3 Big Specials for Next Week 3

Commencing Monday, Nov. 1, and including Saturday Nov. 6

OUTING FLANNEL SPECIAL

2500 yards Outing Flannel, regular 10c per yard, at the remarkably low price of 7 1/2c per yd.

We find our Outing Flannel is not moving as we would like it too, and for this reason are placing it at your service at cost and even less. If you appreciate what we are offering you there should not be a yard left on our shelves at the close of the week. These were bought when the cotton market was the lowest it has been in years. There has been three advances since we bought them, yet we offer them at less than original cost.

Boys' Suits Special

We have about 75 Boys' Suits that must go; you have boys to wear them. You can have them for less than they cost us in New York City, freight not considered.

TO CLOSE THEM OUT WE WILL SELL ALL BOYS'

$5.00 Suits, most of these have 2 pair pants @	$3.69
$3.95 Suits, single pair pants	$2.73
$3.45 Suits, single pair pants	$2.48
$3.00 Suits, single pair pants	$1.99
$2.50 Suits, single pair pants	$1.63

15 pieces Oil Cloth, seconds, slightly damaged, brown and yellow patterns, only 13c per yd.

Thrifty people in and about Gresham are watching these specials from week to week. Those who know us, know we do as we advertise. We advertise the truth, truth advertises us.

ALL THE DOINGS OF YOUR HOME TOWN

A pie social was given at the Powell Valley school last Wednesday night under the auspices of the school board, the proceeds of which were about $19. The money will go toward the purchase of play apparatus for the school children.

About thirty were present yesterday at the meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at the home of Mrs. B. W. Emery. A splendid program was rendered and a pleasant social time enjoyed.

Dr. J. H. Talbot, president of Kimball School of Theology at Salem, called yesterday on a number of Gresham people in the interest of his institution.

Mrs. Clara Wolff, who has been in Portland for some time, is now at the home of Mrs. John Metzger. Mrs. Metzger, Mrs. Wolff, Mrs. R. W. Gibbs and their uncle, L. A. McIntyre, took a trip to Bull Run yesterday. They were delighted with the beautiful scenery.

There will be preaching both morning and evening at the Free Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. Wm. R. Plumlee. Sunday school meets at 10 o'clock. Prayer meeting night has been changed from Tuesday to Thursday evening at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair and family had as guests on Tuesday the former's cousin, W. E. Coates and wife to Chicago. Mr. Coates is head of the well known appraising firm of Coates, Burchard & Co.

F. J. Erz, living near Pleasant Home is advertising elsewhere in this paper, an auction sale of stock and household goods, to be held at his place on November 11. Mr. Erz intends selling everything preparatory to moving to southern Oregon, where he will resume mercantile business.

Sam Bliss was laid up for a few days this week on account of bad bruises received Monday when he was struck in the head by a horse, which he was shoeing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Walker, of Medical Lake, Washington, were callers on Miss Rose Dair on Wednesday. Miss Dair will spend Sunday in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Walker.

A game of football is scheduled for next Friday between the teams of the Gresham and Estacada high schools, on the latter's grounds. The Estacada team defeated Milwaukie on Saturday last by a score of 152 to nothing, so it will behoove the Gresham team to send only its best players.

Mrs. P. A. Gould is spending the week at McMinnville at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Violet Thornton.

When You Take Cold.
With the average man a cold is a serious matter and should not be trifled with, as some of the most dangerous diseases start with a common cold. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of your cold as quickly as possible. You are not experimenting when you use this remedy, as it has been in use for many years and has an established reputation. It contains no opium or other narcotic. Obtainable at Gresham Drug Store.—Adv.

Albin Floss, well known in eastern Multnomah, accidentally killed himself at Ardenwald on Wednesday while boating. He was about 60 years of age and leaves a wife and four grown children. His death makes the ninth tragedy connected with Ardenwald.

There will be a regular meeting of the fair board next Monday afternoon, the last to be held before the annual stockholders' meeting on the first Monday in December. At next Monday's meeting the annual reports of the association will be heard and all accounts settled.

Miss Cooper, secretary of Northwest district of Home Missionary society, will speak at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. J. C. Tibbitts, will preach at the evening service at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Elford and children, of Portland, and Mrs. Elford's mother, of South Dakota, spent last evening with Miss Esther and Paul Elford.

Bill Congdon owned a billboard; he also owed a board bill. The board bill bored Bill, so Bill sold his billboard to pay his board bill, and after he had sold his billboard and paid his board bill the board bill no longer bored Bill.

A meeting of the Tuesday Study club has been called for next week Monday night, November 1, at the library. Election of officers will take place and choice of study course for the winter will be made. All members of the club and others wishing to join are invited to be present.

Arthur Fieldhouse and family returned last Sunday from Livingston, Wisconsin, where they went more than two months ago. Mr. Fieldhouse was benefitted by the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Calkins were guests at dinner Sunday at the home of H. L. St. Clair, in honor of the birthday of Mr. St. Clair, which was on Sunday and that of Mr. Calkins, which was on Tuesday.

The Baptist Missionary circle will meet with Mrs. Ray Todd Tuesday, November 2, instead of Thursday. Miss Ruby Weyburn will address the ladies on foreign missionary work.

Despondency.

When you feel discouraged and despondent do not give up but take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you are almost certain to feel all right within a day or two. Indigestion is very often due to indigestion and biliousness, for which these tablets are especially valuable. Obtainable at Gresham Drug Store.—Adv.

Word has been received of the death of Miss Martha LaDue on October 23, of tuberculosis at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. LaDue, at Greenville, Illinois, aged 26 years. The LaDue family is well known to the old settlers here. Mrs. LaDue being the daughter of W. G. Cathey.

V. H. Read and son Ross, of Portland, spent several days this week on their farm on Gresham Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood Butler entertained at dinner Tuesday night at the Congdon hotel, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Ott, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Ott and Dr. H. H. Hughes.

Mrs. Waltman is fitting up rooms in the First State Bank building and will move her hospital there as soon as they can be made ready.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lang, formerly of the Base Line road, have moved into the Wirtz house on Third street and Hood avenue.

FAIRVIEW

The Women's society of the Presbyterian church, at a meeting held at the church Thursday, decided to furnish dinner for the ministers' conference of the Portland Presbytery, which will be held here next Wednesday. They also fixed Friday, December 3 as the date of their annual bazaar.

A special treat will be given the people of Fairview on November 13, when Mrs. J. M. Donough will give an interpretative reading of "The Sunken Bell," by Baupmann, translated by Meltzer. Fuller announcements will be given next week.
