returned home last Monday.

W. Hicks was removed to the Good Samaritan hospital last week and at this time seems no better. We all hope to hear of a speedy recovery.

A. Morgan is busy making extensive improvement at Chanticleer.

A good many are seen going by autos up towards the mountains with their tents to enjoy a short stay in the open. And now the poor buck will soon catch it, but what is better than a slice of tender venison?

CHERRYVILLE

Mrs. J. T. Friel, Jr., gave a social dance Saturday evening in honor of her sister Mrs. O. Hare, of Spokane, who will make her quite a long visit.

Mrs. Wm. Allen and son were callers at "Cherry Acres" Tuesday morning.

A. Beigstein is having a nice new bungalow built.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Runyan entertained at Sunday dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rugh and F. E. Clark and wife.

Mrs. James Bodkins is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Husock.

Mrs. Graham and children of Mt. Tabor, are visiting with Mrs. Graham's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Bodkins.

Mrs. F. E. Clark entertained last Thursday, Mrs. P. Averill and daughter Lilian and Miss Northrop.

Rev. G. Gray, of Sandy, will preach at the M. E. church August 22d, at 3 p. m.

HILLSVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. C. Klabbie and children, of Vancouver, Washington, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuelson last Sunday.

Mrs. C. Hupp is entertaining her father and brother, C. Davis and son of Oklahoma.

Mrs. L. Yunker and Mrs. C. Hupp were Gresham visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Donyland and little daughter are visiting relatives in Portland.

August Olson called on friends in Powell Valley Sunday.

Miss Johnson and son, of Cotton, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Norquist.

Mr. Strom returned from the Hot Springs Monday, where he had gone for treatment for rheumatism. He is not improved and Mrs. Strom is quite sick.

BORING M. E. CHURCH—Sunday services: Sunday school 10 a. m., preaching 1st and 3d Sundays, 8 p. m., 2d and 4th Sundays 11 a. m.; Epworth League 7:30 p. m.; Prayer meeting, Thursday 8 p. m.; O. W. Boring, Sunday School Supt. Claude F. Cross, Epworth League Pres. Rev. David Wolfe, prayer meeting leader. Rev. L. F. Smith, pastor.

VENTURA PARK

On Saturday Mrs. Henry Friese returned from a week's visit in Hubbard, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Burdick.

Mrs. Fred Bridges, Mrs. Harry McCoy and three children and Mrs. Frank Parent and two children had a most pleasant picnic at Johnson creek on Thursday last. The ladies were as young as the children—in actions at least—and are going to repeat the experiment at an early date.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith are enjoying a week's camping near Estacada.

With delight we listen to the noise and grind all day long! It means "good roads" which is what we all stand for in this progressive community. The road work has gone on rapidly the last few weeks and will soon be finished as far as Buckley avenue.

A Sunday school has been organized here, meeting in the club house. Mrs. W. H. Sanford is teaching and the little tots are enthusiastic over the school.

Although this is the busy season the library reports are encouraging. On every open day a number of books are taken out, and while the number isn't as large as during the less busy season, it is large enough to make a favorable impression.

The matter of creating a new school district and erecting a new building, which was brought before the county superintendent by the Base Line Improvement club, came up before the boundary committee on Saturday. Arguments both pro and con were given and it was finally tentatively agreed that a conveyance should be furnished to carry the children to Russellville. This is quite pleasing to the club as a community school, such as has been found most satisfactory in a number of states, seems to us to be the best solution to the problem. Russellville has a good school building and most of it is idle. Let the county furnish transportation, eliminate one or more of the small schools and make full use of the good building already erected.

Mr. Chas. Heath, who has been ill for some time, is again able to be up, though still weak.

Edward, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCoy, is the victim of chickenpox.

Gas pipe is being laid in our addition, most of the residents having signed for it, both for light and cooking.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parent and children spent the weekend with Mr. Parent's family in Hillsboro.

Wilson Hamilton and family are occupying a tent while clearing off their acre, which lies between the Parent and McCoy properties on the Base Line. This tract cleared is adding immensely to our good looks!
