

GRESHAM DAY NEXT FRIDAY AT LAND SHOW

Gresham Day at the Land Products has been scheduled for next Friday, November 12th, the day before the final closing date for this year's show.

Those who have not seen the show are thus given an opportunity of being there with the home crowd on that date, and those who have seen it will enjoy themselves more than ever if they go again.

The matter of having a Gresham Day was introduced before the city council on Tuesday evening, as being the only organization in town which could give it official sanction and encouragement.

While not pertaining to municipal affairs, the suggestion was taken up after the meeting had adjourned by members of the council and the city officers, together with a number of others, organized a club for furthering the proposition which was enthusiastically endorsed.

Mayor Stapleton took the lead upon a motion appointed a Gresham Day committee to complete arrangements, consisting of Geo. H. Cameron, H. E. Davis and C. Zimmerman. Mr. Cameron was named as treasurer.

It was decided that a feature of the day should be an automobile parade on Friday, Nov. 12. C. M. Zimmerman has charge of the parade arrangements and has promised more than 50 autos. Those who have not been seen in regard to furnishing an auto are requested to refer to him. Eleven machines were lined up at once by the following persons: C. M. Zimmerman, G. W. Stapleton, George F. Honey, Benj. Cameron, D. M. Roberts, Ed. Metzger, John Metzger, W. F. Honey, S. Thompson, Alfred Hammar, Ray...

The matter of financial aid to the parade, ribbons, badges and pennants was canvassed and it was estimated that about $50 would be needed. A sum of $14 was contributed at once by as many persons, and the committee will solicit more to be added to the fund. The Outlook and others will contribute toward the affair in other ways than cash subscriptions.

Further announcements of the progress of the committees will be made in Tuesday's issue of this paper. The object in selecting Friday for Gresham Day was to give the people an opportunity to take advantage of the low round trip fares on both railroads. Full trips both ways on Fridays may be made for the small sum of 25 cents.

A meeting of business men and all auto owners has been called for Saturday night, at 8 o'clock at the city hall to perfect arrangements for the parade. The matter of pennants and decorations for the cars will be decided on. This is very important and a large attendance is wanted.

ALL OREGON BANKS ARE NOW NUMBERED

A recent banking law has designated all banks in Oregon by number. Hereafter all new checks given out to depositors will bear a bank number and a state number. In depositing checks of any state bank the depositor will use the numbers and thereon on the deposit slips instead of writing the name of the bank the checks are drawn on.

Old Settler Has Birthday.

Nelson F. Ross, of Fairview, celebrated his 85th birthday on Thursday. Mr. Ross is a native of Vermont. He married Miss Samantha Trax in Lexington, Michigan, in 1850. They came to Oregon in 1876 and have lived in Multnomah county ever since.

ACTUAL FACTS GIVEN, ALL SUITS WITHDRAWN

The lawsuits filed by Johanson, Mullenhoff, Eckstrom and others against the Bank of Gresham, John Sleret, Dr. J. M. Short and O. A. Eastman, arising out of the sale of stock in the defunct Co-operative Supply Co. in 1912, have been withdrawn as an amicable settlement has been accomplished between the contestants. Each side has agreed to pay its own court costs and attorney fees, and the defendants pay an amount equal to about 40 per cent of the amount sued for and in this settlement more than one-half consists of notes of a doubtful nature.

We are informed that the Bank of Gresham's share in this settlement will amount to about fifteen hundred dollars, which will be met by the individual stockholders, no part of which will be charged to the bank's surplus or earnings.

Mr. K. A. Miller and his father, who bought into the bank last year, will be called upon to pay over one-half of the loss.

This is the end of a bad mess that a great number of our fellow citizens and nearby farmer friends became entangled in and it has left them wiser but poorer men and we trust that the lesson has been well learned, although costly, and that we will not be so eager to get rich quick and take up with every gold brick stock selling proposition that comes along.

Stick to the home merchants and don't begrudge them a few cents profit on what they have to sell.

Live, and let live, still holds true and always will.

These are the actual facts as obtained from the officers of the bank and any other statements appearing in the daily papers are not to be relied upon.

