Good New Year's Resolution

- ❑ I will transfer my Bank Account from Portland to the BANK OF GRESHAM and be loyal to my Home Town.
- ❑ I realize that the only way to build up a community is to patronize home institutions and from henceforth I am going to be a Booster for a larger and better Gresham.
- ❑ I also like to receive 4 per cent interest on my Savings and the Bank of Gresham will do that for me.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

As this will be our last letter to the Outlook for this year, we thank the editor, H. L. St. Clair, and his wife Mrs. St. Clair for the many courtesies during the past year, and join in wishing them a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Christmas was celebrated in due style her this year, both at church and schoolhouses, and to the delight of the children old Santa came and was busy distributing gifts to everybody. Miss Grace Ferguson, the Heights school teacher, had prepared an interesting program and all of her pupils showed good training. But it must be said that the most interesting part of the program was left to the last when it was learned that Mr. and Mrs. Julius Meier of Portland, had sent Christmas tokens to every pupil of the Heights school, and also to the pupils of the Corbett grammar school. The gifts were selected books, with the name of each child written on the package, and with the gift was a pretty card with the picture of the home of the givers and it surely was a pleasant surprise for the children. One could hear expressions from every corner of the house such as, "Oh, isn't that lovely," and "How can we show Mr. and Mrs. Meier that we appreciate their kindness."

Julius Meier and family spent Christmas at their country home here. H. Everding and wife gave a dinner party at Crown Point on Christmas day to a number of their Portland friends. Mr. and Mrs. J. Holton, of Portland, daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. E. M. Henderson, celebrated the holidays at Crown Point.

The stork made a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Reeder and left a real live Christmas present. It was a little tiny lady.

Miss Alice Rasmussen has returned from California and reports a grand time. She visited at San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco and also made a trip down to Mexico. Miss Ruby Rasmussen, who is teaching school near Monmouth, came home for the holidays.

Laurence Evans has purchased a new Dodge auto and he and his girl friends will now go "dodging" on our new Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. George Knieriem, also returned from the sunny state, where they spent a month at the home of their son, W. Knieriem, at Modesto. All of those returning, say, "No place like Oregon."

Miss Laura Ross, who is in Portland this winter, was at home with her parents Christmas day.

Mrs. A. Woodware and her daughter Alice, just came back from Roseburg, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Williams, daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. Woodward.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crowston, aged parents of Mrs. W. Hicks, were guests of their daughter during the Christmas season.

Roy Andersen is riding a motor-wheel now and finds it a lot of sport. L. Benfield was at home with his mother at the Benfield bungalow on Friday.

All Night Dance, Regner's Hall.

An all night dance will be given in Regner's Opera House, Friday night, December 24. Guiss' orchestra. Door prizes, 1st $5, 2d $3, 3d $2. Fine Christmas eve dance, everybody come.—Adv.

VICTORY

The Christmas entertainment at the schoolhouse was well attended. The teacher, Miss Lent, had prepared a very nice program and the children did their best to make it a success. There was a tree and old Santa was there to distribute the presents and all were remembered with some little token.

Cecil Duke, who is keeping books for the Sandy Fir Lumber Co., is home spending the holidays.

Mrs. S. J. McDonald spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Thompson.

Fred Wheeler from Waterloo, Iowa, is visiting at the home of G. W. Andrews.

Grandpa and Grandma Burns, of Troutdale, are spending the holidays visiting with their children here.

Mrs. J. C. Duke entertained last Sunday in honor of her son Cecil's twenty-first birthday. The guests were Mr. Hare and Mr. Crosier from Portland, Miss Jennie Berrie and Robert Strebin, Miss Edith Andrews, Will Fritz, E. Austin, Mr. Siegert and Chas. Kandle from Tillamook.

Mrs. G. W. Andrew's daughter Mrs. Lena Powell from Canada, is here spending a few weeks visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Allder's daughters and families were all home for the holidays. They came Friday and returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilhelm and family took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fritz.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Foth and family took dinner Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm.

