

ANNOUNCEMENT

Rudyard Kipling says: "Any man who has anything to do with the service will tell you that the battalion is better for music at every turn, happier, more easily handled, with greater zest in its daily routine, if that routine is sweetened with melody and rhythm—melody for the mind and rhythm for the body." If music is so valuable in strenuous life such as this, can you neglect it in the whole of your life, in the life of your child?

ALBERT BUCHANAN, Teacher of the Violin, announces the opening of his violin school Saturday, September 18, 1915.

"Mr. Albert Buchanan is well qualified as a teacher by having a thorough technical training—as a violinist his playing shows thorough musicianship."

"OUR FAIR," GREAT SUCCESS.

The Multnomah county fair is a grand success. It is an institution that came eight years ago to stay, one of which the people are mighty proud, and why shouldn't they be?

You see Gresham is a busy, wealthy little city of which everyone is justly proud, and why should it be otherwise?

If you will just reduce to figures, most gracious reader, citizen or stranger—your comparison of Gresham with any other city of its size on the globe, you must at once admit that no other one of like population does, or ever would be likely to inaugurate an enterprise like this one in magnitude and success of management. Ergo, Gresham—and the granges must not be forgotten—must contain the nerve and bone to do this.

Speaking of the granges, the members of that order are the only ones to whom Gresham pays deference. The grange of Gresham started the fair, the members throughout the county have been loyal to it and they are the ones who have taken the greatest risk and devoted their time and money without stint to insure the entire success of the enterprise.

Outlook readers will kindly overlook the peculiar appearance of their favorite paper today as it was necessary to combine the fair daily with the regular issue. Friday's program at the fair is left out of this edition as unnecessary and possibly some of the correspondence will have to go over until Tuesday.

More big crowds today. Fine weather. Everybody happy. Classy races. All the other fine things you can think of.

CORBETT

The 1915-16 term of Corbett school opened Monday with the same teachers in charge that were employed last year and we know they are excellent instructors and there is no reason why the coming term should not be a beneficial one to every student. It should be remembered that the teacher cannot do all, the assistance of the parents and scholars being necessary to the best there is to be gained.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Deverill are the happy parents of a baby girl. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fox were here Friday and Saturday visiting at the W. H. Reed home. Fred C. Reed spent Sunday in Portland.

Fishing season for fall fishing opened Friday, September 10 and the fish are very numerous in the Columbia, but the present price is so low that fishing is not a very profitable business.

Lewis Benfield, of Portland, spent Sunday here with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Judd, of Death Valley, Nevada, visited their cousin Mrs. Lewis Reed last week. Miss Ethel Smith began her school in Columbia county Monday, September 6th.

FINAL NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, as administrator of the estate of Olof Brandberg, deceased, has filed his final account in the county court of the State of Oregon, for the county of Multnomah, and that Monday, the 25th day of October, 1915, at the hour of 9:30 o'clock in the forenoon of said day and the courtroom of the said court in the city of Portland, has been appointed by said court as the time and place for the hearing of objections thereto and the settlement thereof, and the discharge of your petitioner as such administrator.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This is a medicine that every family should be provided with. Colic and diarrhoea often come on suddenly and it is of the greatest importance that they be treated promptly. Consider the suffering that must be endured until a physician arrives or medicine can be obtained. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a reputation second to none for the quick relief which it affords. For sale at Gresham Drug Store.—Adv.

ALL THE DOINGS OF YOUR HOME TOWN

Roy Wonnacott, son of Judge Wonnacott, and William Glover, a son-in-law, with his wife, of Los Angeles, are all visitors here. Roy will remain about a month while the others will return home in about ten days.

Members of the grange should not forget that Pomona will meet with Lenta grange next Wednesday.

J. H. Frakes has rented Mrs. Rose Metzger's house formerly occupied by Mrs. Edna Metzger, near the O. W. P. depot, and moved his family here on Tuesday last.

Mrs. Maggie Jacksha, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Schantia, died last night at The Dalles. She leaves her husband and two children.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fair from Lawrence, Kansas, are visiting E. S. McCormick and family. They are traveling by the Ford method and will go as far south as San Diego, then home by the southern route. They will visit the Gresham fair, the San Francisco exposition and the San Diego display.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bulkeley and daughter, Miss Laura Bulkeley, were Gresham visitors yesterday.

There will be preaching at the Free Methodist church next Sunday, both morning and evening. Rev. S. F. Pitts will occupy the pulpit in the morning and possibly in the evening. Sunday school meets at 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lyman, son Keith and daughter Marjorie returned Wednesday evening from the hopyards at Simons' Landing, where they spent a pleasant two-weeks' outing.

The condition of E. R. Wright continues to improve slowly. Mr. Wright is at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, where he has been under treatment for several weeks.

Dr. Geo. F. Hopkins, of Portland, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in Gresham, visited the fair on Wednesday and renewed old acquaintances.

W. H. Maxwell, of Portland, formerly of the Pleasant Home district, was an interested visitor at the fair for two or three days this week.

The Baptist Ladies' Guild will hold a bake sale tomorrow afternoon, September 18, at Walrad Mercantile company's store.

Levi W. Myers of Portland, well known newspaper man, now retired, was a visitor at the fair Wednesday and a caller at the Outlook office. He is 85 years old. He started his first newspaper in Illinois sixty-two years ago. He also helped to start the first county fair in Mercer county, Illinois, which has had a continuous existence till the present. The fair is being held this week.

The police force on the fair grounds has been increased by the addition of Alex. Gullickson, Alfred Hammar, Arthur Johnson and D. C. Ross.

W. E. Wood returned yesterday from a business trip to Clackamas county. He was selling life insurance and reports a successful trip. He is district manager for the West Coast Life Insurance company, the largest company located on the coast.

Mrs. J. Palmquist, her daughter, Missie and son Ray have returned from St. Louis, where they picked hops for two weeks.

The condition of Mrs. Gust Larson, who has been confined to her bed for some time, is reported to be much improved.

Mrs. R. L. Robertson of Camas, Washington, visited her brother, J. P. Freeman this week and took in the county fair.

At the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday, Rev. Melville T. Wire will preach both morning and evening. This is the last Sunday of the conference year and serious appropriation to the occasion will be preached. Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock and Epworth League at 7:15. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Orland Zeek, of Lebanon, is enjoying the fair and visiting with relatives and friends.

Tomorrow is children's day at the fair. No school, all day for enjoyment, and it is expected that every boy and girl will be there. Special rates of admission.

Rev. Mr. Tibbitts will preach morning and evening at Bethel Baptist church at Gresham and at 2:30 p. m., at Pleasant Valley, next Sunday.