PIG CLUB MEMBERS ASK BREEDERS' AID

Oregon swine breeders can help solve the problem of good breeding stock for girls and boys of the pig clubs by sending to the club leader at O. A. C., Corvallis, a list of brood sows and gilts that they have for sale. This should also help the breeders find a market for their surplus breeding stuff. When these lists are received by the agent he will send them to club members making inquiries. Lists should be detailed enough to give intending purchasers an idea of the quality and other necessary points. Either pure breeds or high grades may be listed for sale. Address lists to L. J. Allen, Pig Club Leader, O. A. C., Corvallis, Oregon.

DIST. ATTORNEY EVANS DISCUSSES DRY LAW

An interesting meeting was held at the library last night under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, when District Attorney Walter H. Evans discussed the prohibition bill which will go into effect on January 1. Mayor Geo. W. Stapleton presided at the meeting and introduced the speaker. Much appreciated musical numbers were rendered at the beginning of the meeting by Mrs. Karl Hagberg of Powell Valley and Albert Buchanan.

No, We're Not Selling Out, We're Here to Stay.

We sell Eller's pianos, Singer Sewing machines, latest millinery, latest styles and fashions in clothing for men and women for less money than you will pay for the same article in the city.

WHY? because our rent would not pay the light bill of a store in Portland.

ERRORS, GRAMMATICAL AND OTHERWISE

A correspondent at Fairview takes the trouble to write the Outlook the following letter calling attention to an error in the last issue. It is printed as written, without date line or signature:

I would like to call your attention to the grammatical error in the article relating to the fire of the old Fruit Cannery, which reads as printed in Outlook. The building was insured for $1000 in The Oregon Fire Relief Association, in favor of L. P. Manning who hold a mortgage for $300 on the property. The error I wish to call your attention to is this you should of used the word holds instead of hold. See last sentence of the fourth paragraph.

The error is admitted, but it was typographical. The last letter of the word "holds" was missed by the linotype and overlooked in the proof. Such mistakes sometimes happen.

It is suggested to the correspondent that hereafter he use quotation marks when making extracts; also that the right punctuation marks be employed. And further: the word "of" in "should of used" would have looked better and have been nearer right had it been "have." Several other errors in capitalization and syntax are overlooked out of charity to the feelings of this correspondent. We all make mistakes occasionally.

PLANS MADE FOR COMING ELECTION DAY

Local politics began to simmer at the meeting of the common council on Tuesday evening when a resolution was adopted fixing a date for the annual mass meeting. There are to be three councilmen elected this year, only, all the other city officials holding over.

The city recorder was instructed to give official notice of a meeting to be held at Metzger's hall on Monday night, November 15, for the purpose of making nominations. The three councilmen whose term of office expire are Joseph Pateneade, Ray H. Todd and George F. Honey.

A motion was carried to have but one polling place this election, that to be in the city hall. Election officers were appointed, as follows:

Judges—D. W. Metzger, Mrs. H. L. St. Clair, James Elkington.

Clerks—Roy Kern, Inez Lusted.

Election day will be December 7.

The council discussed the question of how great or small the tax levy should be next year. For this year's revenue the sum of $3400 was raised on a 6.5 levy but it was shown that probably a little more would be needed this year. The matter was referred to the finance committee to report at a special meeting of the council to be held next Monday night.

Property valuations inside the city limits upon which last year's assessments were made are as follows: Land values, $221,855; improvements, $137,360; public service companies, $132,860; personal property, $88,100. Total, $580,175.

Dr. A. Thompson appeared before the council and asked that the name of South Roberts avenue be changed to Gresham Boulevard. He was asked to get an expression from the residents of the avenue on the matter.

Benj. Cameron requested an extension of a 4-inch water main on South Roberts avenue to or across the second gulch where the new concrete bridge is being built, with a fire hydrant attached. His request was referred to the committee on fire and water.

City Treasurer Metzger reported the following amounts on hand: In general fund, $652.97; water fund, $381.74.

