Signs of Good Digestion.

When you see a cheerful and happy old lady you may know that she has good digestion. If your digestion is impaired or if you do not relish your meals take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach, improve the digestion and cause a gentle movement of the bowels. Obtainable at Gresham Drug Store.

An occasional coat of Lowe Bros. wagon paint will save your wagons and farm implements from rust and decay. It is inexpensive and will save you many dollars. Easily applied. We'll tell you how. Metzger Bros.—Adv.

Union High School No. 1.

At a recent ciphering match, Lloyd Ough was declared champion cipherer.

The party at the grange hall last Saturday night was considered a decided success. Those who were on committees from the high school were Myra Ross, Bessie Knieriem, Ada Woodward and Earl Pounder. Games were played, and a short program was given. At eleven o'clock, refreshments, consisting of cake, sandwiches and coffee, were served.

Those who were not absent from high school during the past month were: Gladys Barr, F. Murray Smith, Doris Trickey, Theodore Reeves, Crate Reeves, Ernest Mershon, Lloyd Ough, Frances Johnson, Ada Woodward, Luella Poulsen and Isabel Roy.

Last Friday afternoon, Fred Woodward, representing the sophomore class, invited the teachers and pupils to a St. Patrick's day party to be held at the schoolhouse on Friday evening, March 17th, from 8 until 11 o'clock. The invitation was quite cleverly written in rhyme form.

Gladys Barr spent last Saturday with Ada Woodward.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Olson, of Sellwood, were over-Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Olson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Olson.

Charles Kennedy, of Lents, was out Wednesday looking after his place.

Mike Hemrich was in Gresham Tuesday on business matters.

Miss Edna Berke, who is teaching school near Barton, visited with home folks Sunday.

N. Stiner was a Portland visitor one day recently.

Geo. Beemer, of near Kendall, was a visitor at the home of his brother, E. Beemer of this place, Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Matthias visited with friends in the vicinity of Damascus one day this week.

A stranger, apparently unbalanced in mind, created some excitement here last Saturday by running into teams, autos and whatever he happened to meet up with on the county road, until some one telephoned the sheriff's office, when Sheriff Hurlburt came out and got him.

Less than four weeks remain in this to register. Get busy and do your duty.

As correspondent, we will be pleased to have you call us up and give us any items of which you may happen to know, or if not convenient to call by phone write a note and leave at Moore & Rhoad's store.

Mrs. G. H. Kesterson entertained the Ladies' Aid Thursday afternoon.

Services will be held in the church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. J. C. Tibbets will preach. All are cordially invited.

FAIRVIEW

County Superintendent of Schools, A. P. Armstrong was at the city hall on Wednesday evening for standardization of the Fairview school. There was a musical and literary program, given by the pupils and patrons of the school. Fairview is now a standard school, being the third in the county to receive the honor. Gresham was the first, with Powell Valley school the second.

The Women's Society of the Presbyterian church held an election of officers last Thursday. The new officers are, president, Mrs. J. W. Townsend; vice president, Mrs. H. M. Shaw; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. N. Paris.

Mrs. R. J. Copeland and children are visiting at Camas, Wash., with Mrs. Chappel, the former's mother. Miss Mae and Harry Donley of Spokane, made a week-end visit with their grandmother, Mrs. H. M. Shaw. Grant Shaw is spending a few days on the Davis farm near Estacada, helping his brother George to move and get settled.

Fairview grange held an all-day session on Saturday last. S. B. Hall, county agriculturist, who is also the master of the grange, talked on his plans for this year's work in agriculture. Paul V. Maris, state agent was present and gave an instructive talk. Mr. Northrup spoke on soil bacteria. T. J. Kreuder, county deputy spoke on the good of the order. There were musical numbers and a fine grange dinner.

TROUTDALE

Miss Gertrude Christian, of Portland, was a visitor at the Lumsden home last week.

There will be church services next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. B. C. Brewster will preach.

Latourell's orchestra has bills out for a dance Saturday night, March 11th at the Masonic hall.

Chester A. Lyon gave an interesting lecture at the church last Tuesday evening, illustrating his talk with stereopticon views. His talk described his work on his "Big Brother Farm" for boys near Lebanon where he gives a good clean, wholesome summer outing to boys whose circumstances will not permit of such good fortune. The lecture was attended by a large and appreciative audience.

Under the auspices of the Troutdale Ladies' Aid society, the Endeavor society of the Montavilla Christian church will present the comedy, "Between the Acts," next Friday evening, March 17th, at 8 o'clock at the Masonic hall at Troutdale. The cast is as follows: Richard Comfort, married yet single, Archie McQuiston; Edith Comfort, unknown, unhoneored and unsung, Miss Ophelia Smith; George Merrigale, an unfriendly friend, Archie King; Mr. Meander, blamed but blameless, Claud Altman; Mrs. Clementina Meander, blameless but blamed, Mrs. Archie McQuiston; Sally, her "Frinch" maid, Miss Gladys Goin; Harris, Comfort's servant, Victor McQuiston. The play is full of bright, clean fun and brings out many laughs with its ludicrous situations. Four good special numbers are given also.

The Ladies Aid society will meet with Mrs. L. Kummer next Wednesday afternoon for sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bailey and children and Mrs. C. I. Raker were in Gresham yesterday on business.

PLEASANT HOME

Chicle is obtained by tapping the sapodilla (Aceras sapota) trees, which grow wild in the forests of the state of Vera Cruz. The industry is controlled almost entirely by the Huasteca Indians, who sell the chicle in the markets of Tuxpam and Tampico.

How to Prevent Croup.

When the child is subject to attacks of croup, see to it that he eats a light evening meal, as an overloaded stomach may bring on an attack, also watch for the first symptom—hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. Obtainable at the Gresham Drug Store.
