We have on display at the Outlook office two immense beets grown by Thos. Willes on his farm near Gresham. The larger of the two measures 20 inches around and weighs 10 pounds. Mr. Willes believes them to be the biggest dead beets in the country.

Glenn and Ivor Davidson returned today from a hunting trip to Independence. They were hunting Chinese pheasants and report good success.

Mrs. Louisa Odell and Mrs. Margaret Vanatta and son Harold, who have been visiting with the Rusher family for the past three weeks, left today for their home in Lerna, Illinois by way of Colorado, where they will visit for a few weeks.

Mrs. M. E. Stocker expects to leave tonight for California to visit her son, who is an invalid, and who has been there for his health for about a year. Recent reports from him are not favorable.

ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

The regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held at the library on Thursday afternoon, October 14, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. All women interested are invited to attend.

Miss Bessie Osborne, who is teaching school at Carlton, Oregon, spent the week-end at home with her mother, Mrs. L. S. Osborne.

The Women's Home Missionary meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. L. Kidder tomorrow afternoon, October 13. Mrs. Kidder will be assisted by Mrs. H. M. Miller and Miss Mina Gilbert. The afternoon will be given to work but a short program will be rendered under the direction of Mrs. Jas. Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Dunbar of Fairview will celebrate their golden wedding on October 19. Their neighbors are arranging to give proper recognition of the event, and show the respect in which this worthy pioneer couple are held, by a public reception in their honor at the city hall on the evening of that day. All of Fairview and neighboring communities and many from a distance will unite to do them honor.

Finding out the effectiveness of the low pound trip fare at Gresham to Portland, the P. R. L. & P. Co. has made a reduced round trip fare from Vancouver to Portland.

Fewer blasts are heard now, since the grading on the Sandy road from Portland to Troutdale is largely completed. Some cuts of considerable size have been made. The level stretches of road are inviting. Roads such as the Powell Valley, the Base Line, and the Sandy spell Advantage for Gresham. They mean that she is nearer a part of the great city of Portland; that her market is but a few minutes away; that she will have more homes; that she will have more business.

A baby boy, weighing nine pounds, was born October 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shaw. The mother and baby are reported as doing fine. Mrs. Shaw is an inmate of Dr. Dorothy B. Waltman's hospital in the Congdon Hotel building.

A new shingle roof crowns the Sell building and another is being laid on the residence of Mrs. H. Gullickson, adjoining.

J. D. Hunt, traffic manager of the P. R. L. & P. Co. was a Gresham visitor today.

The new bridge across the second gulch on South Roberts avenue will be of solid concrete, 150 feet long and 24 feet wide. The street grading, and filling of the first gulch is going on rapidly and it is believed that there will be enough dirt for the fill without hauling any from other places. Dump carts are being used now instead of wagons, the county having sent out four new carts yesterday.

A surprise party of charm was extended by patients, and former patients, to Dr. Dorothy B. Waltman on her birthday, October 10. Among the many present she received were several pieces of fine China, and a beautiful large bouquet of roses.

The controversy between R. L. Sabin trustee, and G. W. Kenney, mortgagee of the defunct Puffer Mercantile Co., was up in the federal court yesterday, and was postponed until after the outcome of the case now pending in the state circuit court.

Albert Buchanan was in Fairview Saturday enlarging his violin class. He will give lessons Wednesdays at that place.

Miss Elsie Metzger, a graduate of the Gresham high school and a former teacher at Melrose, was elected an instructor in the Gresham grade school on Saturday evening. She will have classes in the third and fourth grades. Miss Metzger was taking a post-graduate course at the union high school when elected as an instructor in the grades.

Harold Jones, from Montesano, Washington, has rented the Alfred Honey place south of Gresham and will soon take up his residence on the place. He has been here during the past few days harvesting the crop and getting ready for next year's work. Mr. Jones is a young man of energy and ability and will be welcomed to the community.

