ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

"Teddy O'Malley," at Regner's hall on Tuesday evening given by the Western players as a benefit to the fire department, was greeted with a large and appreciative audience. over $25 was added to the firemen's benefit fund.

John Richmond is preparing to move his family from Rockwood to Portland in the near future. Mr. Richmond is master of Rockwood grange and Mrs. Richmond is treasurer.

Miss Miriam Brown left yesterday for Heppner where she will visit until after the holidays with the family of her uncle, Dave Brown.

Christian Science services are held every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and 7:30 in the evening, Sunday school at 10. Wednesday evening testimonial meeting at 8 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. building. Subject next Sunday: Mortals and Immortals.

Jack Brown came home from Glendale on Wednesday, and as usual, his voice arrived first.

Chas. Bell, son of Grant Bell of Springdale and brother of Mrs. Chas. Latourell of Gresham, was operated on for appendicitis at Good Samaritan hospital last night.

The mouth-old child of Mrs. Kido, a Japanese of Cotton station, died yesterday. The father of the child was killed in an accident on a building in Portland two or three weeks ago.

W. F. Honey purchased a new Ford of Latourell & Son today. He turned in his old car on the deal and Latourell at once sold it to T. Ozona, a Japanese on the Emil Olson farm.

Rev. E. Herget, of Sellwood, will preach at the Zion Evangelical church next Sunday. The Sunday school will meet at the usual hour.

Grandma Taylor returned to her home at Boring Wednesday, after a few days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ella Aton.

Miss Mary Harvey, principal of the Hill Crest school at Sandy, was a visitor Saturday and Sunday at her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Townsend. Miss Harvey with the help of paretns and pupils is working hard to standardize her school.

Reports from San Francisco this morning tell of another great victory for the noted Oregon horse, Hal Boy. He won the $2000 purse yesterday on a muddy track in 2:13, taking every heat.

Metzger Bros. are a little in advance of the other Gresham merchants in preparing window displays for the holidays. Four windows are neatly arranged with seasonable goods, which make people stop and admire them.

"The Passing of the Oklahoma Outlaw" was a feature at Smith's theater last night, presented by Capt. W. M. Tyler, formerly a Texas ranger, but now of Chicago. He is showing this wonderful 6-reel picture throughout the coast cities. His headquarters are at the Byron hotel, Portland. The pictures are of remarkable fidelity to actual life.

Voters of the city of Gresham are reminded that the mass meeting for nominating three councilmen will be held at Metzger's hall next Monday evening. The retiring councilmen are Joe Pateneaude, Geo. F. Honey and Ray H. Todd.

The proposition to hard surface the Gresham-Fairview road will be taken up by the budget committee next week, on the petitions now before the county commissioners. Judge Wonacott went to Portland this morning to look after the matter. It is reported that there is a favorable sentiment for the improvement.

The regular services will be held at the Free Methodist church next Sunday. The pastor, Rev. Wm. R. Plumlee, will preach both morning and evening. The Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

Grandpa Landon, 82 years of age, will be in the Gresham parade this afternoon, and is anticipating a pleasant time at the Land Show.

A fine 12-pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kelly yesterday. That accounts for the broad smile on Emmett's face. He's mighty proud of that boy.

The annual thank offering meeting and social of the Women's Home Missionary society will be held at the home of Mrs. John Brown next Friday evening, November 19. A good program is being prepared. The meeting is for men as well as women and will be interesting to all.

The Land Products show causes one regret. It makes the old-timers wish they could eat as many apples as they did 40 years ago.

Amsterdam in 1914 had more than 600,000 population.

Chile in 1914 produced 45,000,000 metric tons of copper.

Methodist Church Items.

Last Sunday was a stormy day yet the Methodist church was well filled at the morning service. The Sunday school was not quite as large as common but the collection was above the average. The Men's Brotherhood Bible class is growing under the able leadership of Professor Goodwin.

Remember the services next Sunday. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. The subject for the morning is "Some Things About God." And in the evening "A Good Thing." Let all our young people remember the Epworth League service at 6:45. The interest in the League work is increasing. We hope soon to have a flourishing League. Mrs. Russell Akin will sing at the morning service, "From Darkness Into Light," by A. Roberts.

The new district superintendent, Dr. T. B. Ford, will be with us on Sunday and Monday, November 21-22. He will preach for us on Sunday evening and hold the quarterly conference on Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

On Wednesday of next week three of our bishops will be in Portland in an all day meeting. It is the opening of the Forward campaign movement in the Oregon conference. It will mark, we hope, the beginning of a new era in Methodism in Oregon. All our people are invited to that meeting. The evening services will be especially for the Laymen. Let our people plan to be at that meeting.

Next Wednesday is also the day for the great Anti-Saloon league meeting in Portland

These are days of great things. Let us get all the good we can out of them.

The Man Who Wins

The man who saves is the man who wins,
In the world's unceasing strife,
The man who works and the man who strives,
Is the man of the useful life.

There are men who gain great fortunes,
Through a turn of the wheel of luck,
But the riches made by the Greater Men
Were earned through work and pluck.

Would you join the ranks of the fighters,
That conquer the world? Or slave
And fight the wolf when your day is done?
You'd rather the first? Then, SAVE!
