COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

Last week brought several prominent persons out to dine at Crown Point, among the most noted was Captain Hobson and party. It will be remembered that it was Captain Hobson who sank the Merrimac, during the Spanish American war, and thereby became a hero.

Sam Hill and his party, including Mr. Lancaster, also motored out to take dinner at Crown Point last week, and it goes to say that they enjoyed an elaborate spread.

Mrs. Tollefson, wife of the high school principal, and Miss Coulter, a member of the high school faculty, were joint hostesses on Saturday at a tea given at Fir Grove for the benefit of the high school.

Mrs. Tollefson, assisted by Miss Christine Tollefson gave several splendid selections during the afternoon, both vocal and instrumental, which were much appreciated.

Mrs. Tollefson, Sr., present were Mrs. Tollefson, Mrs. Helen Coulter, Mrs. C. Hildge, Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. Leland, Mrs. L. Reed, Mrs. James Ponder, Mrs. A. Johnson, Mrs. P. Anderson, Mrs. the hostess, Mrs. Tollefson.

Mr. and Mrs. Tollefson, Sr., parents of the high school principal, and their daughter, Miss Christine, are spending the winter at Fir Grove.

Gallon Monks will leave tomorrow for Monmouth, where he and his family will make their future home. We shall miss these ever kind neighbors and join in wishing them good speed and prosperity in their new locality.

Sports had their inning at Knight's corner last Saturday when turkeys, geese and ducks were made targets for their rifles. Mr. and Mrs. C. Latourell from Gresham, put in an appearance and believe me, there was a scramble among the poor gobblers.

The heavy rain that has been pouring down for the last few days, has caused several bad slides on the new highway, meanwhile the old road is being used between here and Bridal Veil.

CHERRYVILLE

J. T. Friel, Jr., and family went into their new bungalow last week. Mr. Weatherford, of Portland, is mentioned the J. T. Friel, Sr., ranch.

The Literary and Debating society gave a shadow and box social at the schoolhouse Saturday evening. A good program was well rendered. The sale of boxes netted $13.65, which will be used for fuel and lights for the school building.

Phil Stopher arrived home a few days ago from Eureka, where he worked for several months. W. G. Webber, while chopping wood, cut an ugly gash on his foot.

Dr. Barendrick of Sandy was called and took several stitches in the wound and Mr. Webber will be unable to use his foot for several days. C. H. Johnson spent Sunday with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Clark.

Miss Jessie Clark is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark. Miss Genevieve Rugh was on the sick list last week.

Michael McCloskey, an employe of the Baldwin locomotive works, of Philadelphia, has two little fingers on each hand, and two little toes on each foot. All the extra digits are perfectly developed.

Fifteen years ago the total annual cost of the British army was only a little more than $85,000,000. The present war is costing Great Britain $15,000,000 a day.

Poor fruit crops are reported by Scotland, where the weather during the last three months had been very rainy, with frequent thunderstorms.

Zip is doing its duty well; cleans chimneys while you wait, 25c at Sterling & Kidder Hdw.

Now Look Out. When a cold hangs on as often happens, or when you have hardly gotten over one cold before you contract another, look out for you are liable to contract some very serious disease. This succession of colds weakens the system and lowers the vitality so that you are much more liable to contract chronic catarrh, pneumonia or consumption. Cure your cold while you can. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation. It is relied upon by thousands of people and never disappoints them. Try it. It only costs a quarter. Sold by Gresham Drug Co.

VENTURA PARK

Born on Saturday, November 13, to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Welbes, a girl. Mother and child both doing nicely.

Eugene Axson, who has been confined to his home with inflammatory rheumatism, is again out.

Ed. Decker has laid aside his cane and is again walking on two feet only after his accident. Ed. has had quite a time—was in bed for weeks, then on crutches, then a cane and is now finally able to walk alone!

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray at Buckley on Saturday, the 13th inst. All doing well.

Our library is making a good record this fall. The circulation is increasing and our librarian, Miss Margaret Dickson, is making many friends both for herself and the library.

Thanksgiving exercises at the Russellville school were held Wednesday afternoon, and were largely attended by the ladies from here who had children attending there. As usual, the program was good, both children and teachers deserving hearty praise.

