

LOWER PRICES

The Greatest Clothing, Furnishings and Shoe Sale ever witnessed in Gresham, begins Wednesday Morning, January 5th. The Entire Stock of Meritable Merchandise offered at astonishing reductions.

A Sacrifice Sale of Supreme Magnitude

We are not going to resort to flashy and unreasonable advertising in connection with this sale but are going to let you know that you can save considerable money on the goods advertised by buying of us during this sale. We give you this advantage because we are up against the proposition of too much merchandise and not enough money to pay for it.

AYLSWORTH'S

Main Street Furnishings, Clothing and Shoes Gresham

VENTURA PARK
On Tuesday the Base Line Improvement club here held a basket supper at the club house. About 70 were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and cards. The club house was beautifully decorated in Christmas greenery and red ribbons.

As a result of the efforts of the Base Line Improvement club here, the P. R. L. & P. Co. is installing lights in the stations on the Mt. Hood line. This is an improvement which has long been needed and we are indeed glad to secure it.

Mrs. Frank Ellsworth and son Ralph spent Christmas in Eugene, the guests of Mrs. Ellsworth's father, George Lakin.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Gray entertained at dinner on Christmas, the guests being the Decker and Heata families, while the Heaths had a large Christmas tree, entertaining the Grays and Deckers. Much fun had in both homes and Santa Claus was a "good old sport!"

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCoy entertained Mrs. and Miss McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Noah Perry at Christmas dinner.

Mrs. Allen Parent of Hillsboro spent Tuesday at the home of her son Frank.

Mrs. W. H. Sanford went to Castle Rock, Washington, on Tuesday on business and to visit friends during the New Year week-end.

Miss Maud McCoy has returned from a visit to the exposition and is the guest of her brother, Harry.

The regular meeting of the Base Line Improvement club at Ventura Park will be held the third Wednesday in January, the 19th, in the Club House. This meeting is important as it is election day, and a number of important items of business will also come up for discussion. All members are urged to be present.

Greetings of the season to all, and a brighter and happier 1916!

COTTRELL
Henry Craswell, of Hoquiam, Washington, spent Christmas week with his brother Wm. Craswell, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Manary, of Calum Bay, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Manary and daughter Helen, of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manary Christmas.

Mrs. Fred Radford was a Gresham visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Andre entertained on Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clauson, Miss Eva Glibreth and Art Dettler of Portland.

Guy Hood and niece, Cecil Hutchins, are visiting Mr. Hood's parents at Albany.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Radford, December 25, an eight pound girl.

Miss Della Baird of Walla Walla, Washington, Miss Marion Robertson of Lusted, and Frank Roberts of Baker, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ruegg New Year's day.

The Misses Clara and Alberta Schneider returned Saturday from Independence, where they spent Christmas week with Mr. and Mrs. George McLaughlin.

We are glad to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Gogger and son Carl, who have been ill with the grip for the past week, are improving.

The Cottrell school started Monday after a week's vacation.

A. R. Ruegg is serving on the jury in Portland this week.

The Baptist Aid society will meet with Mrs. P. M. Miller of Pleasant Home Thursday, January 13.

Burleigh Spiers of Stevenson, Washington, spent Christmas with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blackburn entertained New Year's day Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lusted and son Ellis, Mr.

and Mrs. Newell and children of Portland, Mrs. Estil Holmes and daughter Vera of Springwater, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Robertson of Lusted.

Eyes tested and glasses fitted. Dr. Geo. Inglis.—Adv.