George Gordon, of Portland, formerly of Gresham, attended the Free Methodist quarterly meeting here on Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Dysart, of Merced, California, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Rugg.

W. K. Hamilton has returned from Dallas, where he installed a large silo for a Portland man. He is now putting up one for F. H. Crane of Fairview.

Mrs. Roy Shoemaker, of Portland, was in Gresham Sunday, visiting with friends and relatives.

Miss Elizabeth Shoemaker, who is now residing in Portland, was in town Saturday and Sunday, visiting at the home of her mother.

Crops about Fairview seem to have suffered none from the long drouth. Late corn is standing green in the field, and the third crop of clover smilingly invites the mower.

A reference in the Hillsdale correspondence on Friday last to the services in the Swedish church at that place, conveyed the idea that Rev. J. J. Johnson could not preach there because of some disability. Such is not the case, however, as he will alternate with Rev. Alm of Portland, the two holding services every Sunday. Mr. Alm will preach at 3:30 next Sunday afternoon.

The missionary meeting of the Free Methodist church will be held Wednesday afternoon, October 13, at the home of Mrs. Gust Larson.

Hiram Hill and family, from Smith Center, Kansas, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McClung of Boring and Mrs. Ella Aton of Gresham, surprised C. A. Hill, the first-named's brother, at Sandy on Sunday last. The brothers had not seen each other for several years and the reunion was a pleasing event to both.

G. A. Noreen, who last spring bought half of the August Vidien place, south of Gresham, came last Saturday from Marysville, California, bringing a carload of horses and farm tools with him from his former home. He will make a specialty of stock and chickens.

Mrs. J. M. Shoemaker and daughter, May, were in Portland Monday visiting and on business.

C. E. Rusher and family and their guests and J. N. Faris and family joined other old neighbors of Lerna, Illinois in a reunion in Portland last Saturday. Others present were Rev. L. K. Grimes and family, R. H. Williams and family, Mrs. Hartshorn and twin daughters all of Portland and William Horton and family of Milwaukee. The company numbered thirty.

D. B. Welty and family started yesterday for Sawyer, North Dakota, where they will make their home.

J. E. Schneider and family are moving into E. C. Lindsey's cottage on Roberts avenue. They have been living in Dan Murphy's house, which has been vacated for 4½ owners, who will come from Flavel in a few days to occupy it.

Mrs. Gust Larson, who has been ill at her home near Gresham for several months, is reported to be much improved.

Miss Grace Walbeck of Ponca, Nebraska, arrived a day or two ago on a visit with her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Myers. Miss Walbeck expects to spend the winter here.

The birthdays of Mrs. E. Davidson and Miss Hannah Lane fell on last Saturday. On Friday evening a number of girls, including Miss Hannah, spent the evening at the home of Mrs. Davidson enjoying a marshmallow roast.

Buenos Aires is to have a new bank, backed by Argentine financiers.

The first English field marshal was created as long ago as 1736.

Paganini and the Violin.

Paganini has been known, since his birth in 1784, as the violin wizard incomparable. At the coming of Paganini the violin became a revolutionized thing. Its possibilities were so limited before the changes demanded by Paganini that, when he appeared, with his peculiar features,—the long bony fingers, the tall, lean body, the pale, sickly face, the piercing black eyes, the wild, flowing hair,—and extraordinary technique, that superstitious people thought him to be the devil. They could not comprehend that man could play such difficult things.

But Paganini's playing did not alone amaze; it spoke to the inmost depths of the soul.

He a follower of Paganini's art.

ALBERT BUCHANAN,
Teacher of Violin.

How Catarrh is Contracted. Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucus membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden. Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable at Gresham Drug Store.—Adv.

Eyes tested and glasses fitted. Dr. Geo. Inglis.—Adv.

Despondency. When you feel discouraged and despondent do not give up but take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you are almost certain to feel all right within a day or two. Despondency is very often due to indigestion and biliousness, for which these tablets are especially valuable. Obtainable at Gresham Drug Store.—Adv.