The regular meeting of the Base Line Improvement club of this place will meet on Wednesday, December 1st, at the home of Mrs. J. Bensen. A full attendance is desired as a rare treat is promised in the talk by Mrs. Emily Banks, a returned missionary from Africa. Mrs. Banks spent many years in the "dark continent" and talks most interestingly of her life and experiences while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Parent, of Hillsboro, were week-end guests of their son Frank and family. Mr. Parent suffered a stroke of paralysis in July, but has greatly improved.

COTTRELL

The Baptist Aid society will have a sale at the Pleasant Home Baptist church, Saturday evening, December 4. A good program will be rendered, also lunch served. Come and bring your friends.

Miss Mabel Wagner will entertain the I. B. G. club Saturday, Dec. 4. The shooting match given by the Cottrell Gun club Tuesday was attended by about 100 men.

A basket social was given at the Cottrell schoolhouse last Tuesday evening. A good crowd was in attendance.

Irvin Hood and Clay Henshaw, of Albany, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Guile and neices Evelyn, Anna and Rose Guile, of Minneapolis, Kansas, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beers.

Mrs. Ed. Andre will entertain the Ladies' Embroidery club, Wednesday, December 1.

ROCKWOOD

Rockwood grange had a home coming meeting last Saturday in their hall, and at the same time the Methodist quarterly conference was held in the church across the street.

The two bodies joined in a sumptuous dinner at noon in the grange hall. During the noon hour District Superintendent T. B. Ford spoke to the people. Mrs. Brewster of Fairview sang, and Mrs. Dixon, also of Fairview, played a piano solo.

Miss Agnes Senn played "O Perfect Love" and "Ave Maria" were beautifully sung by Miss Edith Beyers. Only the immediate families were present. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Callaghan, immediately after the ceremony.

The bride is well known in social and professional circles. She is a graduate nurse from Multnomah hospital. Mr. Callaghan has been associated with Portland business men for a number of years, during which time he has gained many friends both in a social and business way.

Mr. and Mrs. Callaghan will be at home at 383 Williams avenue after December 1.

An applicant for a teacher's certificate in Kentucky answered an examination question by defining "blunderbuss" as "kissing the wrong girl." Dictionary or no dictionary, we would have given that girl a first-class certificate.—Houston Post.

FAIRVIEW

A meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association was held at the schoolhouse following the school program. The subject of a school exhibit for the next county fair was discussed. A committee was appointed to take charge of the matter, consisting of Mrs. C. E. Cree, Mrs. Grant Shaw, Principal J. B. Lent and Mrs. Janet M. Grant.

Mrs. Donley and daughter Harriet came recently from Spokane to visit the former's mother, Mrs. H. M. Shaw and other relatives. Mrs. Donley has returned but Miss Harriet remained for a longer visit.

A. C. Howlett, of Eagle Point, is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Grant Shaw and family.

At the council meeting Tuesday evening, an election board was appointed for the city elections to be held December 7. The judges are J. M. Davis, William Butler and William McMaines. The clerks are Mrs. E. Heslin, Mrs. C. E. Cree and A. L. Stone.

A citizens' meeting will be held Saturday evening to nominate three councilmen. The retiring councilmen are D. S. Dunbar, W. T. Brooks and William Burlingame.

At the special school meeting last Monday evening, a 1-mill tax was levied for school purposes.

A fine school program was given on Wednesday afternoon at the schoolhouse, by the pupils of the school. A good turnout of parents and patrons of the school was present to enjoy it. The program consisted of recitations, songs and dialogues, all well rendered. The pupils of Principal J. B. Lent's room made an exhibit of their handwork, the boys' exhibit being mostly woodwork and the girls' cookery. A fine cake, however, was made by Clyde Peterson and a plate of biscuits by Clifford Burlingame. The schoolhouse was decorated with fruits, vegetables and flowers.

Callaghan-Wright Wedding. A very pretty and impressive marriage was solemnized in Portland on Wednesday morning, Nov. 17th, when Miss Beulah Hazeldene Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wright of Gresham, was married to Arthur D. Callaghan.

Miss Agnes Senn played "O Perfect Love" and "Ave Maria" were beautifully sung by Miss Edith Beyers. Only the immediate families were present. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Callaghan, immediately after the ceremony.
