SERVICE AND QUALITY

ALL THE DOINGS OF 'YOUR HOME TOWN'

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shoemaker have returned from California, where they have been for the past winter. Mr. Shoemaker has been employed in Y. M. C. A. work. They are making their home with his mother on the home place. Mr. Shoemaker is employed in Portland.

Arrangements are under way for a Willard Memorial service to be given under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Jennie Kemp, president of the state union, will speak. There will be special music and an interesting service is assured.

The Queen Esther circle will meet next Saturday evening with Miss Helen Metzger, at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lindsey.

The Priscilla Embroidery club was entertained last evening by Miss Mina Gilbert and Miss Emma B. Johnson at the home of the latter. The evening was spent in work and music on the Victrola, which was enjoyed by those present. Light refreshments were served. The next meeting will be with Miss Emma Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kane, of Portland visited on Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Clara Kane.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Erickson and friends made a trip from Warren Sunday in Mr. Erickson's new Overland automobile. They were the guests of Mrs. Erickson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lindsey.

Thos. Ginder left yesterday for Bend, Oregon, where he will spend several weeks with relatives. He hopes to find relief from rheumatism in the higher and drier altitude.

R. P. Hutton spoke in the interest of temperance legislation in Gresham on Sunday. He was at the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school and the Baptist church service in the morning. Mr. Hutton and wife were dinner guests at the home of H. L. St. Clair.

John H. Mann of Portland, candidate for the nomination as representative on the republican ticket, was in Gresham with his family on Sunday, calling on friends.

D. M. Cathey has gone to Seattle to attend a meeting of the board of managers of the Seattle-Pacific college, of which he is a member.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brooke, of Portland, were callers Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. W. Brown. Mrs. Brooke is a successful real estate dealer of Portland Heights.

The Baptist Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. John Metzger on Thursday afternoon, April 6. A program will be rendered, when Mrs. Mary S. Shoemaker, Mrs. Roy Shoemaker and Mrs. Ray Todd will give readings. Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth will sing a solo. Mrs. Geo. W. Page will be her accompanist. Mrs. W. E. Bates and Mrs. A. J. W. Brown will sing a duet and Mrs. Fred Todd will give a piano solo. In the social hour following the program, luncheon will be served by Mrs. Mary Shoemaker, Mrs. E. Davidson, Mrs. Roy Kern and Mrs. J. N. Cavanaugh. All ladies are invited.

Mrs. I. S. Leland has purchased the Winters' property on Fourth street and will make it her home.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lindsey that their son Albert is so nearly recovered from his injury, received at school here last fall, as to be able to walk without crutches.

Mrs. R. R. Carlson and Mrs. J. E. Metzger and children returned a day or two ago from southern California after several months there. Mrs. Carlson went south in the fall and Mrs. Metzger about Christmas time. Mr. Carlson is expected home soon.

BALED HAY for sale. F. A. Welch, Rout 4, Gresham. Phone 77x.

The Ladies' Aid will hold a business meeting and tea at the parsonage on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Brackenbury will be assisted by Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman, Mrs. W. E. Beegle, Mrs. H. L. Park and Mrs. Clara Kane. All ladies are invited.

Harry Thomas is planning to start soon for Alaska, where he will be employed on the government railroad.

E. Davidson has rented his brown bungalow in the eastern part of Gresham to Mr. and Mrs. Linehart of Portland. Mr. Linehart is a moulder at the factory.

Mrs. Lewis Shattuck of Vancouver, Washington, has been removed to her home from a Portland hospital, where she has been under treatment. Her condition is very gratifying to her physicians and friends.

Mrs. B. W. Emery is ill at her home and is being cared for by Mrs. Ella Aton. She is reported a little better today.

About twenty grange women met at the home of Mrs. George Sleret on Thursday afternoon and spent the time sewing on grange paraphernalia. The hostess served a delicious luncheon at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Laura Davis was brought home last week from the hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. She is regaining her former health and strength.

Gresham grange will be entertained next Saturday afternoon by Judge Cleeton and E. S. McCormick, who will both speak upon "Parental Responsibility" from their respective standpoints. The union high school quartet will sing. Candidates will be initiated in four degrees during the forenoon with an open lecture hour after one o'clock to which the public is cordially invited.

Some remaining funds belonging to the old dairymen's association, about ten dollars, has been turned over to the cow testing association. The first named association is dead and the membership of the new one comprises practically the same people.

Alfred Frenzel has taken the store room on Powell street, recently vacated by M. J. O'Brien, and will open a jewelry store there this week. He is a manufacturing jeweler of experience and guarantees good work; besides he will have a line of goods for sale at much less than Portland prices.

David Brooks, a brother of Mrs. John Conley, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Conley.

Hurt by Falling Cow.

Wallace Carpley, working for F. H. Crane had his right knee badly injured when a cow fell upon him on Sunday last. He and Mrs. Crane were trying to get the cow up when she fell back pinning him underneath.

Midnight Dance at Troutdale.

The Ladies' club of Troutdale chapter, O. E. S., will give their next popular midnight dance on Saturday evening, April 8, in the Masonic hall. Good music and strict floor management will insure a good time.

At Pleasant Home.

FIVE PRIZES AWARDED IN BIRDHOUSE CONTEST

John Stout won first prize in the birdhouse contest, announcements of which were made in the last Outlook. John's house was a log house with shake roof. It attracted much attention. The other four prize winners, together with a brief description of the work of each are as follows: second prize, Carl Zimmerman, a bark covered house with three apartments; third prize, Loren Myers, a two-apartment bungalow; fourth prize, Claire Stockton, built from a log with a hole cut in the end; fifth prize, Edward Schwedler, a brown stained cottage.

Special prizes were awarded to Harry Wostell, Byron Leason and Lafayette Kronenberg. Lafayette presented his house, built of willow "logs," to the library. It will be put up in a tree in the back yard where it is believed the birds will appreciate this attractive little home.

The judges, who awarded the prizes were Mayor Geo. W. Stapleton, Geo. F. Honey, Dr. A. Thompson, Geo. W. Kenney and Rev. E. A. Leonard. GRANGERS MAY GO TO NATIONAL GRANGE

An effort is being made to organize a party of grangers who would like to attend the next session of the National Grange in Washington City next November.

Mrs. E. A. Niblin of Evening Star Grange is at the head of the movement and is securing rates from the railroad companies and other data showing the expense of the trip. If the cost is not too high she expects to be able to enlist enough members to make the trip.