Mrs. Andrews entertained at dinner Christmas Mr. and Mrs. Strebin and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke, E. Austin, Mr. Segert, F. Wheeler from Waterloo, Iowa, Mrs. Lena Powell from Alberta, Canada, and Cecil Duke.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cooley had as guests, Christmas evening, Mr. and Mrs. Rosin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Armstrong and baby, Nellie and Chas. McCreary, Herbert Armstrong.

Miss Mable Wood, Miss Edith Fritz spent Sunday evening with Turner from Montavilla and Will Harry and Lena Cooley.

Cough Medicine for Children

Mrs. Hugh Cook, Scottsville, N. Y., says: "About five years ago when we were living in Garbutt, N. Y., I doctor two of my children suffering from colds with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and found it just as represented in every way. It promptly checked their coughing and cured their colds quicker than anything I ever used." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Adv.

MELROSE

Miss Mabel Wood has as guests during the holidays Miss Edith Turner of Portland and Walter Dobyns of Ione, Oregon. Mr. Dobyns is a cousin of Miss Wood.

William Fritz spent Christmas day at the home of Dr. Hughes, in Gresham.

Miss Edith Turner, Miss Mabel Wood, Walter Dobyns and Wm. Fritz spent Sunday evening at the home of H. W. Cooley of Victory.

A number of our young people attended the Christmas dance at Gresham and had a fine time in spite of the stormy weather.

A dandy time was had by the dozen or so of young people who gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke Sunday to celebrate the twenty-first birthday of their son, Cecil.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hayden and children, of Bridal Veil, spent Christmas evening at the home of I. T. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Chamberlain are guests of Mrs. Henry Jones this week.

The following item from the Lebanon express will be of interest to many in this community and also in Gresham where Miss Judy will be remembered as a high school teacher: "Congratulations are finding their way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tiffany in Eugene to whom a son was born December 11. Mrs. Tiffany will be remembered as a former member of the Lebanon H. S. faculty.

Three very enjoyable programs were rendered in this locality during the Christmas season. The Victory, Cedar and Hill programs were all excellent and were well attended in spite of disagreeable weather and the fact that so many have the grip.

Can't Blame Him.

Little Fred's mother had company. One of the visitors, an old friend whom she had not seen since her marriage, asked to see Fred. The mother went out to bring the little fellow in. Presently the sounds of a scuffle in the next room were heard, and the low tones of the mother, as though remonstrating with the youngster. Then the shrill voice of Master Fred was heard:

"I don't care; company or no company, I won't have my face washed with spit."

Don't overlook the Want Ads.

POWELL VALLEY

Miss Ella Bottleson, of Portland, was home for a brief Christmas visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bottleson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Nelson and their daughters, May and Nettie, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hylander.

Miss Clara Johnson is home for a week's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Johnson.

Miss Esther Nelson spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Florence Johnson.

Miss Vina Anderson is home from attending school in Portland for a two weeks' vacation.

The Sunday school entertainment at the Swedish Lutheran church last Sunday evening was a total success under the most excellent supervision of the leader, namely Sunday School Superintendent C. A. Lindgren.

The Sunday school entertainment at the Swedish Mission church on Saturday evening was also a great success and witnessed by a large crowd.

Miss Florence Johnson wishes through the Outlook to express her most heartfelt thanks to the Swedish Lutheran congregation of Powell Valley and to the many friends who contributed to the offering which she received as Sunday school organizer.

PLEASANT HOME

A specially interesting day was spent last Sunday at the M. E. church at Pleasant Home, eight members being received into the church and three babies baptised. Rev. C. M. Brown, the pastor, is looking forward to a year of upbuilding. The services next Sunday will be preaching at Boring at 11 a. m., and at Pleasant Home in the evening. Ladies' Aid will meet at the M. E. church on January 5, at 2 p. m.

Eyes tested and glasses fitted. Dr. Geo. Ingila.—Adv.
