A Prayer After a Battle.

The scene is the Bethune hospital after a particularly hard battle. The chaplain hurries into the corridor and asks some of the wounded: "Have we lost many, boys?" "Yes, sir, a great lot," is the answer. "Did we kill any Germans?" "Heaps, sir; they went through the mill far worse than us." "That's good," said the chaplain fervently. Then he prayed: "O God, we thank thee for having spared these men's lives." He was an Englishman first and a chaplain afterward.

ALL THE DOINGS OF YOUR HOME TOWN

Owing to the fact that there will be no mail delivery on Saturday next, the Outlook will be printed on Thursday and distributed on Friday. Correspondents and advertisers should govern themselves accordingly.

Roy Kern and family and Isabel Metzger were guests on Christmas day of Mr and Mrs. M. D. Kern.

C. M. Oliphant went to Dayton to spend Christmas with his brother. He also visited at Newberg.

The three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McLain, living at Brooks, Salem and Wilbur, made a holiday pilgrimage to Gresham for a visit to their parents and other relatives. Mrs. Ethel Miller, of Brooks, came on Thursday and will make an indefinite stay. Mrs. Inez Miller, of Wilbur, came on Friday, accompanied by her son and will return home next Sunday. Mrs. Phebe Thompson, of Salem, with her two daughters, also came on Friday. The three spent a merry Christmas and were over-Sunday guests, the latter returning home yesterday.

V. H. Read, of Portland, was out today looking after his farm on the butte. Guy and Clifford Read were assisting their father.

Fay Webber, of Milwaukie, is spending the holidays with Vivian Hevel.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning spent Christmas day and Sunday with their son L. H. Manning and family in Portland.

Rev. Mr. Young and wife, of Jefferson, were guests of Mrs. Ella Aton on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kidder and Miss Mina Gilbert entertained the following relatives on Christmas day, H. M. Miller and family and G. W. Cook and family, of Portland.

Mrs. H. M. Miller has been quite ill for the past two weeks. She is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reynolds entertained Mrs. M. P. Mayfield and son Carl, and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Mayfield and four children, of Prineville; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hale and Misses Bessie and Alice, and Tommy Hale of Boring, and George Ginder on Christmas day.

The Gresham Volunteer Fire Department will hold its regular meeting on Monday night, January 3, at which time the annual election of officers will take place. It is especially important that all firemen be present. There are about 30 in the department, and all affairs are in good shape. As their general fund is about depleted the boys hope to clear a good sum from the benefit dance at Regner's hall next Friday night, New Year's eve.

There will be a union watch-night meeting in the Baptist church beginning at 8:30 o'clock on Friday night. The following will take part in the service: Principal E. S. McCormick, Prof. Elmer F. Goodwin, D. M. Cathey, E. A. Leonard, H. L. St. Clair, L. F. Burns, W. R. Plumlee, J. C. Tibbets and A. C. Brackenbury. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this last religious service of the year.

A suit case was taken from a wagon in front of Mrs. Burgess' restaurant, on Main street, on Saturday evening. Mr. Burgess had just driven up and went into the restaurant for a moment. When he came out the suit case was gone. It contained Christmas toys for the children.

The condition of O. Thomas, whose illness was mentioned last week, is far more serious today. He is semi-conscious and is unable to take food. There is small hope for his recovery.

Numerous truck loads of crushed rock from the Kelly Butte quarry are being spread on some of the worst places in the streets of Gresham. The crossing bumps were given a good application but the most good was done on Powell street, where the recent fill was getting to be a big mud lake.

Mrs. M. D. Kern has been quite ill with the grip, but is recovering now.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. Fritz Stoker on Christmas day. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carrell, Willard, Andrew, Violet and Baby Carrell. Miss Maggie Rodgers took tea with Mrs. Stoker.

Miss Rose I. Dair and Miss Emma Johnson took a trip up the Columbia Highway on Sunday coming back by Troutdale, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker.

Cecil Metzger came up from Hammond to spend a part of the holidays with his family here. He will return tomorrow.

Elmer Deetz, of Aurora, spent Christmas and Sunday with friends in Gresham and vicinity.

Emery and Kenneth Roberts are here for a brief stay with their parents. They came from eastern Oregon, where they are employed in railroad engineering.

