COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

Crown Point chalet was a merry place on Hallowe'en when thirty couple of Portland's young society folks, gave a dinner party. The path leading from the Highway up to the house was lighted with jack o' lanterns and here and there in the brush, glaring faces were peeping out, making one feel that spookes were having a glorious time. An elaborate dinner was served by Mrs. Henderson and the banquet table was a great temptation, very prettily decorated and loaded with dainty eatables. The party declared having enjoyed a splendid evening. Many fine gowns were worn by the young ladies.

The young folks of the Christian church gave a social on Saturday, with a short program. A good many came out to spend the evening. A lunch was served to all. On Monday evening the first of a series of entertainments will take place, the students have been busy during spare time selling season tickets and have done quite well. The proceeds, from these entertainments will help swell the piano fund, which will soon be large enough so as to be able to pay for the piano which the pupils bought on the installment plan.

Miss Alice Rasmussen left for a two months' sojourn in California. She will visit friends in San Diego and San Francisco and also visit the world's fair.

Mrs. Lottie Benfield has gone to Portland to be absent for a couple of months with her relatives.

Miss Grace Ferguson, the teacher at our Heights school, gave a party on Friday evening, and a program had been arranged by her pupils. A good many came out in spite of the storm and everybody reports a jolly good time. Refreshments were served after the program.

Several of the Heights people attended the funeral services of Albin Floss at the Sellwood crematorium on Monday. Mr. Floss and family lived here for many years, all of their four children having been born here. The Floss family has many friends here who were much grieved to hear of Mr. Floss' untimely death.

Mrs. Julian and little granddaughter left for Portland recently, after spending some time at Columbia View farm and the Benfield lungalow.

Columbia grange will meet next Saturday and we are looking for a good turnout. There will be a speaker from the Oregon Agricultural college who will lecture on potato diseases, but we should be much delighted if he could tell the ranchers how to get something for our potatoes. As it is now there seems to be no market for any of our products. Beef, pork and veal, are down to nothing. Cabbage you can not give away and we wonder what it will come to. But we are satisfied that we won't starve, anyhow, and we hope better times are coming.

Sylvester Evans has a car load of flour at Corbett which he is busy unloading.

Fred Shoultz was in the city on business on Monday.

W. Knight, our Highway merchant and a few of his friends, have just returned from a week's hunt in the mountains. A couple of fine bucks have been reported to their credit.

Card of Thanks.

We wish through the columns of the Outlook to thank the neighbors and friends for the sympathy and help tendered us at the time of the death and burial of our beloved wife and mother.

H. B. Perkins and daughters, Mrs. Emily Jackson, Mrs. Mary Jacobsen, Mrs. Olive Hyatt, Mrs. Ward Evans.

Her Son Subject to Croup.
"My son Edwin is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irwin, New Kensington, Pa. "I put in many sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

VENTURA PARK

On Wednesday night the Base Line Improvement club at this place gave a banquet, followed by a program and dancing, at the clubhouse. The most efficient supper committee, composed of Mesdames Sanford, Schultz, Axson and Ellsworth, deserves great praise for the excellent supper served. About seventy-five were present and a most delightful evening was spent. Recitations were given by the Misses Eva Schultz and Nancy Dickson, and Mrs. Haldane Dickson. Not the least of the entertainment was the dancing which continued to a late hour. These evening gatherings are much enjoyed and we plan to have a number during the winter, and no better committee than the one serving on Wednesday could be secured.

Gary Whitney of Salt Lake City is the guest of his cousin, Capt. W. H. Sanford. Mr. Whitney has been in Seattle and is enroute to San Francisco to see the exposition. Another guest at the Sanford home is the captain's sister, Mrs. John Horseman of St. Helens, California, who will spend some time here.

Two delightful luncheons were given last week in honor of Mrs. Rufus Thompson of Albany, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Parent. The first was given by Mrs. Harry McCoy who laid covers for three beside the honor guest. The second was given by Mrs. Noah Perry, who seated eight at her beautifully laid table. After each luncheon fancy work was the order of the day. Mrs. Thompson, who has been here four weeks leaves the latter part of next week for her Albany home.

Ed. Decker, who was so seriously injured some time ago in a motorcycle-auto accident, is practically recovered, having laid aside his crutches and only using a cane for rough ways. Ed. has had a long siege and all are rejoicing with him in his recovery.

CHERRYVILLE

Miss Viola Friel has returned home from Prineville, Oregon, where she spent several weeks with friends.

W. G. Webber received the sad news last week of the death of his father in Lexington, Kentucky.

Miss Lillian Averill, of Sandy, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Averill.

F. E. Clark is still picking strawberries from his place at Cherry Acres.

Mrs. Frank Sirois, who has been at St. Vincent hospital Portland for several weeks, returned home Saturday much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Webber and W. S. Runyan dined Sunday with S. Runyan and family.

J. T. Friel finished hauling shakes last Tuesday from Clark & Webber's shingle mill.

Sufferer From Indigestion Relieved.

"Before taking Chamberlain's Tablets my husband suffered for several years from indigestion, causing him to have pains in the stomach and distress after eating. Chamberlain's Tablets relieved him of these spells right away," writes Mrs. Thomas Casey, Geneva, N. Y. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

Where Do You Keep Your Money and Valuable Papers?

Mrs. W. F. Jahn, of Wisconsin, spent a lifetime in saving $10,000. She kept it "hidden" in a suit case. Some one walked off with the suit case—and the $10,000.

A few days ago thieves broke into the home of Dave M. Donagh at Fairview and stole a gold watch and ring and went through his papers.

CORBETT

Union High School No. 1.

Don't forget the first number of the Jubilee course on next Monday night, November 8, at the grange. The entertainment will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

The Jubilee concert to be furnished by the Southern Jubilee Quintet may be counted on as being a fine entertainment of southern dialect songs, plantation melodies, readings and impersonations. The company appears in choruses, quartets, trios and duets.

W. C. Buckner, who furnishes this attraction is a noted Jubilee organizer and assures the bureau managers that he is sending a company into the Northwest this fall that will be worth while.

Twenty years ago he connected himself with the old original Tennesseans, remaining with them a few years, and then organized the famous Jubilee singers, using seven different people, and he has been known ever since then as furnishing the very best.

The company to appear here on Monday night, November 8, is composed of five people, and Mr. Buckner has named them the Southern Jubilee Quintet. A good program is assured.

A great many tickets for the course are now being sold.

CORBETT

Miss Entler of the Portland library visited the school Friday. She brought new books, new pictures and supplies for the branch library here.

Several of the high school pupils took part in the program given by the Christian Endeavor society of the church on Saturday night.

County Superintendent A. P. Armstrong called at the school last week. Mary and Emma Spybrock visited the school on Friday afternoon.

The funeral services of the late Albin Floss, who was well known here, having lived for a number of years on the farm now owned by J. Taylor, were held Monday, November 1, at 2 o'clock from the chapel of the Portland crematorium.

F. C. Reed was in Portland Saturday.

W. R. Knight and Clarence Dervell were deer hunting, up in the mountains last week.

W. F. Reeder has begun the erection of a barn.

Miss Christine Tollefson has returned to Portland after a three weeks' visit with her father and mother here.