The following bills were ordered paid: Sterling & Kidder, $ 80. Crane Co., 10.00. Glauher Bros. Mfg. Co., 4.37. Fred Jennings, labor, 25.59. Harvey Roney, labor, 9.00. Harold Kern, labor, 10.69. Alvia Wheeler, labor, 7.87. Chas. Pratt, labor, 2.62. R. C. Jennings, labor, 11.85. J. McKinney, salary, 70.50. J. H. Metzger, salary, 12.00. D. M. Roberts, insurance, 51.00. P. R. L. & P. Co. lights, 50.00. Water Board, water, October, 94.10.

Methodist Church Notes.

Last Sunday was a stormy day, but the services at the Methodist church were well attended. Interest is increasing. Next Sunday the pastor's subjects will be "Man's Unfinished Task," and "A Light on Life's Pathway." At the morning service a quartet, consisting of C. E. Russer, Mrs. A. C. Brackenbury, Mrs. Myrtle Myers and Jack Jones, will sing, "Just As I Am." Remember the men's Bible class, which meets at 10 o'clock.

The Women's Home Missionary society will hold a social and annual thank offering service on Friday evening, November 19, at the home of Mrs. John Brown on Main street. Further announcements will be made later.

The next regular meeting of the Missionary society will be held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Ott, on Wednesday, November 16. The two topics to be studied are "Money and the Kingdom," and "The Social Force of Christian Missions." At the roll call the members will be expected to answer the question, "Where Our Money Goes." The first topic will be given in a paper by Mrs. Elmer F. Goodwin; the second will be given in responsive readings. There will also be several short stories, and a discussion of deaconess work as a social force. Mrs. J. N. Clananah is the leader. Mrs. Ott will be assisted in serving by Mrs. Wm. E. Beegle and Mrs. Dr. R. H. Todd. Each lady is asked to bring a clean flour sack, which will be dyed and used for comfort linings.

Extra! Heath & Milligan paint in 1 gallon cans, regular $2.25 value $1.75 at Sterling & Kidder Hdw. Co.

DAMMEIER'S JERSEYS WIN MANY PRIZES

G. H. Dammeyer returned home on Monday from San Francisco, where he had nine Jersey cattle on exhibition. He won nine ribbons but no first premiums. His best prize winner was a young bull that drew third in a class of 21, while his grand champion cow, that ranked first here, went down to fifth place in a class of the same number. His cow "Jell" drew fourth prize in competition against 15 others.

All of his animals stood up well and made good showings in the paddock, none of them being disqualified. Considering that there was competition from all over the country, Mr. Dammeyer thinks he did exceedingly well. His cash winnings amounted to $721 drawn from three premium funds. The Exposition company paid him $130; the A. J. C. Club of New York contributed $67 and out of the Oregon fund he won $524. He and his cattle returned in good spirits, the animals showing their appreciation of being again turned loose on the pastures of Johnson creek.

WOMEN HAUL WOOD FOR ENTERTAINMENT

Mrs. C. Taylor entertained on last Monday afternoon, Mrs. S. F. Pitts, Mrs. G. C. Irwin and Mrs. W. Ogden of Powell Valley and Miss Pearl Heater of Oregon City. There being no gentlemen around to spoil the fun, the chief amusement of the afternoon was that of hitching Mrs. Ogden's horse to a sled and moving a good sized pile of wood from the lot where it had been sawed to the woodshed. All hands pitched in and in a remarkably short time the task was accomplished and the ladies entertained themselves at the piano while the hostess, assisted by Miss Heater, prepared a light lunch after which they expressed themselves as having had a delightful time.

POWELL VALLEY

Last Saturday was John Palmblad's 75th birthday anniversary, and his wife arranged a surprise celebration, which was held on Sunday. All their children and grandchildren were present, besides a few neighbors. This was the first family reunion since Mr and Mrs. Palmblad moved into their new house. An abundance of flowers were used in the house decorations. A sumptuous dinner was served at 4 o'clock.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gustafson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustafson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Swan Magnuson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Palmblad and Paul Palmblad, Herbert Olson, Chas. Unis and daughters, Ellen and Ida, Miss Helma Staffenson, Mr. Johnson and Albert Palmblad.

