PLEASANT HOME VOTERS TO BE REGISTERED

Pleasant Home voters will be given a chance to register without going to the courthouse next Thursday, March 2, when B. F. Rollins of Gresham will spend the day at Denby's store and register all who apply. This will be an accommodation to the citizens of the community, and especially to the women.

For a Billious Attack.

When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, loathing of food, constipation, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and then bile, you may know that you have a severe billious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effectual. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.

but will receive further attention as the preparation of the magazine progresses.

The selection of a name for the publication is one of the deferred matters. The size of the book has not been fully determined upon but it will probably be over 50 pages with cover. It will allow full representation of all the classes and will be illustrated to some extent with suitable half-tones. At the meeting yesterday the following seniors were elected to prepare all matter for publication and arrange all business matters: Editor in chief, Hester B. Thorpe; assistant editor, Marguerite Volbrecht; business manager, Martha Hagberg; advertising manager, Florence Towle; literature and poetry, Gladys Bliss; society editor, Lucy Peterson; humor, Frances Bliss; art manager, Roy Gibbs; athletics, Keith Lyman.

The Senior Class Chicken Dinner.

The senior class deserve congratulations for the fine chicken dinner served by them to the Teachers' Institute last Saturday. This class can be depended upon to do anything they undertake, and do it right. They are planning a very interesting commencement consisting of three evening's entertainment for the public, the dates to be announced later.

ALL THE DOINGS OF YOUR HOME TOWN

At the meeting of the Tuesday Study club a week ago, it was decided to change the time of meeting to 3 o'clock instead of 7:45 p. m. A change in the day was also made and the club will meet hereafter on the first and third Tuesdays of the month. The program for the afternoon of March 7th will be given in Friday's Outlook.

Miss Susie Stevenson from Portland spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. J. A. Frakes.

Fred Powell will open a new drug store in Gresham within a few days. He will occupy one-half of the store-room now used by Ed. Aylsworth in the Howitt building. A partition is being run through the room. Aylsworth will retain the corner, Mr. Powell occupying the other side.

Multnomah camp, W. O. W., in Portland, held its 25th anniversary celebration on Friday evening last. The following from Gresham were in attendance: William Childers, E. S. McCormick, F. H. Anspach, Chas. Crenshaw, M. M. Squire, Chase St. Clair, Leslie St. Clair, and E. L. Thorpe.

At a special election, held by the voters of school district number four on Saturday afternoon, there were 102 votes cast. The election was held to choose a successor to A. E. Lindsey, resigned. Arthur Dowsett received 62 votes, A. E. Leonard 40. Mr. Dowsett will hold the office of director until June, 1917.

Mrs. E. M. Coons has moved into Mrs. S. A. Crawford's cottage at the foot of Third street.

Mildred Pullen was given a surprise party at her home at Hogan last Saturday afternoon. A pleasant afternoon was spent in playing games, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Ida Lauber, Wilma Atterbury, Leliah Childers, Lucile McCarter, Nora Pullen, Sarah Baukman, Oneta Stillions, Phyllis and Beatrice Bates, Addie Pullen and Frances Stout.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, of Grass Valley, Oregon are in Gresham, visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Carl Dahl and greeting old neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles and Miss Henrietta Wiles took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison.

Colby Marston is able to be about on crutches after being laid up for about ten days with a badly bruised foot. While turning a corner on his wood saw on the icy streets, he was thrown off and the saw ran over his foot.

O. A. Eastman returned Saturday, after a three months' stay in Wisconsin, where he went on account of the illness of a sister.

Miss Henrietta Wiles has gone to Portland for a few days' visit with relatives.

The union revival meetings will continue at the Methodist church all of this week, services being held each afternoon at 2:30 and each evening at 7:30 excepting Saturday. On Wednesday night, Prof. F. C. Streyfeler, a gifted singer of Portland, will be present and assist in the service. Professor Streyfeler is an uncle of Mrs. W. R. Plumlee.

