ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

Rev. F. H. Freund returned Wednesday after several weeks' absence at Everett and Seattle, Washington. He will preach to his congregation next Sunday morning at 10:30. At 2 p. m. the young peoples meeting will be held. Next Thursday the Martha Verein will meet at the home of Mrs. Theo. Brugger.

N. W. Brower of Sunset Beach has been spending a few days at the home of John Brown, looking after some property interests in this vicinity. He returned home this morning.

J. A. Frake's grocery store was entered through the rear door on Wednesday night. The cash register was pried open and about fifteen pennies taken. Nothing else was missed.

The Wednesday night dance at Regner's hall was the most brilliant affair of the social season so far. A large crowd was present which continued the revels until an early hour the next morning. A door prize of five dollars was won by Emerson Brown.

Miss Lucy Adams, who was called to Kentucky more than two months ago by the serious illness of her father, returned to her home here Wednesday.

What promises to be a fast game of football will be played Sunday between the Gresham Athletics and the Portland News Boys.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Metzger on Thanksgiving were their sons, Ed. Metzger and family, Floyd from Corvallis and Cecil from Hammond, Mrs. Watson and Miss Beulah Caplinger.

R. W. Rose, principal of the Mollala school and Miss Hazel Cartan of the union high school were guests on Thanksgiving day at the home of Principal E. S. McCormick.

The exercises by the students of the graded school on Wednesday afternoon were carried out as announced in the last Outlook. The selections were well chosen and well rendered and reflected great credit on both teachers and pupils. The school auditorium was packed with parents and friends of the pupils.

The Women's Baptist Missionary circle will meet with Mrs. Will Hessel next Thursday afternoon, December 2. All are invited.

Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Leonard were entertained yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McKinney at Pleasant Home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Pitts had as dinner guests on Thanksgiving day, Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Plumlee and children and Mrs. Plumlee's mother.

Wednesday night, December 1, a cottage meeting will be held at the home of Rev. S. F. Pitts, to which all neighbors are invited. The sermon will be by Rev. W. R. Plumlee.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Whilon, of Powell Valley, entertained at dinner yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whilon and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Ickler and family, Mrs. Zahn and family of Ridgefield, Wash., Herman Blaser of Troutdale, Miss Hoyt of Gresham and Henry Whilon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Price were entertained on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cook.

Mrs. C. A. Hoffman, who has been spending a month at San Francisco, returned last Tuesday to her home here. Mr. Hoffman has been staying in Portland during his wife's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hessel entertained on Thanksgiving their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hessel, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Elkington and baby, and Miss Grace Hessel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miller and Miss Gladys Miller, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kidder, Miss Mina Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clanahan, Dr. Earl Clanahan and Greenwood Miller, were guests of Geo. W. Cook in Portland for Thanksgiving dinner.

Miss R. I. Dair was the guest of Mrs. Max Schneider Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lundquist and son Marvin, were guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. L. Myreen at Rose City Park.

Mrs. George W. Lee is seriously ill at her home with probably no hope of recovery. She is unconscious most of the time, only recognizing some of her relatives at intervals. A stroke is the cause of her condition, but it was not considered serious until within the past week.

Mrs. Thompson and daughters, Elizabeth and Edith, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McLain. They will return to their home in Salem Sunday.

A temporary disturbance disarranged the electric lights of Gresham yesterday. Some of the power poles on South Roberts avenue, where street excavations have been made recently, were blown over. Repairs were made in a few hours.

Mrs. A. C. Brackenbury's daughter, a senior at Pacific University, is spending her Thanksgiving vacation at her home here.

Mrs. Mary S. Shoemaker and daughters, Elizabeth and May, spent Thanksgiving at Castle Rock with Mrs. Shoemaker's daughter, Mrs. Samuel.

Last Wednesday was M. D. Kern's birthday and he received a fine fat goose by parcel post from his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Wallenbeck of Paul, Idaho. Yesterday Roy Kern and family joined M. D. Kern and family in celebrating Thanksgiving day.

A POOR KNIFE is about the peskiest thing that a man lets himself put up with.

Yet it is surprising how many men are careless about pocket knives—so apt to go along with their old ones, unless reminded of it.

Almost every day some of our customers are reminded by the sight of our display of pocket knives, or perhaps by feeling their old ones in their pockets, that they need a new knife.

More often than not, too, they are surprised to find our assortment so complete—so many styles and sizes—bone handles, pearl handles, metal handles, wood handles. And ranging from two-bladed pen knives to four and six-bladed knives, and some with screw-driver, cork puller and small scissor fittings. Mighty handy for a man to have.

How about a little shooting some of these bright days? At a target with a .22 rifle, or over the traps? We can fit you out—Rifles, Cartridges, Shot-guns, Shells, all REMINGTON-UMC, our leading line in Arms and Ammunition—favored by practically all the keen Sportsmen we know.
