LAND PRODUCTS TO SURPASS FAIR OF 1915

PORTLAND, Oct. 11.—Special.—Oregon's display of soil products at the Manufacturers' & Land Products show to open here October 25, will be greater than at the Lewis & Clarke fair of 1905.

Already more than twenty counties of the state have space at the exposition and by the time the exhibition throws open its doors, it is expected, twenty-five out of the thirty-five Oregon counties, will have attractive displays.

Counties to make displays, booths for which had been reserved to October 4, were Morrow, Polk, Hood River, Malheur, Marion, Umatilla, Klamath, Wasco, Crook, Clackamas, Baker, Columbia, Multnomah, Union, Linn, Wallowa, Jackson, Washington, Lincoln and Wheeler.

The various Oregon counties to exhibit at Portland, several being prize winners at the recent state fair, are going after the gold medal and prize of $200 for the best county display. The second best exhibit in this class will receive a silver medal and $100 in cash. The best exhibits from each county will receive cash from $50 to $100.

Individual farm exhibits will receive first and second prizes of $50 and $25 in cash, or the choice of water tanks or grain bins. This year the most artistic apple display receives a gold medal and $100 in cash. Apples will be judged in ten and five box lots with prizes of $5 and $3 per box. Pears will be judged in half boxes with a first prize of $5 and a second prize of $3. Onions will receive first and second prizes of $10 and $5 and potatoes will be judged in thirty pound lots with first prizes of $5 and second prizes of $3.

Assorted grains will receive awards as will Northwestern grown nuts, evaporated apples and vegetables. The largest squash will receive $5 in cash.

BIRTHDAY TRIBUTES ARE APPRECIATED

TROUTDALE, Oct. 11.—Editor Outlook:—If you will kindly allow me a little space in your valuable paper which has a large circulation in eastern Multnomah and Clackamas counties, I would like to thank my many dear old friends and acquaintances who have so kindly remembered me by sending me so many postal cards with nice mottoes and congratulations on September 30, the day I was 75 years old. I assure you it was a complete surprise to me how so many of you knew just how old I was. I think some of you that did know must have kept your phones busy. If you did that was all right. It surely was a treat to me. I have known some of you for over 60 years, others for 50, and the great majority of you from 10 to 25 years. God bless you all, my dear friends, with a long life of usefulness and happiness, and then He will gather us all home to the haven of rest.

Your old friend,
JAMES HARVEY WILSON.

A Personal Application.

A well known business man in Lawrence, Mass., once had a customer who contracted a debt that ran unpaid for a year or more, and even several letters failed to bring about a settlement.

One day, while glancing over the religious notices in a local paper, the business man saw something that gave him a new idea. He went to his desk and wrote the following note to the debtor:

My Dear Sir—I see in the local press that you are to deliver an address on Friday evening before the Y. M. C. A. on "The Sinner's Balanced Account." I inclose yours, as yet unbalanced, and trust that I may have the pleasure of attending your lecture.

A check came by the next mail.—Youth's Companion.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH—Sunday School 10 a. m. Mrs. E. A. Leonard, Supt. Preaching 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m. Rev. A. J. Ware, pastor.

Farmer Makes $1500

He put it into Bank. Just eight days after he had banked it, a burglar broke into his house. The burglar ransacked the place where he had been hiding his $1,500. The burglar was just eight days too late. Brother Farmer, when the burglar—the tramp—the thief comes—where will your money be? If it is "hidden" the burglar may find it. If it is in the Bank of Gresham he will NOT find it. Why not put your money into our Bank now? Better be safe than sorry.

And don't forget you can Bank with us by Mail. May we tell you how to do it?

New Ways of Saying It.

"Strain at a gnat and swallow a camel" came from the lips of an old friend as "Gag at a straw and swallow a whole load of hay." Of a certain girl she said, "She smiles like a frog at the girls and grins like a rag carpet at the boys." I have never seen a rag carpet since but it resolves itself into rows of grinning teeth, and as for the drooping smile of the frog, it certainly speaks for itself, as it were.—Woman's Home Companion.

Some of the rulers in Europe still take themselves seriously.

A Dutchman, returning from a hunting expedition, was met by a friend, who, noting the flatness of his game-bag, said tauntingly:

"Well, I see you've been hunting." The luckless hunter nodded. "Did you shoot anything?" persisted the friend. "Well," was the reply, "I shot my dawg." "Shot your dog?" asked the friend in amazement. "Was he mad?" "Well, he wasn't so tam pleased," retorted the Dutchman.
