ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

C. C. Reed is spending a few days in Gresham and expects to make his home here. He will continue in his position at the Lents sub-station.

Mrs. James A. Haley of Nelson, R. C., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Stapleton. Mrs. Haley was the guest of honor yesterday and today at two large bridge parties given by Mrs. Leon Peters in Portland.

Wm. Morand was taken to a specialist in Portland for treatment yesterday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Waltman, who expects to return with him in a few days.

Leslie Wiles left early this week for Fresno, California, where he expects to be employed for some time.

The Tuesday Study club will meet at the library next Tuesday evening, December 14, at 7:45 o'clock. The following program will be rendered: "Early Schools and Colleges," Mrs. J. N. Clananah; "Present Day Schools and Colleges," Mrs. W. E. Bates; "Public Institutions of Today," Miss Pearl Durst. These all refer to Oregon history. Besides the regular program, the parliamentary drill conducted by Mrs. Geo. F. Honey at the last meeting will be repeated. All women are invited to come.

A benefit social will be given in the near future by the friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Price to help defray the expenses incurred by another operation on his eye. It will be held in Regner's opera house. The date will be announced later. Mr. Price returned recently from the hospital, where he underwent an operation, which he hopes will give permanent relief.

Mrs. Clara Sunday is here from Damascus for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Metzger and family.

Don't forget the meeting of Gresham grange all day Saturday. Degree work in the morning, dinner at noon, masters', lecturers' and overseers' meeting at 1:15, open lecture hour in the afternoon are the attractions. Miss Murphy of the Associated Charities of Portland will speak on the work of the association between one and two o'clock.

A meeting of the county commissioners will be held on Monday, December 20, to finally decide on the road levy. The Gresham committee will appear before the commissioners and again urge the need of the importance of improving the Gresham-Fairview road.

The W. O. W. special train for the Eagle Creek dance tomorrow evening will leave Portland about 7 o'clock and will stop at Gresham for passengers. All are invited to go along.

Don't forget the basket social tonight in Metzger's hall at 8 p. m. Free program before auction. The high school boys ask for a generous support of this basket social as a means of raising money to pay indebtedness which they have incurred in connection with their games.

The drama to be given by Multnomah grange at Orient tomorrow night will draw a large crowd and is going to be a success. Several from Gresham have said they will be there.

Gresham Order of Eastern Star held election of officers at their meeting last Tuesday night, when the following were chosen: worthy matron, Mrs. Anna Brown; worthy parson, O. J. Brown; associate matron, Mrs. Cora Childers; treasurer, Miss Emma Fuller; secretary, Miss Rose Dair; conductress, Mrs. Elizabeth Schneider; associate conductress, Mrs. Cora Pulfer. The appointive offices have not all been filled.

Mr. Hurd, an organizer of Chautauque associations, was in Gresham yesterday considering the possibility of forming an organization here. He will meet next week with the Tuesday Study club, when the matter will be further discussed.

Mrs. Ida Burgess of Rockwood has rented the store in the Sell building, recently vacated by J. E. Palmquist, and will fit it up as a first class restaurant and lunch counter. She expects to be ready for business in a week or two.

Ed. Sieret and wife were in Gresham yesterday, visiting with relatives here.

Rev. E. Hergert will preach at the German Evangelical church next Sunday morning in the absence of Rev. F. H. Freund, who is at Everett, Washington. Sunday school at the usual hour and a meeting of the Christian Endeavor society at 2 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Strother, who came from San Francisco by auto several weeks ago, have moved to Portland.

Mr. M. Kronenberg returned Sunday from San Francisco, where she spent a month with relatives.

L. J. Margoeh of Grandin, North Dakota, is the guest of former neighbors, the Camerons, Thom and Geddes families. He is on his way home from California. Mr. Margoeh's daughter spent last summer here.

The Ladies' Aid bazaar and supper last night was enjoyed by a large crowd. An excellent program was rendered after the close of the supper. Altogether the sale and supper were considered a success.

Mrs. E. Daley, who has been confined to her home for several weeks by sickness, is much improved and is able to be out.

Services will be held at the Free Methodist church Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school will begin promptly at 10 o'clock. At the close of the Sunday school an interesting report of the Y. M. C. A. convention recently held at Salem, will be given by Mervin Good and Chase St. Clair. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Dr. John Straub, of the Extension Department of the University of Oregon, and Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, addressed the students of the high school today in the assembly hall, on the "Great American Question," which he said was "What Does it Cost?" He referred to the cost of an education, which he said was in the reach of every ambitious young person.

Christmas Shooting Match.

A shooting match will be held north of the union high school, about December 21. Further particulars later.—Adv.

If one of the combatants in a prize fight in Great Britain kills the other, not only is he guilty of manslaughter, but so are the seconds, promoters and everybody present and approving.

In most modern field guns, though not in the German, the sights are so arranged that they do not recoil with the gun, but can be kept steadily on bet enemy. Where the sights recoil the gunlayer loses the target and delay is caused.
