Rank Foolishness.
You occasionally see it stated that colds do not result from cold weather. That is rank foolishness. Were it true colds would be as prevalent in midsummer as in midwinter. The microbe that causes colds flourishes in damp, cold weather. To get rid of a cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effectual and is highly recommended by people who have used it for many years as occasion required, and know its real value. Obtainable at Gresham Drug Store.

Tailoring.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

A party of forty-five Portlanders took dinner at Crown Point chalet on Friday evening. Among them were our former Governor, O. West and wife, Judge Gatens and wife, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, editor of the Oregon Daily Journal, Mr and Mrs. Fish and many other prominent persons. After dinner they went up to Bridal Veil to a country dance, and they just had a jolly good time.

Madame Jomelli's voice was heard yesterday at Crown Point. She is without a doubt one of the present day greatest singers. Mrs. Knight, the violinist, played beautifully. She has such a sweet and sympathetic touch on the violin and though she is a newcomer to Portlander's musical set, she is fast gaining a name as a first class violinist. Mr. Becker, the Portland accompanist, presided at the grand piano and they were all sustained by Portland's best cello player and it sure was a treat to listen to their fine selections.

D. Reeder and family will move back to Nebraska next week, after a year with Mr. Reeder's father at Corbett.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Knieriem have just moved into their new bungalow on the Heights.
Miss Laura Ross and her friend Mr. Samuelson of Portland, spent Sunday at home with Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Meier and their three children were out here at their home Sunday.

Signs of Good Digestion.
When you see a cheerful and happy old lady you may know that she has good digestion. If your digestion is impaired or if you do not relish your meals take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach, improve the digestion and cause a gentle movement of the bowels. Obtainable at Gresham Drug Store.

An occasional coat of Lowe Bros. wagon paint will save your wagons and farm implements from rust and decay. It is inexpensive and will save you many dollars. Easily applied. We'll tell you how. Metzger Bros.—Adv.

For garden making hoes, rakes, spades, wheelbarrows, etc, priced at Sterling & Kidder Hdw. Co.

No, Mabel, the letter chute is not a war engine if it does sound that way. It isn't slang, either.

PLEASANT VALLEY

T. R. Berry was a Gresham visitor Sunday.
Commissioner Geo. L. Baker, of Portland, was a valley visitor Sunday.
Leland Moore represented Pleasant Valley grange at County Agriculturist S. B. Hall's advisory council of farmers, held at Gresham last Monday.

Mrs. Elwood spent the week-end with friends in the city.

T. F. Campbell made a trip to Oregon City on business matters one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bloomfield visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Rogers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robinson, of Brooklyn, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Richey one day recently.

Mr and Mrs. L. R. Sager, of Hutton, Alberta, spent a couple of days this week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Sager. Mr. and Mrs. Sager will depart for their northern home Friday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Frost, Sr., had the misfortune to get a fall that resulted in a compound fracture of her left arm just below the shoulder. The accident occurred at her home last Sunday evening. Mrs. Frost is at St. Vincents hospital.

The special meeting of Pleasant Valley grange hall last Saturday evening, having for its object the discussion of the advisability of organizing a farmers' co-operative buying and selling association along lines similar to those now in operation by the eastern Multnomah Farmers' club at Corbett, resulted in a committee being appointed to take the matter up and make a thorough investigation and report the result of their findings at the next regular session of the grange.

Pupils of Pleasant Valley school who were entitled to a place upon the honor roll for the past month were, Advanced room—Pearl Dahlquist, Raymond Brasswell, Arcaur Bliss, Katie Cornely, Edythe Butler, Clyde Moore, Anthony Schmid and Elgen Olson. Primary room—Pearl Restorff, Frances Dahlquist, Patsy Poppleton, Alice Restorff, Chris Restorff, Barbara Cornely, Agatha Cornely, Teresa Schmid, Cukus Njije.

Pleasant Valley grange was well represented at Pomona grange, which met Wednesday with Woodlawn grange. Among those attending from here were G. H. Richey, C. H. Bate-men, Mrs. Tillie Smith, Mrs. J. L. Johnson, Mrs. W. U. Moore, the Misses Edna, Eva and Hazel Berke and Leland Moore.

KELSO

About 125 persons, thirty-five of whom were teachers, attended the Teachers' and Parents' institute at the Kelso schoolhouse Saturday, March 11, under the auspices of the Kelso Parent-Teacher association. In the forenoon, County Superintendent J. E. Calavan explained the course of study and teachers' annual report, and Mrs. L. R. Mack, teacher of the intermediate grades of the Boring school, gave a splendid demonstration of the teaching of oral expression in the intermediate grades. At noon a hot chicken dinner with "trimmings" was served free to all by the Parent-Teacher association of Kelso. At the afternoon session a piano solo was rendered by Miss Ethal Wilkinson and a vocal solo by Mrs. J. M. C. Miller. Miss Letta Gregson of the Gresham high school then gave an excellent talk on the moral side of a child's education. Miss Elizabeth K. Matthews spoke on the Froebelian method of development. Miss Matthew's talk was full of inspiration and teeming with vital truth concerning child development. She urged teachers to develop individuality, to teach the child to work on principle and the live from within. She also emphasized correlation in school work and recommended the pedagogy of Christ as the best pedagogy for a teacher to study.

Frank Wells, assistant state superintendent, spoke on the needs of the rural school. He showed how "money" and "management" were two of the main factors in securing a good school. The meeting was universally pronounced the best ever held because of the spirit and interest shown, while the excellent dinner contributed in no small degree to make the meeting a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Braderick, of Spokane, old-time friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barnum, made a visit at the latter's home over Sunday.

Jarl & Eri have rebuilt Mr. Jarl's Ford auto into a truck which will be used for hauling merchandise.

Albert Rodlun has begun work on his new mill on Deep creek near Forsberg's.

Mrs. Albert Rodlun spent a part of Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Robt. Jonsrud.

Mrs. Jack Patterson is still confined to her bed, although somewhat better. Mrs. Downen is caring for her baby.

CHERRYVILLE

The literary and debating club met at the schoolhouse Friday evening. After an exciting debate, a program of songs and readings was well rendered.

Mrs. S. Runyan entertained Miss Kittle Ritzman Thursday evening.

During the heavy snow fall last week Wm. Runyan's wagon and shed broke down, breaking several tools.