A missionary tea will be given at the home of Mrs. A. J. W. Brown on Thursday afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock. The gathering will be held late in the afternoon in order to avoid conflicting with the afternoon revival service. It is hoped that the proceeds of the meeting will be sufficient to finish paying for the organ, which the Missionary Circle has purchased for the Baptist church. A program of sacred music and readings will be rendered. All ladies will be made welcome.

Mrs. Lizzie Robbinett, who has been convalescent at the home of Ernest Simms for the past two weeks, is slowly improving. Mrs. Robb, suffered serious burns six weeks ago, when her dress caught on fire, burning her chest, neck and arms. She was taken to a Hillsboro hospital, where she was cared for for two weeks and was then treated for two weeks longer at a Portland hospital. It will be necessary, before a complete cure can be brought about, to undergo the operation of skin grafting, which will probably be done soon. Mrs. Robbinett is a niece of Mr. Simms. She will be remembered as Lizzie Iles.

City Marshal McKenny reports that many people are allowing chickens to run at large, contrary to a city ordinance, and that complaints are coming to him of damage and annoyance from that cause. Mr. McKenny wishes to urge upon the owners of poultry the necessity of keeping their fowls at home, in order to avoid the penalty, which is attached to the ordinance.

Mrs. P. A. Gould returned last night from La Grande, where she has spent the past two months with her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Leighton. Mrs. Gould was honored with a farewell party before her departure for home.

Mass Meeting Called.

A mass meeting of the voters of Gresham and eastern Multnomah county, who are interested in the county's rural schools and in the candidacy of Elmer S. McCormick for county school superintendent, will be held in Gresham, Saturday evening, March 11, at 7:30 p. m. Place of meeting will be announced in the succeeding issues of the Outlook. Every man and woman voter is urged to be present.

EDUCATORS MEET AT INSTITUTE

The institute held at the union high school building on Saturday last under the supervision of County Superintendent of Schools, A. P. Armstrong, was attended by about 100 persons, mostly teachers from the county and city schools.

Mr. Armstrong opened the program with a discussion of the correspondence now being carried on between the county schools and the county superintendent's office. He explained the value of the work and declared it to be good language training and business discipline. Mr. Armstrong urged parents and teachers to encourage this work. He informed the teachers that they might get stationery at his office for such purpose without charge.

Reading in the schools was the theme of Miss Ruby Shearer's talk. In this matter she seemed to be in favor of reverting to the form of other school days when reading was a study, but which is now almost a lost art in the public schools.

Agriculture was a favorite subject of at least three of the speakers. S. B. Hall, county agriculturist, spoke on the importance of agriculture and the matter of encouraging the young people to prepare exhibits for the county and state fairs. H. A. Lewis, president of the county fair, spoke along the same lines and E. S. McCormick, principal of the Gresham grade school, emphasized the need of an agricultural education.

Other speakers were Elmer F. Goodwin, principal of the high school, and H. C. Seymour, of the Oregon Agricultural college. The latter explained the club and gardening plans of the O. A. C., urging that the school pupils take up gardening as a scientific study.

Mr. Goodwin took a pardonable pride in entertaining the visitors and showed them through the school building while he explained that the school had grown so rapidly during its first year that another unit will have to be built this summer to accommodate the expected increase next fall, estimated at 225 students.

The senior class of the school provided an excellent dinner for the visitors and cleared $21 which will be used in the publication of the senior annual magazine, to be issued near the close of the school year.

ANOTHER EFFORT TO HOLD MEETING

By official notice elsewhere it will be seen that the Gresham Fruit Growers' association has arranged for a stockholders' meeting to be held on Monday next. An effort is being made to get out a majority of the members, either in person or by proxy, for the election of a new board of directors and to formulate some plan for the coming season.

THE PRINT OF THE NAIL

A THREE REEL SELIG Master Picture

A strong story of Political Graft. The Corporation ring-leaders in an attempt to oust the Mayor who has attempted to make them abide by the law, call upon the gangsters of the town to help them, and through a dishonest Chief of the Police bring acquisitions against the Mayor that had it not been for a clever girl detective would have caused him to have been recalled.

Thrilling Situations, full of Action, Marvelous Settings Good Plot, with an unequalled Climax. A picture you can not soon forget.
