The Twenty Year Test

"Some twenty years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Geo. W. Brock, publisher of the Enterprise, Aberdeen, Md. "I discovered that it was a quick and safe cure for diarrhoea. Since then no one can sell me anything said to be 'just as good.' During all these years I have used it and recommended it many times, and it has never disappointed anyone." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Ad.

How to Cure a Sprain

A sprain may be cured in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Ad.

"I think," said Mrs. Thompson, "that children ought to stay home with their mothers." And then, as well as the applause would let her, she went right on again.

ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

E. W. Grevish has shipped a small box of ripe figs to St. Paul. They were grown on the M. O. Nelson place.

C. A. Hill is working at Sandy on the new garage being built for M. A. Deaton and W. A. Proctor. Krebs & Miller have the contract. It is located on Main street just west of the Mt. Hood hotel.

About a dozen suggestions have been received for a name to be given the road from Gresham to Fairview. It is intended to apply to the extension of the road to the Columbia river. There will be no hurry in making a selection and further suggestions are requested.

R. R. Carlson has been given the contract for window shades on the new high school building, the former bidder having failed to furnish them according to his contract.

Miss Hazel Carton, instructor of the domestic science division of the Union High school, came down from Corvallis yesterday and is staying at Mayor Stapleton's for a few days while making plans for her work.

Luther Tingley, of Fort Stevens, and Miss Cora Lehman, of Boring, were granted a marriage license at Vancouver on Saturday.

Mrs. H. W. Cooley and son Harry have returned from a 7-weeks' visit to Condon. A cousin of Harry Cooley, Roy Carning, came with them for a visit of a few weeks here.

At a meeting of the board of school directors, held last night, it was decided to open the Gresham grade schools on Monday, September 6.

County Commissioner Philo Holbrook had his right arm broken on Saturday afternoon while cranking his auto. He was away on a fishing trip at the time.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Orr are expected home today or tomorrow from their auto trip north. They went as far as Bellingham, Washington and camped out nights while on their trip.

The many friends of Miss Aurilla Hoagland were given a complete surprise this morning, when the announcement of her license to wed was published in a Portland paper. The lucky man is Wm. P. Shuyler of Sterling, Kansas. The wedding will take place tomorrow evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lingle near Damascus, Rev. Melville T. Wire officiating.

Jas. Burgess of Lakeview, Oregon, who has been the guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Rev. and Mrs. Melville T. Wire for the past six weeks, returned to his home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Metzger have arrived from San Francisco and vicinity, where they have been for the past month seeing the sights and visiting with relatives. They report a most delightful trip. They spent the most of their visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Toepelman, who are living on their farm at Ileton. Mr. Toepelman manages several fruit and truck farms besides his own.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Kenney have returned from their Seaside cottage, where they have spent the past few weeks.

Mrs. W. J. Wirtz and daughter, Carlyn of Portland, spent Saturday at their Gresham home.

Frank Jones has completed his work for W. F. Honey near Cherryville, and returned home last week. Mr. Jones made extensive repairs and improvements on Mr. Honey's house and farm buildings.

E. S. McCormick, principal-elect of the Gresham grammar school, moved with his family to Gresham Saturday. They will occupy the J. E. Stubbs property on north Main street. Mr. McCormick's daughter, Miss Edith Vaughn, is on the teaching force of the high school. Another daughter, Helen and a son, Glenn, will attend high school. There are two other boys in the family, one of whom will be in the grammar school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Myers, accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Leslie and Mrs. A. Hevel, took an auto ride Sunday to Mr. Myers' wood camp on Cedar creek, where they took dinner. On their return trip by way of Bull Run, they passed an automobile completely wrecked at the foot of the grade near Dick Maupin's house. The accident had apparently occurred but a short time before, but no persons were there and no name could be learned.

Art. Leland made a trip to Aurora a few days ago with a party of hop pickers. Those going were Mr. and Mrs. George Hamlin, Louise and Albert, Elmer Townsend and Quinn Metzger.

Geo. Leslie, Jr., and wife of Portland, called on the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leslie on Sunday. They have just returned from their honeymoon, which took them to the San Francisco and San Diego fairs and into Mexico. While in Mexico they witnessed the national sport of bull fighting.

Mrs. Inez Miller and son Ralph started Saturday for Wilbur, Oregon to resume school work. Mrs. Miller is principal of the school, which consists of grammar grades and two-year high school. Ralph is in the high school.

Mrs. S. P. Bittner has returned home much improved in health. She has been for several months in a Portland sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fraebery, of Gaston, were here Sunday viewing the city and surroundings with a view to purchasing property.

John Honey left last week for Palo Alto, California to attend Leland Stanford university. He is entering upon his second year of college work.

S. W. Morrison, of Pleasant Home, shipped 30 carloads of wood to Portland over the Mt. Hood road during August.

Ettzel Jones spent Sunday at Welches with Mrs. Jones, who has been camping there for the past two weeks.

J. E. Stubbs and family have moved into the Cummins home, which they will occupy with his mother, Mrs. M. A. Stubbs, and grandfather, Ed. Cummins.

Multnomah Camp, Woodmen of the World, in Portland, will have an important meeting next Friday night which all members are urged to attend. A number of the members living in Gresham are making plans to be there. It is expected that several auto loads will go from eastern Multnomah.

Suppose the government does issue a 11-cent stamp. It would still be as far from our reach as a $11-bill.

Eyes tested and glasses fitted. Dr. Geo. Inglis.—Adv.
