with her daughter, Mrs. Maud Kingston, at Salem, Oregon.

A concert will be given at Mrs. Henderson's home, Crown Point chalet, on Sunday afternoon, March 12, at 2 o'clock, for the benefit of the Vista House fund. Madame Jeanne Jomelli will sing. Those who have once heard her wonderful voice will need no urging to come. A violinist from Portland will also play. The plan to erect the Vista House in memory of the early pioneers of Oregon is a worthy one and should have everyone's support.

The high school will give a social for the benefit of this fund. More definite plans will be announced later.

Mrs. Leland, Mrs. Lewis Reed and Miss Alice Rasmussen were visitors of the school last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Woodward and family motored to Portland on Saturday.

The surrounding hills were again white with snow Wednesday forenoon. Perhaps March will go out like a lamb.

Pleasant Valley grange held one of the most interesting meetings ever experienced in the history of its 12 years' existence, last Saturday. Notwithstanding the prevailing fine weather, there was a large attendance of the local membership, besides a number of visitors. Among the latter were State Lecturer Mrs. Minnie E. Bond of Eugene; Mrs. Dunbar of Odell, county deputy for Hood River county; T. J. Kreuder of Lents, deputy for Multnomah county; Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Dickinson, of Oswego, A. P. Miller of Sellwood, and G. H. Richey of Corvallis. A splendid program was rendered, consisting of songs, instrumental music, recitations, readings and general discussion of questions. Miss Hazel Berke, lecturer was in charge of the exercises. One new member was initiated in the third and fourth degrees of the order. Two new applications for membership were also received. Present indications are that 1916 will be a banner year in the annals of Pleasant Valley grange.

How to Prevent Croup.

When the child is subject to attacks of croup, see to it that he eats a light evening meal, as an overloaded stomach may bring on an attack, also watch for the first symptom—hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. Obtainable at the Gresham Drug Store.