Little Rosy Potter, who lives at Rockwood, won the cowboy which was on exhibit at Mrs. Boughner's Novelty shop window. The prize was there for about two months and was won by 76 tickets. Look for Mrs. Boughner's announcement on the front page.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of B. O. Boswell to Miss Mabel Estella Fair, on Thursday last. They will live at Estacada where their home has been heretofore. Mr. Boswell is the popular electric light superintendent of the P. R. L. & P. for eastern Multnomah and Clackamas. Congratulations are numerous, combined with wishes for a long and happy married life.

Arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor last Sunday morning, a fine baby boy, weight six and a half pounds.

P. L. Bliss is slowly convalescing from a severe attack of the grip.

We feel sorry for a man whose soul is so warped, that he will refuse to donate a few cents to a fund for a Christmas tree that will gladden the hearts and bring smiles to the faces of little children at Christmas time. More especially do we feel sorry for such a man when he is the possessor of one of the largest and best appointed farms in this community besides holding notes, mortgages, and a substantial bank account.

O. A. C. GLEE CLUB HERE THURSDAY

The O. A. C. Glee club, comprising twenty-six singers and Professor William F. Gaskins, head of the School of Music of the Oregon Agricultural College, will arrive in Gresham Thursday afternoon for the first concert of their annual holiday tour. It will be up to the people of Gresham to see that the college boys receive a good impression of the town.

On Friday morning the Glee club boys will board their private car at Fairview for their tour of the eastern part of the state, lasting about ten days, and including ten concerts. The club will appear in Condon Friday night and a New Year's concert will be given in Heppner.

The program will be in two parts, the first including the heavy musical numbers and the second being the humorous side of the concert. One of the treats of the first part of the program is an interpretation of DeKoven's Recessional by the whole club and an obligato by Victor Orr.

In the second part one of the humorous specialties of Wallace Martyn, the comedian, will be "On the Good Ship Rock and Rye." Rev. J. E. McCullom will also contribute to the mirth of the occasion. This part of the program will be repeated with popular songs.

The quartet is composed of Messrs. McCullom, Olsen, Miller and Tulley, while Orr, Tulley and Jonasen are the soloists.

The regular members of the club are: John E. McCullom, Salinas, California; Wally Caldwell, San Dinis, California; L. O. Brown, Warrenton, Oregon; V. M. Orr, Milton and Fred Hulbert, Aberdeen, Washington; D. W. Minsinger, Portland, Oregon; P. W. Martin, Corvallis, Oregon; La Verne Firestone, Vancouver, Washington; R. M. Wilcox, Portland; E. C. Olson, Portland; Martin Van Couvering, Riverside, California; Olaf Jonssen, Rock Island, Illinois; S. W. Tulley, Wallowa; Bryan McMinn, Corvallis; Allan Brandies, Portland; Dunbar Pinkney, Aberdeen, Washington; P. S. Harvey, Wenatchee, Washington; Wallace Martyn, Lawrence, Kansas; L. W. Miller, Portland; Arthur Logan, Escondido, California.

The concert will be given in Regner's opera house beginning at 8:15. Reserved seat tickets may be obtained at the Gresham Drug store or at the Outlook office.

Too Much.

Jones, immediately after his operation for appendicitis, was placed in a ward with two men recovering from similar ordeals. When he regained consciousness his first remark was: "Well, thank God that's over with!"

"Don't be too sure," said the man on his right. "When they operated on me they left a sponge in me and had to go back after it."

"Same here," said the other patient. "Only it was scissors they left in me."

Just then one of the doctors opened the door and said, "Has anyone here seen my hat?"

And Jones fainted.

How many times a man has to do some little piece of carpentering around the house, in the chicken coop, in the barn, or on the fence—

And how one does wish one had a good set of Tools right then.

It may interest you to know that many of our customers are buying tools one at a time, to add to the set they started with.

Most of them have been doing that for a long time—and they often tell us how glad they are that we suggested it to them.

It is easy to pick out a new saw, or hammer, a brace and bit, a screw driver or some other tool that you need, every time you come in—and then when things come up to do be done you're ready to do them right.

Quality?—well every one of our tools is guaranteed, not only by the makers but also by us. And we are here to see that we are taken care of right.

You can tell the way we feel about our ammunition business by the fact that we are just as particular to see that you get REMINGTON-UMC in the little 22's as we are in the high-power cartridges.
