POWELL VALLEY

Next Sunday evening, March 12, at 7:30, Miss Anna Swanson of the Couer d' Alene College (Idaho) will speak on the subject, "The Power of Thought" at the Swedish Lutheran church. This lecture is given especially for the young people, but every one is cordially invited to attend.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

Columbia grange hall was a merry scene last Saturday night when the young folks gave an entertainment and banquet for the older grangers. And it can be said that the young folks can do things whenever it strikes them, and they deserve much praise for their efforts in entertaining last Saturday. It was a really come-together social, and the three school teachers, Miss Coulter, Miss Alice Rasmussen and Miss Grace Ferguson were kept busy seeing to it that every lady had a good time. Progressive 500 was the main feature during the evening, and Mr. H. Rickert won the first prize, his scores reaching 1500, and he is now passing his spare time playing with a pet billy goat. Mrs. Floyd Reed had 1280 and Mrs. P. Anderson 1260 scores to their credit. Miss Frida Swarting got the prize for the best proposal, and C. Hicks took the prize for the best answer and he is now tooting a tinhorn on the Columbia Highway. A good program was rendered during the first part of the evening and at midnight refreshments were served in the dining room, and when the party broke up at a late hour, it was declared that a very pleasant evening had been enjoyed by all and we shall soon look for another such come-together social.

Mrs. Lottie Benfield has just received word that Mrs. Masterson, passed away last Friday at Montezano, Wash., at the home of her daughter at that place. Mrs. Masterson had been bedfast for about six months. She leaves a husband at the age of 85, three children, several grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Masterson had lived in this vicinity for many years.

Mrs. G. Bates has gone to Yamhill to visit with her nephew, L. Bates, for a short time.

Mrs. John Taylor got a message last week telling that her brother, Laven Easten, had been accidentally shot at Yakima.

Mrs. Tollefson has just returned after a month's visit with her parents at Seattle.

Mrs. C. C. Darling was in the city with relatives last week.

W. Hicks, who has been on the sick list lately, is somewhat better at this time.

The Highway bus is now running as far as Multnomah Falls.

VENTURA PARK

On Saturday the Base Line Improvement club held a banquet and hard time social at their club house. The attendance was good considering the weather, and a splendid supper followed by a good time was greatly enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Parent, of Hillsview, spent a week in the home of their son Frank, leaving Sunday on the 4:30 car.

The Improvement club here is gratified to learn that the Columbia Highway and the county roads leading thereto will be beautified by shade trees rather than roses. At a recent meeting it was voted that this club endorse trees on account of the lasting quality and lack of cost for upkeep.

Saturday is Child Welfare Day at the Russellville grange and the Base Line Improvement club will co-operate with the grange in making this day a success.

Mrs. Frank Parent and two children Donald and Howard left for a three week's stay in Salem and Albany. While in Salem they will visit Mrs. Parent's brother Dr. Fred H. Thompson and in Albany will be the guests of her mother, Mrs. Rufus Thompson.

BORING

Boring Rebekah lodge, 213, has been taking in candidates every meeting lately. After the meeting last Friday evening the supper committee had a fine chicken supper awaiting in the dining room, which was enjoyed by all. Saturday, the members are going to charter a special car and visit Acme Rebekah lodge, No. 38, at First and Alder, Portland. Snow fell all day Friday and Saturday and some on Sunday. It melted almost as fast as it fell, but about eight inches piled up.

Mrs. Alice Olson, wife of John Olson of Haley station, died at 5:30 p. m. Saturday. She has been ill for some time. Besides her husband she leaves a daughter, Ruth and two sons, Knute and Herbert. Funeral services were held at the Swedish church, Haley station and burial was at Pleasant Home today.

Several Boring folks went to Sandy Saturday evening to attend the entertainment "Vice Versa. Miss Mildred Foster sang a couple of songs, accompanied on the piano and violin by the Misses Telford.
