CORBETT

Union High School.

The following were visitors at the Friday afternoon program: Principal Tollefson's mother, Mrs. A. R. Tollefson, Mrs. Leland, Mrs. Lewis Reed, Miss Christine Tollefson and Mrs. Clara Smith.

Quite a pleasing addition to the program was an instrumental solo by Miss Christine Tollefson.

Miss Anna Gebhardt, who attended union high school last year, is now in Portland going to Washington high school.

A party of loyal Oregonians led by the junior class of the high school piloted a jolly party up to Crown Point Sunday, despite the wind and rain. Those in the party were, Alma Thompson, Esther Kincaid, Gladys Barr, Vancil Evans, Will Rickert and Fred Smith.

Fred Woodward accompanied his family to Klamath Falls on Sunday. They motored up in their new Ford.

The Misses Mary and Emma Spybrook and Gertie Meter, Frank Spy-brock, Ed. Nelson and Tom Northway composed a theater party in Portland last week.

Mrs. Albert Fox spent the week-end with her parents here.

Mrs. Perkins, a well known woman of this vicinity, died Sunday, October 24, of hemorrhage of the brain. She was preparing to go to see her daughter. Mr. Perkins was hitching up the horse and when he returned to the house she did not answer a question he asked her. He thought she had fainted and immediately summoned the doctor, but she was dead when the doctor arrived. She leaves a husband and three daughters, Mrs. Ward Evans of Corbett, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Hiatt of Portland to mourn her loss.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox of Latourell celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Friday, October 22d. A large number of people were present and everyone had a fine time. Their friends presented them with a beautiful silver tea set.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

Once again death has claimed one of the old pioneers in our home circle and the many friends of the Perkins family received a sad blow when the news spread that Mrs. Perkins had died very suddenly on last Sunday. Apparently Mrs. Perkins was in pretty good health and was preparing to go out for dinner when she suddenly was stricken with hemorrhage of the brain, which claimed her a few hours later. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins have lived for many years at Hurlburt and were well and favorably known and quite well to do. The funeral took place Tuesday from the home. Rev. W. H. Reeder, of Corbett, conducted the ceremony, and the body was laid to rest at Mountain View cemetery. All of the family were present. Mr. Perkins and four daughters are left to mourn the absence of a faithful wife and loving mother. The daughters are, Mrs. Emma Jackson, and Mrs. Olive Hyatt of Portland, Mrs. Minnie Jacobson of Petersen, Washington, and Mrs. Rae Evans of this place.

Mr. Perkins and family have the heartfelt sympathy of friends and neighbors, and while we realize that there is an empty place at home which never can be filled, may the sorrowing ones find consolation in the one great promise, that some day they shall meet never more to part. The floral pieces were most beautiful and at the conclusion of the services, were laid with tender and loving hands on the grave which was completely hidden.