The first five were also on the roll of honor last month.

Those on the honor roll in the primary room are, Edith Andrews, Esther Andrews, Josephine Sutton, Delbert Bates, Jesse Beers, Bert Parsons, Kathleen Jones, Janess Sutton and Fern Hutchins.

In order to be on the roll of honor, pupils must be neither absent nor tardy and must have above 95 in deportment. There were others who were neither absent nor tardy but whose deportment was such that they could not be placed on the honor list.

The school is progressing very well under the able management of John Roberts principal, and Miss Pearl McMullin primary teacher. If all the parents will support the school as most of them have done, they will have one of the best schools in the country.

SUNDAY LION WAS DEFIANT TO THE LAST

By L. H. WELLS.

PORTLAND, Nov. 3.—Special—Rev. G. L. Tufts, superintendent of the Weekly One-Day Rest League, bearded the lion in his den today—that is he called on State Senator Dan Kellaher and undertook to convince him (Kellaher) that he was on the wrong side in this rest day movement and urged him to step over and use his influence in behalf of the one-day rest movement. His arguments fell on deaf ears, or he failed utterly, for Senator Kellaher said he would fight to the bitter end any attempt to fix any one day by law as a day of rest "commonly called Sunday." The fact that Rev. Mr. Tufts denounced Mr. Kellaher as a criminal and law-breaker in his sermon last Sunday in the East Side Baptist church, made the meeting between Rev. Tufts and Mr. Kellaher of some interest, but nothing sensational happened at the interview. Rev. Tufts entered Mr. Kellaher's place of business from East Morrison street, but it was observed that he examined with some care the family liquor display before he went inside.

It will probably be six months or a year before the property of the Central Christian church, East Twentieth and East Salmon streets, is finally disposed of, according to the statement made yesterday by H. L. Ganoe, member of the official board. The first mortgage on the property amounting to $17,500 is held by the Church Society of Kansas City, and the second mortgage was held by Lewis Montgomery, but was assigned to F. H. Hilton and on which proceeding of foreclosure has been started. The Church Extension Society, said Mr. Ganoe, has not started foreclosure proceedings, but it is the desire of the board of trustees of the church that it foreclose and secure title to the church property, and the other claims can then be settled. Mr. Ganoe said that the Central church had not turned the property over to any of the creditors as yet, and that the congregation desired that the property shall settle all claims against it. "If the property could be sold for one half what it cost to build the church," said Mr. Ganoe, "all the claims could be paid off in full." The official board will hold meetings, but there will be no more meetings of the congregation, until the business of the church has been settled up. It may take six months or even a year to do this.

The property includes a quarter block and the stone church, the latter of which cost about $75,000.

The membership campaign of the Rose City Park club opened Monday night and will continue ten days. Squads of five are working in the district and the first night's work netted twenty new members. These squads start canvassing the territory at 6 and end at 10 p. m. when they report results at the clubhouse, Sandy boulevard and East Eighty-seventh street. There are five working squads of five members, who work in certain territory. The district to be covered in the ten days is between East Thirty-third and East Eighty-second street and between the Barr road and Fremont streets, the object being to see every resident in Rose City Park and ask him to join the club and enjoy its privileges and help build up the neighborhood. H. J. Blasing, president of the club said yesterday that the results secured are highly encouraging to the working squads. Mr. Blasing said that quite a number desire to join the club, but did not know what steps to take to do so, and that many have been calling him up by telephone asking for information. He declared that every resident is wanted in the club who is interested in its social and civic life of the community. The clubhouse is centrally located, and is provided with bowling alleys and billiard tables and is the center of all activities. It is hoped to secure at least 200 new members. Those who happened to be missed by the canvassers may apply at the clubhouse for membership.

Mrs. E. M. Spreng, general president of the Woman's Missionary society, Evangelical church, of Cleveland, Ohio, who is making an official trip on the Pacific coast, held three public meetings Sunday, and yesterday afternoon held a "round table"
