For President

Albert B. Cummins

U. S. Senator from Iowa

"THE MAN WHO CAN WIN"

Some of the reasons why Senator Cummins is entitled to the support of Oregon Republicans.

He is a statesman of the highest and best type.

He is not an EXPERIMENT. He is one of the strong men of the U. S. Senate and one of the great men of the day.

He is the one announced candidate who can unite all factions and lead a united party to victory in November.

He is not being urged on mere FAITH—his views on the great questions of the day are known to all and are approved by Republicans everywhere.

He is a true friend of the farmer and laborer.

He is the only candidate from the West and for the first time in the history of the party the West has a real chance to nominate a western man.

He is strongly OPPOSED to WAR.

He is just and fair to all Nations and all people.

His many years of faithful and superior public service and his masterful achievements entitle him to the hearty support of Oregon Republicans.

He received a majority vote in Minnesota, Iowa, Montana and Nebraska, the only states where his name appeared on the ballot.

HIS NAME WILL BE ON THE OREGON BALLOT

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

What a lot of good promises all of the candidates are offering to the public these days! Do you think they really mean what they say? What a suspense and what a disappointment after it is all over. But we stand for re-election, whenever a person has proved by his deeds that he has been faithful to his promises before God and man. Let us re-elect him, no matter what party he belongs to. Any person holding a position for political purposes who has done his best to make his pocket book big and fat, and has furthermore wasted the taxpayers' money, right and left with extravagant management of the money they have in trust, we say, "Down and out with them."

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Courter, of Latourell Falls, have closed their store and are making preparation for a trip to Alaska. Mr. H. Shoults will have charge of the postoffice at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hinkel just returned from Grants Pass, where they attended state grange and report a splendid meeting, but very bad roads.

There was a good crowd out Saturday night to see the play given at our grange hall by the young folks around here. Everybody taking part did their best to make it a jolly event.

Rudolf Becker and family have taken possession of their new home here at Knight's corner on the Highway, where a new modern equipped garage has been opened.

James Pounder has a fine new Dodge.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Morgan entertained the railroad men at a banquet on Sunday.

A terrible disaster befell Mr. and Mrs. Gossit, of Latourell Falls, yesterday, when Mr. Gossit ran his auto down in a creek on the way to Gresham. Mrs. Gossit was badly hurt and the car is ruined.

Little Florence Darling, who attends school in the city, spent a few days at home with her parents at the Meier place.

Miss Powell, who has been teaching the last term at Hurlburt, signed a contract on Saturday to teach the grammar school at District 39. We wish her success.

We are sorry to hear that Miss Coulter, the high school instructor, is going to leave us. Miss Coulter has been of much help to the young folks in this vicinity, and her pleasant personality has won for her many friends, who will greatly miss her, but our loss will be other's gain.

Miss Helen Deaver left for eastern Washington yesterday, where she will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Carrie Zill.

The water in the Columbia river is so high now, that fishing is at a standstill. There is so much driftwood in the river that it is dangerous for the nets.

Half a Century Ago.

The usual number of persons were out riding yesterday but we hear of a less number being arrested for violation of city ordinances. Officer Ward took one fast rider under his protection.—Oregonian, 50 years ago.

That story has a familiar sound and might happen any time, but one speculates on what the people were riding. The only way to ride in those days was with horses or in boats on the river.

A lady lecturer in Chicago is telling how to live on 20 cents a day. She plays thin soup up so hard that she must be drawing her twenty cents per day from the soup canners.

Milk Record Blanks.

Month's record of milk production for about 16 cows. Just what you need to keep track of your herd. Convenient and cheap. Outlook.

WHY A. W. LAFFERTY SHOULD BE RE-ELECTED

A. W. LAFFERTY
—Bushnell Photo, 1916.
First and Foremost.

He is opposed to the exportation of arms and ammunition with which to murder our brothers across the seas.

He favors enforcing the O. & C. Land Grant to the letter.

He stands for a genuine Rural Credit Law.

He stands for a reduction of Oregon's taxes one half by a conveyance of the forest reserves in trust to the state to be held perpetually as a state-owned and operated forest. The profits from the sale of ripe timber each year would reduce our taxes one half and would give Oregon people jobs besides. He introduced such a bill at the last congress. The timber men opposed it. They want to keep Oregon's timber locked up to rot and fall to the ground where it stands unless they can get it for themselves for a song. They oppose a state-owned forest, saying it would put the state in competition with them.

A genuine Rural Credit Law will so increase the volume of sound money as to bring back prosperous conditions for all and make artificial panics impossible in the future. The banks now have nearly $20,000,000 loaned to the people. They have each dollar loaned over and over again. There are only $2,500,000,000 in existence in the United States, gold silver and paper, or $25 per capita. If the government would loan some of the "credit" it would reduce the cost of living and take the power to strangle business out of the hands of Rockefeller and Morgan.

Lafferty stands flat-footed for the poor people. He appeals to those whose backs are breaking under corrupt politics,—to those whose stomachs are empty as the result of dishonest greed, to stand by him in this fight, and if they do so he will win. The victory will be theirs as well as his.

They ask "What has Lafferty ever done?" Here is the answer:

Biographical.
Raised on Missouri farm.
Admitted to State Supreme Court Bar at 21.

City Attorney, Montgomery, Mo., at 22
Captain in Missouri National Guard at 27.

Prosecuting Attorney at 27.
* Sent to Oregon as Special Agent General Land office at 29.

Started Land Grant Suits at 31.
Elected to Congress at 34.
Re-elected to Congress at 36.

Record in Congress.
During first term secured appropriations for Columbia and Willamette rivers amounting to $2,100,000 a year. No other Congressional District in the United States received as much. These were the largest River and Harbor appropriations received by the District in Oregon's history.

During second term District had been cut down to Multnomah county. Secured liberal appropriations for deepening from Portland to mouth of Columbia.

Helped secure appropriation of $1,000,000 for new postoffice building at Portland. Same not yet constructed.

Secured appropriation of $5,000 for purchase of postoffice site at St. Johns.

Helped secure appropriation of $35,000,000 for Government railway in Alaska.

Secured amendment to Homestead Law, reducing residence period from 5 to 3 years.

Was first to introduce 8-hour law for women in the District of Columbia and helped secure its passage.

Voted and spoke for National Woman's Suffrage.

Voted for Kenyon Law, wiping out commercialized vice in the District of Columbia.

Voted for Webb-Kenyon Law, giving to dry states power to regulate or prohibit the importation of liquor from wet states.

Voted for submission of Hobson amendment for Nation-wide prohibition to the states for ratification or rejection.

Was promoted during last term to committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, the highest committee on which any Oregon member has served since the late Congressman Ellis retired from the committee on Ways and Means.

Worked in season and out of season to push O. & C. Land Grant case to a successful conclusion, and to open the lands involved to actual settlers under a drawing system, giving to every citizen who will register for a drawing an absolutely equal chance, and is still working to that end.

Therefore, Mr. Lafferty appeals to voters to make their ballots count for their own benefit on May 19, by supporting him for re-election to Congress.

THEO. E. BURTON—THE MAN OF THE HOUR

The political sages seem to be very much at sea in their forecasts. The sphinx-like attitude of Hughes coupled with the meteoric tendencies of Roosevelt, linked with the entry of Root, makes possible some great surprises at the convention. The more complicated the question becomes, the more difficulty experienced in making a political diagnosis of the situation, the more likely will it be necessary at the critical hour to present and nominate a man of well-known political position.

In the vast number of men now in the limelight for the nomination none stands out so conspicuously in his political achievements, the definiteness of his position on all great national questions, his happy geographical location and preeminent ability as one of Ohio's greatest men, than Theodore E. Burton of that state. His recent advent into the state of Oregon, the great Portland speech which will probably, if reported, go down in the political history of the country as a classic, brought him closer to the Oregon people than any other candidate under consideration. Burton seems to be the man of the hour. He combines all the sturdy qualities of the illustrious list of Ohio's presidents with the fact that he represents the last and best thought in the political problems confronting the country.

He is safe, sane, mature, able, strong physically and mentally, to take up the great work as the President of the next administration. The delegates at Chicago are not governed by sentiment and in the selection of a standard bearer they will demand a man of action and a man with a political past. Hughes stands out sphinx-like. He is strong in mystery. He has been a man of achievement, but since his presidential boom has been launched, what will he do, what will be his program, is mere guesswork, and the delegates at the convention will be at a loss to know whether or not he will be able to stand firmly upon the great American platform that is now being formulated for the historic event in June at Chicago. Never did the Republican party demand a man who is known in all its parts as now, and in looking over the list of possibilities, Ohio's great son, coming in to the Chicago convention backed by the solid delegation from that state and as the ideal second choice from a great number of other states, will hold the key to the situation and lead the Republican party on to victory in November. The name Burton sounds Success.

BALLOT NO. 99

RODERICK L. MACLEAY

Born in Portland forty-one years ago, president of the Macleay Estate Co., operating in business in Oregon and Washington. Lives in Portland. Has never run for office before. Is actively interested in real estate, timber, logging, saw mills, salmon canning, stock raising, dairying, retail merchandising, and is a director of the United States National Bank. "I desire to be elected to the legislature because my business experience has convinced me that the political regulations of the state have much to do with the prosperity of its citizens, and I firmly believe that prosperity can be increased and made more or less permanent by wise laws just as easily as it can be lessened or destroyed by foolish laws.

If elected, I will strive for conditions in this state favorable to the investment of capital, the protection of labor, the conduct of business and the starting of new enterprises, with the consequent large pay rolls and activity in all lines of endeavor."

DISTRICT ATTORNEY DRIVES SHARKS OUT

During the conduct of his office Mr. Evans has acted as the legal adviser of all county officials. During his administration the people of this county authorized the issuance of $2,500,000 of bonds for the construction of the inter-state bridge to Vancouver, Washington, and the pavement of county roads. All of the legal work in these matters was performed in the District Attorney's office without additional expense to the taxpayers and in addition to the regular work of the office.

Mr. Evans' earnest efforts to carry out the provisions of the prohibition law have met with the approbation of the people.

In the prosecution of arson cases, Mr. Evans has achieved a nationwide reputation by successfully punishing more offenders than any other county not excluding New York city.

He has driven out the loan-sharks from this county who made it a business to prey upon the needs and distress of the working people.

I. McCOLL, P. M.

The office of farm management of the U. S. D. A. has completed a survey of one of the best farmed counties in the United States, Chester county, Pennsylvania. This survey shows that the crop yield produced by intensifying the farming processes rises along with the labor income up to a certain point. After that point larger yields produced by intensive farming are accompanied by a loss in the labor income. In other words, as intensive farming is there practiced, there is a point at which it costs more in labor than it brings in crops.—Farm and Fireside.
